When you see a man going home at 2 o'clock in the morning, and know his wife is waiting up for him, it is likely to be stormy.

When a man receives a bill for goods his wife bought unknown to him, look out for "thunder and lightning."

When a man goes home and finds no supper ready, the fire gone out and his wife crasading, it is likely to be "cloudy."

When a man promises to take his wife to a party and changes his mind after she is dressed, you may expect a "shower."

When a man saves his cigar money to buy his wife a new bonnet and the children new shoes, it indicates a spell of "sun-shine."

When a man dies and leaves a nice young widow with plenty of money, and you see her walking out with one of the executors on Sunday, a "change"

Colorado calls for more women. It has scarcely a single one.

Executor's Notice.
