A Persian noble is dying of disappointment in Salt Lake City. He had heard of the enchanted valley of the Mormons, and deserted his own harem and the suite of the Shah to take up his abode in the paradise of the latter day prophet. He arrived there safely some time since, but a sight of the Utah horris, with their peaked faces and their noses paralled with their chins, gave him such a "set back" that he is perishing of chagrin.

Black-eyed ladies are most apt to be passionate and jealous. Blue-eyed—soulful, truthful, affectionate, and confiding. Gray-eyed—philosophical, literary, resolute, and cold-hearted. Hazel-eyed—quick-tempered and very fickle. Green-eyed—jealous.

"Oh! my friend," exclaimed a temperance orator, "that I had a window in my heart, that you might all look in and see the truth of what I tell you!" "Wouldn't a pain in your stomach do just as well?" asked a small boy.

"Well, my boy," asked a gentleman of a little eight-year-old boy, "what are you crying for?" "Cause I can't find my dad. I told the old fool if he went off too far he'd lose me," was the filial reply.

A Minnesota paper made a young poetess say: "Oh, for a heart full of sweet yearnings!" The poetess wrote to the editor, declaring that she wrote "yearnings!" and the printer who set it up "yearling" was a calf.
