

"Let our Just Censures

Attend the True Event."

BY JULIAN A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 22, 1875.

VOLUME XI—NUMBER 53.

A SAD CASE OF SUICIDE.—The village of Woodhull, Steuben County, N. Y., was greatly excited on Thursday, by the report that Mrs. John Farris, daughter of the Rev. Joseph Thomas, of the Woodhull Presbyterian Church, had committed suicide, near Watkins' Glen, by throwing herself in front of a locomotive on the Northern Central Railway. The deceased, who was only twenty-four years of age, a few months since made the acquaintance of John Farris, a dry goods clerk, who came from Ithaca to Woodhull. He wooed and won the girl, and a few weeks since they were married. On arriving at Watkins' on a wedding tour, and spending a few days, Farris' manner changed. He became intoxicated daily, and finally he pushed his wife from him, and to her horror coolly told her that she was not his wife, as he had been previously married, and his wife was living at Ithaca, and with this he took his departure, leaving the distressed young woman to the cold charity of the world. She was too proud to return home, and sought service as a domestic in a family at Watkins', where she remained until the evening she committed suicide.

The Rev. Nevin Woodside, a Brooklyn clergyman, who got into a very unpleasant predicament through feminine babble, was fully exonerated from blame by his presbytery last week. Mr. Woodside loved a young lady, who married a worthy young man. The young man died in about a year, his wife, in the meantime, having given birth to a child. Unfortunately, her marriage had been surreptitiously performed by a colored minister, and was not generally announced. The baby was straightway attributed to the Rev. Mr. Woodside, who was known to have been in love with the girl. The fact of her marriage, however, was established, and Mr. Woodside is now all right. It is unsafe for a clergyman to dwell in Brooklyn.

The case of Carruth, the New Jersey editor who was shot in the head by Landis, a few weeks ago, is certainly a curious one. The ball penetrated the brain so far that it could not be removed, and his death was looked for as a matter of course. Contrary to general expectation, he is said to be recovering, and is able to walk out daily. The ball is still imbedded in the head. As he has been treated by homoeopathic physicians, the school of medicine to which they belong will doubtless consider this result as a very tall feather in their caps.

The continuance of the strike of the Pennsylvania coal miners is very seriously affecting the coastwise commerce of Pennsylvania. The Ledger says that were the coal trade of that city at its usual vigor at the present time, there would be 100,000 to 150,000 tons of coal sent by water weekly, either by sea or through the various canals, whilst now the shipment will probably not exceed 5,000 to 10,000 tons weekly, and that contains no anthracite worth mentioning.

Important.

Everyone who buys CIGARS by the thousand or single box should not fail to invest while PERRY & SLAWSON'S rushing sales of odd brands last.

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general constive, and sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times, very few of them; but the Liver is generally the organ most involved.

Centennial Cigars, One Dollar and a Half Per Box.

IF you are going to the centennial, get your Cigars from PERRY & SLAWSON. They are determined to close out odd brands, and offer such inducements as you will never find again. Cigars at $1.50 per box. Rush! rush! to see them.
