A FEW PLAIN QUESTIONS WHICH REQUIRE PLAIN ANSWERS.—A correspondent of the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel propounds the following questions to Mr. Alex. H. Stephens:

Mr. Stephens, the apologist of Grant, will please answer the following questions for the enlightenment of his constituents: Why did Grant detain Congress when about to adjourn and send in his recommendation of the passage of the Enforcement Act?

Why did he recommend the passage of the Civil Rights Bill, and give the impression that he would veto the same if passed, and when it passed sign the said bill?

Why did he recommend the overthrow of the Garland Government and the substitution of the Brooks Government at the point of the bayonet?

Why did he sustain Sheridan when the public denounced him? Why did he appoint Major Merrill to ride down the people of Louisiana when he had disgraced the uniform of a Federal officer in South Carolina, and had received the pay of a rones' government for arresting innocent people and collecting vitiated evidence to convict the same?

I want the above answered without sophistry, dodging or subterfuge.

"I will meet you in—" he was saying, as he stepped off the street car while it was in motion, but he never finished the sentence. If he meant to say in the mud, he certainly kept his word, for when he got up he was the saddest spectacle in all the town.

One of the speakers at a recent temperance meeting, in Boston, charged that lots of Boston women chew tobacco, and said that he could get ten men to leave off chewing where one woman will give up the weed.

In one part of Norway, the longest day is three months, and yet there is no daily paper in the whole section; neither is there a monthly magazine, as no publisher could afford to bring out three issues in one day.

Gen. Albert Pike has recovered from Mexico $50,000 in gold for the families of Generals Parsons and Standish. These Generals were ex-Confederates in the service of Mexico, and fell by the hands of guerrillas.

An actor being recently absent from rehearsal, the stage-manager said he must be fined. "But before he is fined he must be found," suggested the low comedy actor of the company.

A sharp talking lady was reproved by her husband, who requested her to keep her tongue in her mouth. "My dear," she said, "it's against the law to carry concealed weapons."

A good man died in Georgia, and the order to which he belonged "resolved, that the Lord, for some reason to the undersigned unknown, has removed Brother Jones," etc.

The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general costive, and sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times, very few of them; but the Liver is generally the organ most involved.
