THE DAILY PHŒNIX.

"Let our Just Censures Attend the True Event."

BY J. A. SELBY. COLUMBIA, S. C., SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 12, 1874. VOL. X—NO. 225.

The Condition of the Negroes — That the condition of the Southern negroes is not all that could be desired is possibly true. But that they are in a worse condition than the mass of working people in some of the Northern and Eastern States, is a matter that admits of doubt. The truth is that, as a general rule, in all the Southern States the colored population are freer, labor less, and enjoy life more, than the working classes in Pennsylvania, New York or any Eastern State. The miners of the Lackawanna, the shoe-makers of New England, the laborers in the Jersey potteries, labor more continuously, have fewer of the comforts of life, and are bound by heavier shackles than any negroes of the South. The negroes are not rich, and, of course, must perform menial services just as the white laborers of the North and East do; but they are no more oppressed than whites of the same class.

[St. Louis Republican.

Parisian editors are having a very lively time just at present. They are not only constantly censured for the publication of on dits of the wildest description, but every few days are severely punished for giving currency to scandals. A short time since, a French Bohemian, named Canonne, invented a scandal and sold it to several papers, all of which eagerly published it. The result was that five or six editors were fined.

Tallandaria, the new Paris actress, must be a pleasing person. She has (according to the imaginative feuilletonists of the French capital) killed or mortally wounded six or seven persons in a frenzy of jealousy. She knows how to mix the Borgia poisons, and when vexed she foams at the mouth like a regular Blanche de Chelles.

In the Cafe Mulhouse, Paris, on the 13th of November, a gentleman played a game of billiards with his nose. He bet that he would not miss more than 95 points in a count of 200; but he ran 230 without a miss.

Oil-cloths, if well rubbed with woolen cloth and warm water, with the addition of a little skim milk, if convenient, will look nearly as well as new. Scrubbing-brushes and strong soap are ruinous to them.

France is no longer governed by the septennat. It is the sexennat now. Frenchmen must find it a great point in favor of the present arrangement that the Government will have a new name every year.

An emigrant train of the Central Pacific Railroad collided with a Western bound passenger train. Two emigrants killed and several wounded.

The tomb of Augustus at Rome is to be used for a theatre. The ex-Emperor retains his private box.

When a man comes to know that he don't know everything, he then becomes wise.

A Kerosene That Will Not Explode!

ALADDIN SECURITY OIL is offered with the confidence that it will prove itself equal, if not superior, to any burning oil that has been offered to the public. This oil is prime white in color, is deodorized to the highest extent achieved in the manufacture of burning oils, and is warranted to stand a fire test of 150 degrees Fahrenheit.

It is perfectly safe for use in all Coal Oil or Kerosene Lamps, and as its name indicates, will give all who use it perfect "security" in doing so.

Aladdin Security Oil will burn longer, have much less smell, and not crust the wick, and will be found to be very economical, to say nothing of the entire "security" in its use. For sale at
L. T. SILLIMAN & CO.'S
Oct 14 Drug Store.

Seegers' vs. Cincinnati Beer.

THE Cincinnati Gazette makes the astonishing announcement that Cincinnati beer is no longer pure, but adulterated with molasses, sugar of starch, fusel oil and the poisonous colchicum. The Commissioner of Agriculture, in his report for 1865, says that Prof. Mapes, of New York, analyzed the beer from a dozen different breweries, and found all of it adulterated. Cocculus Indicus and nux vomica entered largely into its composition.

J. C. SFEGERS guarantees his beer to be pure and reliable. He does not adulterate it, but brews from the best barley, malt and hops. Jan 23
