DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF

a disgratiful scene which occurred in the Postsylvania Legislature on Monday night:

'Mr. Talley, Democrat, of Dalawara County, made a motion to refer the petition of sitiness of Lanjanter City, eschessing the west of B. P. Bosenmiller, a Republican as member of the Lagislature, to the Committee on the Judiciary. The Republicans raised the point of criter that the petition was not proposely before the House, that body not having been legally organism when the petition was originally introduced. Speaker Patterson decided against the Republicans, when at appeals was taken, and his decision was changed two takens, of Union County, then relead the further point of order that it possises of the rules. The Speaker meditud as adverse decision, and esternized a motion to adjourn, when Wolf sprang to his feet, and incisted that he had a right to be heard on his point.

"The Speaker decisied him out of can his patient.

"The Spineless desired him out of coller, as no appeal had been taken from his desicion, and a motion to adjust we not debuttable. Mr. Wolf instituted that he was not out to order, when the Speakes commanded him to take his coat, and, Wolf refusing to chey, he called into requisition the services of the Sergeant-at-Arms, who proceeded to except the order of the Chair. The Republicans hissed the proceeding and the Democrate applauled it. Wolf continued yelling at the kep of his voice until the Sergeant-at-Arms, ble confusion, and the Republican members reached to the defence of their celleague and wrested him from the hands of the Sergeant-at-Arms. In the midds of the Sergeant-at-Arms. In the midds of the commotion, the Speaker adjourned the House. During the moise, pistole were drawn, and for a time it was feared that a general rich would entern."

In the House, yesterday, action upon a resolution to commot Mr. Wolf of disobeying the rules of the House during the disgressfal scene of Monday evening, was postponed till to-day.

Gev. Chamberlant, in a letter to the Mones arms the state of the Mones are applied to the common of Monday evening, was postponed till to-day.

Gev. Chamberlain, in a letter to the Nation apon the subject of the recent inter-collegiate contest in New York, makes some very fine and incisive points against the policy of these exhibitions. He forcibly pain it that a student a "first duty and interest is to do the work of the recitation and lecture room;" that this duty will completely fill the time of ninety-nine out of a hendred students, leaving "n very insignificant namerical faction" to take part in what he severely characterises as "these side-shows." He argues that the "conservative influences of real knowledge and thorugh discipline are supplemented by those effects which must attend the public exhibition of imitative powers and superficial or imperfoot knowledge." Gov. Chamberlain, in a letter to the exhibition of imitative powers and superficial or imperfect knowledge." Daly respecting the eminent men under whose patronage this contest took place, Gov. Chamberlain protests against their claim of advantage to the student, in being incentive to close, careful and improving study. He holds that good scholarship can be attained alone by patient study and reflection; that public applause is an insiduous and unhealthful food for the young mind. A graduate of Harvard himself, he notes with satisfaction as not insignificant the absence of Harvard insignificant the absence of Harvard and Yale from the recent contest, and closes his very admirable lettes pithily claiming that it is better to have students judged "by what they know than by what they say."

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are un easiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rhenmatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels, in general, costive, sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the Liver is generally the organ most involved.

GUANAHANI GUANO.

GUANAHANI GUANO,

A Nimportant natural Guano—a genuine A Animal Deposit. A Cargo of 500 tons now on the way to this port. This Guano gave great satisfaction in Virginia and North Carolina the past season. Circular and cartificates ent on application.

Prof. Wilson, of Baltimore, Md., says of this Guano: "By a critical examination of the analysis of the various cargoes you have imported, a striking feature is the great regularity in the per centage of the important constituents essential for the production of all crops."

Prof. F.A. Genth, of Philadelphia, Penn., says: "The Guano is evidently of animal origin, and the minute bones which were discovered in the same, indicate that it is the result of the decay of bats, mice, &c.
The quantity of organic matter which is still present is about 12 per cent., and this yields about 22 per cent. of ammonic. A portion of the nitrogen is present as nitrio acid, of which about 3 per cent. were found.
All the nitrogen present would be equivalent to about 32 per cent. of ammonia. The phosphoric acid in the Guano averaged about 123 per cent., equal to 27 3 per cent. of Bone Phosphate. A considerable quantity of the phosphoric acid, however, is present as so-called neutral Phosphate of Lime, which, being slightly soluble in water, renders the Guano as quick in its action as a corresponding quantity of Superphosphates would do. The small per centage of potash which was found in analysis adds to its value. From all the experiments which I have made of the Guanahani Guano no doubt can exist that it is a valuable manure."

Prof. H. C. White, of the Georgia State Agricultural Society, says: "As shown by the analysis, this Guano contains, in good proportion, all the elements which are generally considered as of value for plant food, and the forms and combinations in which they are present are such as to render them available to and assimilable by the plant. I should judge that the proper use of this article for purposes of fertilization would be attended with great profit
