BARRIE, ONTARIO, June 18.—The greater portion of the business part of the town burned; fire still raging.

Telegraphic--American News.

BOSTON, June 16.—This afternoon, a terrible explosion occurred in the large two-story building, corner of Kemble and Farnham streets, used by C. E. Mastin as a manufactory of fire works. Ten men and boys were employed in the building at the time, only one of whom escaped uninjured. The building blew up with a terrific report, and the ruins at once took fire and were entirely consumed before any assistance could be rendered by the fire department. Six bodies, burned and charred beyond recognition, were taken from the ruins. Thomas Hurley, Michael Trinity and Wm. Meelin were rescued from the ruins, all dangerously burned and bruised. The bodies of Thos. Dooley, Herbert Meelin, John McManara, Thos. Cochran, John H. Kelly and William Burrill were taken from the debris of the building, so charred and burned as to be beyond individual recognition. The cause of the explosion is unknown. The loss on the building and stock is $50,000; no insurance.

BOSTON, June 17.—Of the large number of invitations extended to the South Carolina delegation here, none was more significant or more unusual than that from Harvard University and its 1,100 students. Yesterday afternoon, the W. L. I., in open carriages, left the St. James Hotel for Cambridge, and through every avenue the cortege passed, cheers and other public demonstrations marked its progress. Arriving at the entrance of Memorial Hall, the detachment was met by President Eliot, the faculty and an immense concourse of students from every State and Territory in the Union. The former welcomed the W. L. I. in eloquent and fervid language, referring to the great names and many South Carolinians who had graduated there, and bespeaking a kindly recognition of the institution at the South in the future. His remarks were warmly received by the W. L. I. Col. Simons responded, in a most impressive speech, which was received with approbation by the faculty. President Eliot exhibiting emotion, while the students, en masse, gave for cheers their peculiar rah! rah! which was overwhelming in its effects. The reception and entertainment in Memorial Hall at Harvard will ever be a memorable event to the W. L. I. The Eutaw flag, as soon as recognized, brought tremendous outbursts of patriotic feeling. Lieut. Gilchrist's command marched superbly. Every man in line wore palmetto cockades and banners of palmetto leaves in the muzzles of their rifles. Col. Andrews and Col. Simons were with Governor Gaston, on the grand stand, while the column passed in review. After the parade, the W. L. I. were taken to the Suffolk Club House, and entertained with a well-served collation. This welcome was hearty, and was honored by the presence of a large number of the most prominent and influential Boston merchants. Responses by several members of the company were enthusiastically received.

A fearful suicide occurred in Paris the other day. Gerard Anthoine called his little boy, aged six, to him, and said: "Little one, you have often wished to play with this pistol," showing the child an old pistol. "O, yes, papa." "Well, we will play with it now," and loading the weapon, the father handed it to the boy. "Now, look," he said, "I will get down on my knees before you; you will point at me right between the eyes and pull the trigger; you'll see how funny it is!" and he knelt down. "Aim well, in the head, between the eyes," he said again; "but first embrace me." The poor child embraced his father, and then pointed the pistol as told, and fired. Gerard fell back dead, and the boy seeing the terrible result, ran out of the room sobbing.

While Postmaster-General Jewell is going the rounds he might slip down to Texas, where it is said there is a mail-route contract for a semi-weekly service, but is only performed monthly by a boy on a mustang pony at $400 per annum, the contractors receiving the trifle of $80,000.

"THE BARGAIN COUNTERS" AT THE GRAND CENTRAL DRY GOODS STORE. THE GREAT BALL WILL BE PUT IN MOTION. TO-MORROW (Monday) JUNE 14, at 9 o'clock, we will commence our CLEARANCE SALE. We will turn all our Centre Counters into what will be known as "BARGAIN COUNTERS," at "W. D. LOVE & CO'S STORE," upon which we will place a great variety of Goods which we do not wish to carry over to next season, and will be marked at PRICES REGARDLESS OF COST. Each article will have attached to it a Ticket marked Bargain Counter, and the price of the article marked on it in "Plain Figures."

A great variety of Goods will be put upon these Counters, and now will be the time for those in need of DRY GOODS to lay in their supplies, for we mean business. The sale will be continued from day to day, until the stock is reduced to the proportion we wish. BARGAIN COUNTERS will be replenished every day. As we desire consumers to get the advantage of these bargains, and to guard against speculators who would pick them up to sell again at a profit, we will only allow a person at one time to get as much as one piece or one dozen, or less, of any article. No Goods will be sent out on approbation or memorandum. The terms of the sale will be CASH ON DELIVERY. All are invited to come, as they will buy Goods at half the usual price. Bring all your spare change with you, as you will be able to get a good many Goods for little money. Come every day this week and stay as long as you can; for those who stay away will miss the BARGAINS, and be sorry they did not come. We give you below a few STARTLING PRICES of the many Goods to be sold: 1,000 yards 10-4 PEPPERELL BLEACHED SHEETING, worth 50 cents, at 37 1/2 cents. 2,000 yards 4-4 WAMSUTA BLEACHED MUSLIN, at 15 cents. 1,000 yards 4-4 NEW YORK MILLS MUSLIN, at 15 cents. 2,000 yards 4-4 ANDROSCOGGIN AND FRUIT OF LOOM MUSLIN, at 12 1/2 cents. 2,000 yards HILL'S SEMPER IDEM MUSLIN, at 10 cents. 3,000 1/2 EOOT G.
