

The Louisiana Adjustment--The Property of the Country Dependent on Justice to the South.

The New York Times, of Monday, publishes a very interesting letter from Hon. Wm. A. Wheeler, one of the Republicans from the St. Lawrence Congressional District of New York, and member of the Committee of Congress which conducted the compromise of affairs in Louisiana to a successful issue.

The South earned the right a hundred years ago to have its gallant deeds in the war for independence celebrated upon their hundredth anniversary, and the Mecklenburg Centennial, which will take place at Charlotte, N. C., May 20, will be the initial event of the kind in that section.

The Mecklenburg Centennial Medal. The first impression of the medal struck at the Philadelphia Mint to commemorate the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence has been received in Washington.

An unpleasant phase of the American fever for "moving West," is the fact that thousands are now pushing for the Pacific coast without any perceptible inducement beyond vague expectations.

through its excesses and abuses here. They signal its dangers; they plead for its rehabilitation and reform. The New York Times, in its comments upon "the South and the Republican party," suggested by this manly letter of Mr. Wheeler, uses language which is as true as it was until recently rare and strange.

A GREAT TURFMAN GONE.—Late London files contain handsome notices of Sir Joseph Hawley, in whose recent death in London the British turf has sustained so severe a loss.

The Emperor Pedro II, of Brazil, in his speech, the other day, gave a very flattering view of affairs in his dominions. The negotiations with the Argentine Republic, referred to in the despatch, relate to an attempt of that Government to restrict the free navigation of the La Plata River and its tributaries by fortifying the Island of Martin Garcia, which is the key to the commerce of that region, and is situated at the junction of the Uruguay and Parana Rivers.

SUFFERING IN NEW ORLEANS.—The report made by the City Council of New Orleans, the other day, makes the pitiable disclosure of general and intense suffering in that city, for the want of the common necessities of life.

UNITED STATES COURT.—In the District Court in Charleston, on the 11th, Judge Bryan presiding, the case of the United States vs. James Maloney and James W. Hayward, indicted for conspiracy to impersonate United States revenue officers, which was partly heard on Monday, was resumed, and after argument by Mr. Earle for the Government and Mr. Tharin for the defendants, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty.

DEATH OF COL. JOHN B. MOORE.—It is our sad duty to record the death of another of the prominent and useful citizens of Sumter. On Monday last, the remains of Col. John B. Moore were consigned to the bosom of their mother dust, after impressive obsequies at the Church of the Holy Cross, Stateburg.

DEATH OF A YOUNG CONFEDERATE.—A notice in another column announces the death of Walter Beaumont Clarkson, Esq. At the early age of sixteen, he volunteered in the Hampton Legion, and served gallantly during the entire war, and it was from disease then contracted that his death was caused.

THE POLITICAL ASPECT OF THE COMING STATE OF COLORADO seems to be as follows: Political parties are rather evenly divided, and personal popularity will go a great way in the election of State officers.

THE CHARLOTTE COLORED FIREMEN departed homeward, last night. They were highly delighted with their trip. A saloon-keeper in this city, reading that geraniums will keep off snakes, is decorating his bar with them.

VEGETABLES OF NEARLY EVERY kind are abundant in this market, at low prices. Poultry rather scarce and high.

THE CITY COUNCIL met last night, to consider the police-diamond matter; but adjourned until this afternoon, on account of the absence of important witnesses.
