

"Let our Just Censures"

Attend the True Event."

VOLUME XI—NUMBER 42.

A CENTENARIAN.—Even Sir George Cornwall Lewis himself, we think, must "give in" to the Baron Waldeck. If that remarkable old man was not 109 years old when he died, there is no means of knowing how old anybody is, for the record of Waldeck's birth at Prauge, on March 16, 1776, is as good a record as we are accustomed to ask, and his claim to the title of a centenarian is quite equal to M. Thiers' claim to be called an octogenarian, which nobody disputes. M. Thiers has been before the public from a time to which the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, but Waldeck was heard of before that. He was in Africa with Le Vaillant, and Le Vaillant returned to Paris from his remarkable explorations in 1785; ninety years ago. He was a pupil of David, who has been half a century in his grave. He was with Napoleon in Egypt, with Lord Cochrane in Chili, he traveled in Central America and Mexico when these countries were little known to Europeans, and as long ago as 1826 the Government gave him an annuity of 2,000 francs for some of his pictures, rather than pay him 40,000 francs, which was thought too high a price. It was not only the Director of the Ecole des Beaux Arts, by the way, that Waldeck got the better of; he had a seat at the opera which he had bought for the rest of his life, and which he occupied for about two ordinary lifetimes, to the infinite chagrin of the management. Indeed, people who invested on the chances of the old man's death found their investment a poor one, and used to say of himself that, as he had long survived the period when men usually die, and kept his faculties unimpaired, there was no apparent reason why he should not live forever. He kept on painting pictures and writing elaborate work archeology almost to the day of his death, while the young men who grew up about him were gathered into their graves. Only think of a man who had known Marie Antoinette before her marriage; who had seen her glory and her fall; who had walked and talked with Danton, Robespierre and Marat; who had served with Napoleon, who, from his studio in Paris, had seen pass before his eyes the First Empire, Louis XVIII and the monarchy of July, the revolution of February and the Second Empire, the 4th of September, the Commune and M. Thiers, and who waited with the same indifference to see MacMahon also pass away. "I am the only phenomenon of my kind," he said; "like Buddha, I contemplate myself alone." It would need the pen of a Hawthorne to do justice to such a history; but it is not a history that one can covet, though old Waldeck appears to have found very little of the sadness in it that Hawthorne would have dwelt upon. But Waldeck was a Parisian, and a cosmopolite.

While on the subject, we may as well mention that the Presbyterian church in this and other countries number about 8,500,000 souls. The hair of a young lady in Vermont turned white in a single night. She fell in a flour barrel.

TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR!

For all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen!
It is evidently a Family Medicine, and by being kept ready for immediate resort, will save many an hour of suffering, and many a dollar in time and doctors' bills.

After forty years' trial, it is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials of its virtues from persons of the highest character and responsibility. Eminent physicians commend it as the most for CONSTIPATION, HEADACHE, Pain in the Shoulders, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, Dyspepsia, Gloom and forebodings of evil: all of which are the offspring of a diseased Liver.

If you feel Dull, Drowsy, Debilitated, have frequent headache, Mouth tastes badly, poor Appetite and Tongue Coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness," and nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently.

The Liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.

Armed with this ANTIDOTE, all climates and changes of water and food may be faced without fear. As a remedy in MALARIOUS FEVERS, BOWEL COMPLAINTS, RESTLESSNESS, JAUNDICE, NAUSEA, the Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World!

"I have never seen or tried such a simple, efficacious, satisfactory and pleasant remedy in my life."—H. HAINER, St. Louis, Mo.

"I occasionally use, when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator, with good effect."—HON. ALEX. H. STEVENS.

"Your Regulator has been in use in my family for some time, and I am persuaded it is a valuable addition to the medical science."—Gov. J. GILL SHOOTER, Alabama.

"I have used the Regulator in my family for the past seventeen years. I can safely recommend it to the world as the best medicine I have ever used for that class of diseases it purports to cure."—H. F. THORNS.

"Simmons' Liver Regulator has proved a good and efficacious medicine."—C. A. NUTTINO, President of City Bank.

"We have been acquainted with Dr. Simmons' Liver Medicine for more than twenty years, and know it to be the best Liver Regulator offered to the public."—M. R. LYON and H. L. LYON, Druggists, Bellefontaine, Ga.

April 20 1mt

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general constive, and sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times, very few of them; but the Liver is generally the organ most involved.

Auxiliary Joint Stock Company.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 29, 1875.
At a meeting to-day, of the Directors of the Auxiliary Joint Stock Company, the following preamble and resolutions were proposed, adopted and ordered to be published for the information of the public:

Whereas there appears to be a sentiment among certain of the influential patrons of the annual exhibitions of our society opposed to horse racing as repugnant to their ideas of propriety; and whereas the Directors are desirous of reconciling all the elements of success in connection therewith,
Resolved, That henceforth there shall be no racing conducted under the auspices of our association in connection with our annual fairs, and that no premiums be offered for the same.
Resolved, That the President, Col. D. Wyatt Aiken, be requested to treat for a lease of the track and appurtenances.
Resolved, That the usual annual Fair be held on the Fair Grounds, beginning on Tuesday, the 9th of November next, and continuing through the week, in conformity with the rules and regulations of the premium list of 1874, exclusive of so much as relates to special premiums.
D. WYATT AIKEN,
President.

T. W. HOLLOWAY, Secretary.

Final Discharge.

NOTICE is hereby given that Sarah L. Wright, administratrix of the estate of Wm. A. Wright, deceased, has applied to Hon. B. I.
