

Telegraphic—Foreign News.
London, March 23.—The funeral of John Mitchell took place to-day at Newry, Ireland. His remains were buried in a church yard. A great crowd, estimated at 10,000, was present, but quiet was preserved, notwithstanding that an exciting placard had been distributed.
Bayonne, March 23.—Don Carlos declares that Cabrera and all deserters who fall into his hands shall be tried by military commission. Admiral Polo and Gen. Bodo are the only important adherents of Cabrera thus far.
London, March 24.—A bill for the amendment of the Peace Preservation Act passed—264 to 69. The Home Rulers opposed the bill. D'Israeli appealed to the Irish members not to agitate the country by an opposition that in the end must be futile. Notice was given of a motion to give Carlists belligerent rights.
Wm. Fryer & Sons, of Halifax, failed.
Paris, March 24.—A conspiracy for the assassination of Gen. Cabrera, who recently abandoned the Carlist cause, has been frustrated.

Pottsville, March 24.—There is great alarm among the people on the banks of the Delaware, and they are moving to higher ground.
Washington, March 24.—A warm snow storm here and generally North. Apprehensions from floods and gorges are general throughout the North—the late severe weather having melted the ice, and the present snow in many localities melting as it falls, and elsewhere drifting, assures general flood. 20,000 people, who subsist from the lumber trade, will probably lose all.
A negro, employed by Mr. Nelson, recently from the North, outraged Nelson's wife, in Prince George County, Md., last night, and the people hung him this morning.

Washington, March 24.—The Senate was in executive session all day—most of the time being spent in discussing the nomination of D. A. Pardee to be United States District Judge of Louisiana, vice Durell, resigned. The nomination was finally laid on the table. A committee was then appointed to wait upon the President and inform him that the Senate was ready to adjourn, unless he had some further communication to make. The President replied that he had not. The usual resolutions of thanks to the Vice-President and President pro tempore of the Senate, were agreed to and the Senate, at 5.45, adjourned sine die.

James Reed, Chairman of the late Board of County Commissioners, and his co-commissioner, Madison Pendergrass, convicted of official misconduct, left Chester to-day for the penitentiary—the former (white) sentenced to a term of two years, and the latter (colored) for three months. The grand jury, at the present term, found true bills against Dublin J. Walker, late School Commissioner, and B. F. Michael and others, late School Trustees, for issuing fraudulent school certificates in the year 1874. Walker is Senator from this County, and is charged with issuing a fraudulent teacher's pay certificate on November 21, 1874, after he had vacated the office of School Commissioner, and while occupying his seat as a State Senator. The certificate was dated back by him to November 24, 1871, so as to bring it within the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly, which makes teachers' certificates of that date preferred claims on the treasury by setting aside the poll tax for their payment. The proofs of guilt in these last named cases are said to be so conclusive that a conviction is certain.
(Cor. Union-Herald.)

Ex-Senator Brownlow does not always give good advice, either to white or colored men. He too frequently substitutes passion and prejudice for reflection and calm judgment. But on a recent occasion, since the passage of the Civil Rights Bill, he presented to the colored people of his own and other sections of the country some excellent advice in relation to their behavior under the new state of affairs. He says "the best thing the colored population can do is to accept the situation in which these laws place them, and to reverence and obey all the laws of the land, carefully avoiding everything calculated to array the prejudices of the whites against them, or to bring about unpleasant relations between the races." If the ex-Senator will now rap sharply over the knuckles that class of politicians who inflame the passions and prejudices of colored men for their own selfish purposes, he will add to the strength of his position in the estimation of good men of all parties.—Philadelphia Times.

GRANGERS.—All is not lovely among brethren of the Grange. The Patrons of Husbandry in Iowa are splitting up into independent fragments. The reported grievance is that the Grange has lost all confidence in the National officers, and that the finances have been mis-managed. It is stated that the late exhibition of the financial management of the National Grange will lead to a general withdrawal and abandonment of the concern.

A colored woman, named Leah Davis, was killed by lightning, in her house, on Mrs. Coleclough's plantation, Sumter, on Sunday, 14th inst., her child being at the same time severely stunned.
The stockholders of the Merchants' and Planters' National Bank, of Augusta, have decided to close that institution, on the ground that it does not pay to run it.
