

Southern Democratic Convention.

We continue the publication of the proceedings of the last day of this body from the 6th Resolution, as published on our first page:

Whereas, one of the greatest necessities of the age, in a political, commercial, postal and military point of view, is a speedy communication between the Pacific and Atlantic coasts. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Democratic party do hereby pledge themselves to use every means in their power to secure the passage of some bill to the extent of the constitutional authority of Congress for the construction of a Pacific Railroad from the Mississippi River to the Pacific Ocean, at the earliest practicable moment.

The report was signed by Messrs. Burrow, of Arkansas; McGowan, of South Carolina; Jackson, of Georgia; Hunter, of Louisiana; Stockdale, of Texas; Burkdale, of Mississippi; Ervin, of Alabama; and Whiteley, of Delaware.

Hon. James Simons, of South Carolina, moved that the report be printed and made the special order for to-morrow, at 11 o'clock. He thought it would be premature to debate it now.

A general debate sprung up which consumed the morning session, and on motion of Mr. Tison, of Mississippi, the Convention adjourned until 5 o'clock this evening.

The Convention re-assembled at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Hatch, of Louisiana, stated in behalf of the Louisiana delegation, that they were not ready to act upon the question before the Convention. He, therefore, moved that the Convention adjourn until to-morrow at 12 o'clock.

The motion was agreed to, and thereupon the Convention adjourned.

After the adjournment of the Convention, the audience assembled in the Theatre was addressed, in a noble and eloquent speech, by Messrs. Yancy, of Alabama, Barry, of Mississippi, Meek, of Alabama, Parsons, of Texas, Milton, of Florida, and other gentlemen.

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor.—The Town Council of Camden has closed the contract with the former owner of the Negro Burying Ground, and it now belongs to the Town.

Every citizen of Camden and Kirkwood feels a deep interest in whatever concerns the comfort, and adds to the happiness of their slaves. For years past they have been very much crowded, for want of room to bury their dead; now this has been remedied.

The Town Marshal has been required to lock up the gate and keep the key at the Guard Room, where it can always be found.

Would it not be well for all owners of slaves to permit them—or as many as can be spared—to go to the Burying Ground on Thursday next, and under the direction of the Marshal, clear and trim up the trees, and lay out the unoccupied ground outside of the woods, in squares and streets, so that all could be accommodated, without interfering with the graves of those who have been long buried there, as I have often seen in digging new graves? I hope this suggestion will meet with a hearty response, as the Marshal has agreed to attend there on Thursday next, for the purpose above designated.

The Corrie Case.

The Charleston papers published the decision of Judge Magrath in the case of the United States vs. W. C. Corrie. The Mercury refers to the decision and says:

The Judge refuses to allow the case to be transferred to the State of Georgia, or that a sole propositus should be entered by the District Attorney in order that the accused should be tried in that State. Judge Magrath has ably argued his position, and has presented the Act of 1850 in a new light. He denies that importing Africans into this country, who were not free in Africa, is an offence against that act, and punishable as piracy. The act contemplates the seizure in importation of persons who are free. Now, as the United States, in a prosecution, can never prove that any Africans brought from Africa, the presumption being the contrary, the act is pretty much a dead letter. The Judge's decision certainly does great credit to the bench, whose independence he vindicates, and to himself, for the ability he displays.

THE GRAND DIVISION.

The Grand Division of the Sons of Timonville of this State convened at Timonville on the 25th ult. We learn that there was a very respectable representation from all parts of the State, and that the Delegates and visiting brethren were received by the citizens of Timonville with a hearty welcome, and entertained with the warmest hospitality. Nothing less could have been expected of Timonville, for she always goes through with what she undertakes, and does it right, too, in the bargain.

APPROPRIATE DEMONSTRATIONS.

We learn that utterance will be given to the highly satisfactory character of the intelligence received of the withdrawal of Southern States from the Convention, by a feu-de-jour, &c., this evening. The old town cannon, we believe, is to be brought out, and made to speak approbative of the news. The event is certainly one worthy to be thus hailed.—Sumter Watchman, 1st inst.

CORDIAL ELIXIR OF CALSAYA BARK.

We are most obliged to Mr. J. J. McKain for a bottle of this preparation, which is said to possess many virtues as a tonic. We know nothing of this medicine; but the Baum De Vie can vouch for, and unhesitatingly commend it to our readers as most excellent preparation and every way safe. Both articles are for sale by Hesselme & Massey and Magill & Beattie.

Lancaster Ledger.

WASHINGTON, April 30.

The excitement here to-night consequent on the proceedings of the Democratic Convention at Charleston is intense. The Tennessee Congressman, in response to an inquiry of the delegates from that State, advised them this morning to remain in the Convention and support the nominee.

COLUMBUS, MISS., April 28.

The Female Institute, at this place, together with the boarding house attached, was destroyed by fire last night.

The loss amounted to $10,000, on which there was an insurance of $5000. The fire originated from a fire balloon falling on the roof of the building.

ACCIDENTAL POISONING.

Last night a member of the New York delegation, on retiring to his chamber, took by mistake a dose of veratrum viride for another medicine, but the assistance of a physician being early obtained, we are happy to say that he is out of danger.

Charleston Evening News.

The negro man whom we mentioned in our last as having murdered an old negro woman, in this District, was tried on Wednesday last by a Magistrate's court, and sentenced to receive two hundred paddles and be banished from the State.

MARION STAR.

On receiving the news that the most distinguished Southern States had seceded from the Charleston Convention the patriotic young gentlemen of Wofford College gave vent to their joy by the ringing of the bell and firing a salute.—Spartan.

Terrible Catastrophe.

Our community is overwhelmed in gloom, in consequence of a most heart-rending disaster, which occurred on Saturday afternoon last, about 5 o'clock, at Boykin's Mill, eight miles from town. In the morning, a party of ladies and gentlemen from Camden and the neighborhood, met at the place mentioned, on a Fe-Nie excursion, and after spending the most of the day, concluded in the afternoon to get aboard a Flat-boat near the shore, for the purpose of going out into the flat. Some fifty persons, it is said, got on, and the Flat was moved off, and when about fifty or sixty yards out into the water, it is supposed that it struck a snag, which caused the boat to commence leaking, and, in a few minutes, from the heavy weight upon it, commenced sinking. In the consternation which seized the hold upon the party, many jumped overboard, and out of the number, we are pleased to say that twenty-four persons were drowned—mostly ladies. Others, more fortunate, were just saved, mainly through the assistance of those who had not left the Flat, or went to their rescue from the shore.

What a sad and calamitous termination of a festive occasion!

The following is a correct list of those who were drowned, and whose bodies have all been recovered.

NAMES OF PERSONS DROWNED.

- Miss SARAH HOWELL, Camden.
- Miss SARAH CROSBY,
- MARY HINSON,
- LOUISA S. NETTLES,
- ELIZABETH MCKAYEN,
- MARGARET MCKOWN,
- LOUISA MCKOWN,
- AMELIA A. ALEXANDER,
- ALICE ROBINSON,
- JANE KELLY, Boykin's T. O.
- Two daughters and one son of Mr. SAMUEL H. YORGE, near Boykin's T. O.
- Miss JENKINS, daughter of Mr. M. D. JENKINS, Clarkson's T. O.
- Mr. JEREMIAH R. McLEOD, Sumter District.
- JOS. HUGHES,
- T. S. RICHMOND,
- LOUIS R. LEGRAND, Camden.
- WILLIAM C. LEGRAND,
- JOHN A. OAKS,
- Master WILLIAM MCKAYEN,
- Mr. B. E. HOOVER, near Camden.

And two negroes, making twenty-four persons in all.

The pall of gloom is spread over the entire community, and there is not a single heart which we are does not feel painfully impressed with this sad and overwhelming calamity.

On Sunday last our town presented a scene which we pray it may never be lot to witness again. In every direction distress and lamentation might have been witnessed, and our sympathizing, noble-hearted community, were all in ministrations of kindness and sympathy—visiting the stricken homes of our bereaved and deeply afflicted fellow-citizens. Everything that the most thoughtful and unremittent kindness and attention could suggest, was promptly done to soothe the crushed and broken-hearted relatives of the unfortunate victims.

Inasmuch as it was a public calamity, it was thought best to make a common burial, and to this end, funeral services were held given the following in the Methodist Church, at 4 o'clock—

Miss ELIZABETH MCKAYEN, Miss LOUISA S. NETTLES, the Misses MCKOWN, Miss HOWELL, Miss HINSON, Miss ALEXANDER, Messrs L. R. and W. C. LEGRAND, and Master WILLIAM MCKAYEN.

Rev. E. J. MEYERMAN conducted the exercises, assisted by Rev. S. H. HAY, of the Presbyterian, and Rev. W. E. HUGHSON, of the Baptist Churches.

The congregation was a very large and deeply affected one. A large number of our citizens followed the remains to their last earthly resting place.

The funeral services of Miss CROSBY were held at the Episcopal Church yesterday morning, conducted by Rev. F. D. DAVIS.

Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. E. J. MEYERMAN, and those of Mr. JOHN A. OAKS, at the Baptist Church, in the afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. E. HUGHSON, assisted by Rev. J. E. ROBERTS, and E. J. MEYERMAN.

The several occasions were well improved by most excellent, well-timed and solemn admonitions to the living. Surely the voice of the Most High is heard, speaking louder and in more terrible language than human lips can speak.

Will that voice be heard and obeyed? We trust that it may be so, and that great good to our whole community may result from this sudden and crushing calamity. If we do not believe now, neither would we were one sent from the dead.

With most commendable good taste, our worthy Town Council requested all places of business to be closed during the entire day of yesterday, and without a solitary exception the stores were closed, and the community united in demonstrations of respect for the dead, and sympathy for the living.

In just such a place as dear old Camden we want to live, and when our summits come, among our own sainted dead, to be buried and mingle our dust.

It is a shock which our quiet community have never felt before, and many long years must elapse, before the recollections of this sad event, will pass away among the things that were.

Our spirit is overwhelmed by this crushing calamity, and it would be an idle mockery of words in attempting to give an idea of the grief, which has been carried to so many kindred hearts, by this sudden and most remarkable visitation.

But, He who does all things well, is too wise to err, and too good to be unkind, but adore.

Explanatory.

In consequence of the Convention proceedings occupying our entire first page, several miscellaneous selections sent us for publication must be deferred until the next. The article from the Mt. Vernon Record, "Father's Signet Ring" &c., will appear next week.

Timely Warning.

We have been requested to state that a number of boys of the town, are in the habit of frequenting the Rail Road Depot, and on the arrival of the Passenger Cars, of jumping on whilst the train is in motion. This is exceedingly dangerous, and if persisted in, will certainly lead to the most serious consequences in some of them; getting injured, if not killed. The officers of the Road inform us that they have used every means to prevent it, but without success. They now appeal to parents to exercise their authority before it is too late.

Several narrow escapes have been made, and these should be a warning in time.

Favors Received.

Whilst in Charleston, during a part of the Convention, we were placed under repeated obligations to several of our kind and esteemed friends; especially to Mr. W. F. DORR, at Institute Hall, is the Press of the country under many obligations for valuable services in making their stay pleasant and happy. With commendable good taste, he had fitted up apartments for the exclusive use of the Press, where every facility was afforded for looking over exchanges, writing letters, &c. He will not be forgotten, and the teeming Press will herald his name upon its myriad wings through the whole length and breadth of the land.

Mr. JOSEPH WALKER, 120 Meeting-Street. General Newspaper Agent, had also provided amply for the accommodation of the Press, and he has received their obligations to our esteemed friends of the Charleston Courier and Mercury, for kind attentions, and subsequently to Mr. GEO. A. GORDAN, of the Mercury, for telegraphic information, published in our list, giving the result of the vote on the Minority Platform Report, and withdrawal of the Southern delegations. Whenever in our power, we shall most gladly embrace the earliest possible moment to reciprocate the kindness of our friends, professionally or personally.

Prices of Produce.

If our country friends have anything to spare, now is the best time they could expect to bring it to market.

Corn is selling at 125 from the wagons; Fodder, 2.00 per hundred; Chickens, at 25 and 30 cents each. Beef at 12 1/2 in market, and other articles in proportion.

The National Democratic Convention.

This body adjourned on Thursday last after a session of ten days, without going to a nomination for President. It has been a marked session, and one which has demonstrated to the world the utter futility of attempting longer to bolster up a great National party where antipathetic sentiments and interests are involved. The point is made, and nothing short of the total abandonment of position, on one side or the other, can possibly produce coalescence. The Platform of the Original or National Convention, ignores protection to Slave property, leaving it still an open question, and worse, so far as practically applies to the South, than an abstraction. "We have felt long since satisfied, that the South was leaning upon a broken reed, in depending upon the Democracy of the North and North West, for the maintenance of her equality and rights in the present confederacy, and from personal and careful observation of men and principles, as recently shown are more than ever satisfied that our peace and safety never can be in any National party. Our object, however, at present is merely to announce the emanation of the National Convention at Charleston, and to state that it has adjourned to meet in Baltimore on the 18th of June next.

The Southern Democratic Convention.

We have devoted our entire first page to the proceedings of the Conventions in Charleston for a large part of the past week.

We were entirely prepared for the result of the proceedings in the National Convention, in the withdrawal of the several southern delegations on the adoption of a Squatter Sovereignty Platform, which ignored the protection of Slave property in the Common Territory.

However, much of an abstraction, this principle may seem in the estimation of certain small calibrer politicians and temporizing half-splitting apologists for submission, we are satisfied that a vital principle is at stake just here, and now that the issue has been fairly and unequivocally made the Southern, and to state that Cotton States, should present a unit to our enemies, will prove a splendid day for the South, if her people stand up squarely for their rights, and one good effect at least in the late dismemberment of the last National party in the Union, will be to give an impetus to the cause of Southern Rights, which we trust demagogues and Pop politicians with the myriad of lesser lights that revolve in the orbit of the great central power can never check.

We honor those noble spirits who have just inaugurated a practical issue which cannot be blinked or avoided. The South has now either to stand up for her rights or to be forever disgraced. This movement has commenced among the direct Representatives of the people, and it will be for the people to ratify the declarations which their delegates have made, and they will ratify it in the right way.

The ball is now in motion, and we hope it will continue to roll onward gathering volume and strength the further it goes. Three cheers for Alabama and her noble confederates.

Rail Road Meeting.

We observe the proceedings of a meeting recently held at Bethel Church, in the Fork and Little Big Lynchess Creek, published in the Sumter Watchman.

The object of the meeting it appears, was for the purpose of receiving conditional subscriptions for a Rail Road from Florence via Bishopville to Lancaster, and for the appointment of delegates to a Convention to be held at Bishopville on the 15th inst.

Inasmuch as the meeting was held in Kershaw District, and has repeatedly requested any District newspapers, which would be published cheerfully, for the information of its readers, it strikes us as a singularly unusual proceeding that a report of said meeting should be published, by Resolution, "in the Lancaster Ledger and Sumter papers," without designation of the District paper in which the meeting was held. If we are only to be included with "all other journals in favor of this enterprise," in the Resolution of publication, then of course we are not asked, or expected to appear in our paper.

We would most cheerfully have opened our columns for that purpose, had any intimation been given by a desire on the part of those having the matter in hand. However, much we might differ in our judgment in regard to Rail Road confederations with Lancaster, this would never have influenced us in making war upon any movement for the benefit of any portion of our District. We flatter ourselves that we have at least magnanimity enough to give all a candid hearing and a fair chance.

The May Party.

On Wednesday evening last, the young ladies of Mrs. McCANDLE'S Seminary, afforded our citizens the pleasure of witnessing their annual May-day Festival, at our new and elegant Town Hall.

At an early hour the Hall was well filled with the representatives of age, youth and childhood, all eager for a participation in the scenes of the joyous occasion.

About 9 o'clock a procession was formed, under direction of Mrs. W. M. SHANNON, and marched to a spacious platform, erected for a temporary throne, upon which the Chair of State had been placed for the reception of her Florida Hygines, Miss SALLIE E. LYLES, who, surrounded by her fair Maids of Honor, was most gracefully addressed by the 1st CHORUS, Miss MORGIE ANSTON, as follows:

"The glorious Spring again has come,
On her triumphal way,
With captives bright, from beauty's realm,
To owe her gentle sway;
And we have come, oh! Maiden fair,
With flowing garlands gay,
To crown around thy golden hair,
And crown thee Queen of May."

"The soft blue skies above us bend,
The angel's halo of light,
And earth sends up her fragrant breath,
In her green beauty bright;
While whispering leaves and quiet shades,
And wild birds cheer lay,
And all bright things that round us smile,
Proclaim thee Queen of May."

"The holy spirit of this sweet hour,
Alas! it cannot stay,
And the little moments of buds and flowers,
Must haste like youth away;
Oh! Oh! we'll cherish, in coming years,
The memory of this day,
When our hearts were gay as the floral wreath,
That crowns thee Queen of May."

Here a beautiful wreath of Spring's sweetest flowers were placed by gentle hands upon the Queen's fair young brow, and the following address beautifully responded by the 2nd Reader, Miss NANNIE SHANNON:

"With a wreath of simple flowers,
Gathered from the Spring's bright bowers,
Thus we crown thee, dearest,
While thine eye, undimmed by sorrow,
While thine eye, undimmed by sorrow,
Looks forth forward to a morrow,
Fairest, brightest, clearest."

"Royalty of times we know,
Preach with a weight of woe,
On the young heart's gladness;
Yet we hope the fealty,
Which we lowly bow to thee,
May bring no dear sadness."

"Thus, crown one while resteth now,
The royal crown upon thy brow,
We hail thee Queen of May!
Short though thy present reign may be,
May joy await thy majesty,
Thoroughout its gentle sway."

Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla.

None but a physician knows how much a reliable alterative is needed by the people. On all sides of us, in all communities, there is a morbid taint, which has been made and put abroad with assurance of being effectual. But they fail to accomplish the cure they promise because they have not the intrinsic value which they claim. In this case of the Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co. of Lowell, have supplied us with a compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, which does prove to be the long desired remedy. Its peculiar difference from other kindred preparations in market is that it cures the diseases for which it is recommended, while the others do not. We are assured of this fact by more than one of our intelligent Physicians in this neighborhood, and they further evidence of our experience of its truth.—Tennessee Farmer.
