The Virginia board of trustees, who recently visited Mount Vernon, will, through their president, Lieutenant-Governor Thomas, express the view that the preservation of the tomb of Washington by the efforts of the ladies, North and South, will in a great degree tend to reconcile and settle the conflicting opinions, animosities and asperities engendered by the late war.

Mr. C. P. Leslie, a member of the South Carolina Legislature, is at Barnum's Hotel. Mr. Leslie is the person who was reported in Wednesday's despatches as having left South Carolina because of legal complications arising out of his career while Land Commissioner during Governor Scott's administration.—New York Herald.

THE ELITE OF BOSTON.—Two ladies, represented as belonging to the elite of Boston, have been spending some time in Morganton, N. C. Some of the ladies of the town called on them and paid them some attention, till one of them remarked that if she loved him, she had just as soon marry a negro as a white man.

The new twenty-cent silver coin is ready for distribution. It is a significant fact that the words, "In God we trust," are omitted from the new piece. It seems possible, from late developments, that our rulers have ceased to put their trust in God. "In rings we trust" would suit them better.

Among other things Boston proposes to do on the 17th instant, is to have a calcium light on Bunker Hill Monument, which can be seen for "sixty or seventy miles."

The cures performed by using Heinitz's Queen's Delight should be known all over the land.
