A man rushed breathlessly into a lawyer's office in St. Paul, and approaching the legal luminary, excitedly remarked: "A man has tied a hoop to my horse's tail! Can I do anything?" "Yes," replied the attorney; "go and untie it." That was good advice, and didn't cost the man but $5.

A few days since a farmer was saying that he had planted an acre and a half of potatoes, and he feared they would be destroyed by the potato bugs. "Are the plants up yet?" asked a bystander. "No," replied the farmer, "but the bugs are sitting on every lill waiting for them."

Probably no characteristic of the female mind is better developed than the docility with which women accept the fashions of the day. Be they beautiful or hideous, becoming or unbecoming, comfortable or torturing, they are the "fashion" and must be worn.

Old lady (who sleeps badly) "Now, Mary, if I should want to light my candle, are the matches there?" Mary: "Yes, ma'am, there's wan." Old lady: "One! Why, if it misses fire, or won't light?"—Mary: "Oh, devil a fear of it, ma'am. Sure I thried it."

"Mr. Putkin," said the broker, "the world looks different to a man when he has a bottle of champagne in him." "Yes, sir," replied the clerk, "and he looks different to the world."

Never before was there such a demand for grain cradles in Georgia as during the past three weeks. This indicates a large wheat crop and a bountiful supply of bread.

The Columbus Journal, describing an Ohio politician, says: "He is an honest man by profession, and he earns his bread by the sweat of his jaw."

The bedbugs of the Philadelphia hotels are not eating anything now. They are reserving their energies for the centennial.
