

"Let our Just Censures

Attend the True Event."

BY JULIAN A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 22, 1875.

VOLUME XI—NUMBER 78

Quite a dispute is going on in the Northern papers as to whether Col. Prescott or Gen. Putman commanded the colonists at Bunker Hill. It seems doubtful if anybody was in command that day in the modern sense. Every man fought on his own hook, and at the third charge, having been overpowered by numbers, a retreat was in order. The event was celebrated, notwithstanding the uncertainty about the identity of the commanding officer.

When Paul Boyton is at sea he looks like a miniature steamship, full-rigged. His body and the floating apparatus represent the hull, his head the prow, his toes turned up (he lies on his back) the stern end, the sail he carries the rigging, and his cigar the smoke-stack.

A person who was caught in the act of illicitly distilling a run of twenty gallons of 'crooked' whiskey very promptly explained that he was only making a little for his sick wife. A run of but twenty gallons for a poor sick wife! She couldn't have been sick much.

The idea of the existence of Balm in Gilead is simply a popular error and hallucination; otherwise some enterprising agent would have contracted for the advertising of that specific, at the lowest rates, long ago.

The brass in the column of Vendome is a thin mixture compared to the metallic "cheek" of the Plymouth pastor. His latest discourse was on the "methods of growth in Christian character."

California expects to produce during the present year $50,000,000 pounds of wool, 15,000,000 gallons of wine and 45,000,000 bushels of wheat.

TWO-MORROW (Monday) JUNE 14, at 9 o'clock, we will commence our CLEARANCE SALE. We will turn all our Centre Counters into what will be known as "BARGAIN COUNTERS," at "W. D. LOVE & CO.'S STORE," upon which we will place a great variety of Goods which we do not wish to carry over to next season, and will be marked at PRICES REGARDLESS OF COST. Each article will have attached to it a Ticket marked Bargain Counter, and the price of the article marked on it in "Plain Figures."

A great variety of Goods will be put upon these Counters, and now will be the time for those in need of DRY GOODS to lay in their supplies, for we mean business.

The sale will be continued from day to day, until the stock is reduced to the proportion we wish. BARGAIN COUNTERS will be replenished every day.

As we desire consumers to get the advantage of these bargains, and to guard against speculators who would pick them up to sell again at a profit, we will only allow a person at one time to get as much as one piece or one dozen, or less, of any article. No Goods will be sent out on approval or memorandum.

The terms of the sale will be CASH ON DELIVERY. All are invited to come, as they will buy Goods at half the usual price. Bring all your spare change with you, as you will be able to get a good many Goods for little money.

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general constive, and sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times, very few of them; but the Liver is generally the organ most involved.
