MUSICAL TUITION.

PROFESSOR DE VINE respectfully intimates that being encouraged by several families he intends fixing his residence in Camden, purposes giving lessons after 1st January in the theory and practice of Music, including Vocal Music (English and Italian), Piano Forte, Organ, Melodion &c., either at the Pupils residence or at his Music Room at the house of Mr. McCandless.
Having devoted his whole life to his profession (which he has studied under some of the principal English and Continental Masters), he hopes he will be enabled to give the most perfect satisfaction to those who may pursue their musical studies under his direction.
The plan of tuition adopted is based on "perfection only in proportion as there is simplicity"—his main object is to impart to students not merely a superficial, but a sound theoretical as well as practical education in Music, with the least possible mental labor, loss of time, and expense, and constantly enforcing on the Pupil the student, (among others) a strict attention to those important points which really belong to a first-rate performer, viz: a proper position of the hands and arms; a smooth and distinct touch, playing in time and with expression; a proper system of fingering &c., and doing entirely away with the old and tedious plan of first learning all the notes, time table &c., a fearful task to many a beginner, who is not encouraged by being set down to the instrument to play, at the very first lesson, without any previous musical knowledge whatever.
It is desirable that those who may wish to take lessons should enter their names at once so as to begin with the present term.
References of the first order can be produced. Further particulars may be known of Mr. J. McCandless. Jan. 2.—1f.

25 DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, on the 3d inst., a negro man named FED. Fed is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, weighs 145 or 150 lbs, about 21 years of age, speaks very quick when spoken to, is very much inclined to laugh, and is of a brown color. He had on, or carried off with him, a black and a-kind of a trousers coat, two pair of pantaloons and an old white hat. It is supposed he left in company with a negro man named Cary, belonging to Capt. John D. Moore. It is quite probable he is trying to make his way to some free State, or aided off by some mean white man or free negro.
The above reward will be paid for his apprehension and delivered to me, 3 miles S. E. of White's Store, Anson county, and about 13 miles west of Wadesboro, or his confinement in any jail so that I can get him again.
