VOLUME XI—NUMBER 87

THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.—The community of Spartanburg are much indebted to the Post Office Department at Washington for a kindly interference in their behalf, which has saved them from being systematically fleeced. The 1st of January last, when the law requiring the prepayment of newspaper postage went into effect, the postmaster, Dr. Javan Bryant, increased the box rent from $3 to $5 per annum. Finding this to be a down right imposition, many of the box-holders returned their keys and declined to rent boxes any longer. But, meantime, the matter was reported to the Department at Washington, and the Postmaster-General promptly replied that he would order the box rent at Spartanburg to be fixed at $3 per annum from the 1st of April. So the postmaster was compelled to restore the boxes to the former rent.

A water famine is again threatened at Philadelphia already this season. In this broiling weather it is not very satisfactory to have notice as the Philadelphians now have from the water officials that citizens must take precautions against a threatened "water famine."

Fischetto has a little dialogue between Uncle Sam and General Grant. The President says:—"No, uncle; I cannot accept a third term; or only on circumstances not likely to arise." "Such, for instance, as that I would vote for you," says Sam.
