CAROLINA FEMALE COLLEGE.

THE exercises of this institution will, by Divine permission, be resumed on Tuesday. 16th Oct., and continue without any stated vacation until the regular Commencement in June.

R. S. BAILEY, Editor and Proprietor.

No new cases of malignant disorder have occurred since the suspension in August, and we trust that our patrons, and all disposed to sustain the College, will feel assured that nothing connected with the locality. or with the management of the officials of the institu-tion, could have induced the disease which invaded

We must encounter disease in some form every where, and we must expect that in some instances it will prove fatal; and we believe that all our patrons, and all the students who have attended this College, will confirm the statement, that better attention, ir every respect, could not be paid to the sick.
