At a Republican meeting in Indians. the other day, a speaker, named Long, responded to a loud call, and took the stand. But a big, strapping fellow persisted in crying out in a stentorian voice, "Long, Long!" This caused a little confusion; but, after some difficulty in making himself heard, the President succeeded in stating that Mr. Long, the gentleman honored by the call, was now addressing them. Mr. Long, the gentleman honored by the call, was now addressing them.
"Oh, he be d—d," replied the fellow, "he's the little skeezicks that told me to call for Loag." This brought down for small quantities; 20 cents by the 100 pounds—delivered at the depot.

The adventure of an intelligent sportamen of California is thus recorded; "Billy Barker found almost constant pastime in hunting and smoking. These two diversions seemed to be compatible, and, with a pipe in his month and a gun on his shoulder, he wore out many pairs of boots tramping through the woods. It has been mentioned that; hunting and smoking seemed compatible, but Mr. Barker is now otherwise convinced. Seeing a bird on a high branch, with its moving wings denoting an immediate intention of flying away, he hastily took aim. The tobacco smoke obsoured his sight, and he stuck the pipe in his pocket, where his powder flask was. Four things went off in the order mentioned—the gun, the flask, the most of Mr. Barker's leg, and the bird."

Nobady requires a larger stock of the control of the pipe in the pipe in his pocket, where his powder flask was. Four things went off in the order mentioned—the gun, the flask, the most of Mr. Barker's leg, and the bird."
