OBITUARY.

DIED, in this town, on the 20th inst. JOHN TAYLOR, eldest son of John N. and Sarah Ann Gamewell in the tenth year of his age. Called early to suffer, he exibited a lovely example of patience and quiet resignation to the will of his Heavenly Father; and hastening to be away, his young spirit, purified in the furmace of affliction, passed, with a sweet "Good Night" upon his dying lips into the presence of his God. "Close thy sweet eyes calmly, and without pain,

And we will trust in God to see thee yet again,"

For all diseases of the Blood, nothing has yet been tound to compare with it. For the diseases of females it is peculially applicable, and wherever it has become known is regularly prescribed with the happiest effects. It invigorates the weak and debilitated, and imparts elasticity to the worn out frame, clears the skin, and leaves the patient fresh and healthy; a single bottle of this inestimable remedy is worth all the so colled Sarsaparillas in existence.
