A Train of Evils.—If weakness of the stomach is allowed to become chronic, the following evils supervene: Digestion is permanently impaired, the system is very imperfectly nourished, the blood becomes thin and watery, and the bile being unemployed for digestive and evacuative purposes, enters the circulation through the thoratic duct, and injects itself into the superficial vessels, giving to the skim and whites of the eyes the safton tinge indicative of billiousness. Headache, nausea, constipation, pains in the side, palpitations, heartburn, dizziness and many other harrassing symptoms which accompany the internal derangement above described, which, if unchecked, is as sure to be followed by serious disease, as the rising of the sun by its setting. It is manifest, therefore, that an inability of the stomach to act upon the food should be overcome without day. The invigorating influence upon that organ of Hostetter's Etomach Bitters in specifily felt in the disappearance of all the disagreeable symptoms alluded to. The prescribed mineful remedies for general debility usually fail to achieve any lasting result, because they do not invigorate the stomach; Hostetter's Bitters always succeed because that is their primal effect. The very fact that they are such an excellent stomachic constitutes them one of the best general topics in existence. To restore digestion is the final step towards the recovery of health, when impaired by any of the multifarious complaints which spring from dyspepsia, and that step will be found to have been taken by the invalid who has availed himself of this famous anti-dyspeptic remedy. M19431 A TRAIN OF EVILS. -- If weakness of the Turpentine in doses of twenty or thirty minims, given at intervals of an hour or two, will not only remove the headache, but produce, in a wodderful manner a refreshingly soothing influence.

Time is a dread iconoclast that breaks our cherished idols and scatters their loved fragments among the shadows of the past.

The mutual magnetism that draws kindred minds together is indefinable; yet it exists, and choice spirits bow to its potent influence.

GUANO

The Celebrated Fertilizers for Cotton, (o). Wheat and Tebacco REDUCED PRICES! LIBERAL TERMS!

Wilcox, Gibbes & Co.'s Manipulated Guano, Prepared at Savannah, Ga., and Charleston, S. C., and

BHEBOR COURTS

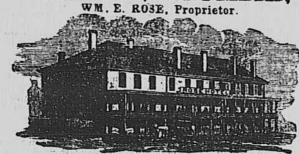

Imported in bulk direct from Phenix Ielande, South Pacific Ocean.

WE are offering the above celebrated #ERTILIZERS, this reason, at considerably reduced prices, and give purchasors the option of paying in cotton on the basis of seventeen cents for midding, delivered at planters nearest depot, by November I, 1875, the cotton to be packed in good merchantable bales. By this arrangement, the planter has a guarantee of realizing a good price for his cotton to pay for his fortilizors. These GUANOS are too well known to require comment. Those who have need them know how to appreciate their value; those who have not, as yet will find, on fair trial, that their liberal mas will pay on present crops, besides being of future benefit to their lands. For justice information, call on the understanded for circulars, containing analysis, epinions of planters, &c.
