"Let our Just Censures

Attend the True Event."

BY JULIAN A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 1875.

VOLUME XI-NUMBER 29.

He was an Adventist, which did FIREMEN'S not hinder his being a Cook County Granger. He believed for a long time that the world was going to come to an end last Monday, which did not prevent his having on hand numerous stacks of hay. He was pious, which did not keep him from seeing his shortcomings. But he muffed himself up in his ascen-sion robes last Monday, and mount-ed on one of those stacks of hay to get a good start for the New Jerusalem, which did not keep him from going to sleep after he had waited awhile for the grand event. Peacefully he dozed, until just before the rain, when some heathenish boys set fire to the hay-stack, and as the flames circled around him he awoke. He supposed it was over, and philosophically remarked: "In h—l, just as I expected!"—Chicago Tribune.

Don Piatt has this Capital notice of Spencer, the little fat sutler whom the negroes of Alabama thrust into the Senate to represent that State: "It required a war that emancipated the slaves and sunk us deeper in debt, to say nothing of the frightful carnage, to produce such a Senator as Spencer. We can comprehend the presence of an ignorant negro in the Senate, for his color is emblematic of the Republican party his very odor is characteristic of its corrupt condition—but Spencer is one of those evils that defy philosophy."

The Courier-Journal says: "We must decline the advice of a Ch cago case whatever. A single drink of Cincinnati whiskey gives one a feeling of 'true inwardness' that we

"Why do you use paint?" asked a yielinist of his daughter. "For the same reason that you use rosin, papa." "How is that?" "Why, to help me to draw my beau."

To the Citizens of Columbia.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 17, 1875.

THE undersigned, on behalf of the hand engines of the city of Columbia, have appointed the following persons to solicit contributions to aid them in defraying the expenses of the TOUR-NAMENT to be given by them on the 11th OF MAY next, viz: Messrs. John Dennison, H. E. Hayne, Isaac Black, Jr., C. M. Wilder, Thos. J. Gregory and William Rose.

The members of both companies have contributed to a fund for that purpose, but failing to raise a sufficient amount, they are compelled to appeal to a generous public to supplement their own contributions with a sum sufficient to pay the expenses
