

children with a large number of friends to mourn their loss. This to human eyes is a sad bereavement—that one possessing that peculiar complication of virtues that marks the character of the truly good woman, should be snatched away by the grim monster Death, just in the bloom of her age and usefulness, but—

“Life is a span, a fleeting hour—
How soon the vapor flies,
Man is a tender transient flower,
That e'en in blooming dies.”

Hope looks beyond the bound of time
When what we now deplore,
Shall rise in full immortal prime,
And bloom to fade no more.”

SOUTH CAROLINA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Hon. W. F. DESAUSSURE, President.
Prof. C. F. McCAY, Actuary.
Dr. JOHN FISHER, Treasurer.

A HOME COMPANY, with ample capital, has been organized at Columbia, under favorable auspices, to insure the lives of white persons and negroes. The rates are lower than those of Northern Companies for residents of the South.

From these low rates one-fourth is deducted for the first year.

All profits are divided annually in cash among the insured.

The amount insured may be made payable to the wife or the wife and children, free from the claims of creditors.

For circulars explaining the objects and rates of the Company, and the steps to be taken to effect insurance, apply to J. A. YOUNG, Agent for Camden.

GLENN SPRINGS, SPARTANBURG DISTRICT, S. C. June 5, 1855.

PERMIT us, most respectfully, to inform you that this celebrated WATERING PLACE, with an addition of Cold, Warm and Shower Baths, with many other improvements, will be completed and ready to receive company by the 20th inst. We ask your patronage for this establishment during the ensuing season. We have at great expense to ourselves, undertaken to open the HOTEL and entertain company. The object had in view by those who built up this Watering Place, was to provide a healthy, pleasant and safe retreat for our citizens, in summer, within the limits of our State, so as to retain as large a portion of the immense sums of money spent every year by our citizens in traveling as possible. Every dollar kept among ourselves is so much added to the wealth of our own State, and goes to increase and extend her resources and improvements. At this place we have every accommodation and amusement that can be had at any place of resort, and we pledge ourselves to devote to your comfort and accommodation every energy and resource in our power. J. C. JANNEY.
