Wanted.
THE UNDERSIGNED DESIRES TO LET THE Large and Commodious Brick House, Formerly the property and Residence of Mr. Benj Haile, to some Lady who will open it and keep it as a BOARDING HOUSE FOR YOUNG LADIES and the Teachers connected with MRS. McCANDLESS' SEMINARY.
The location is perfectly healthy "all the year round," and the entire premises are in complete repair. To a Lady having suitable servants of her own, or who can hire them, possessing means sufficient to furnish the rooms, with some experience in domestic economy, an enterprise of this kind—we think, in common with many of our citizens, who see and feel the want of such an establishment—would prove very profitable. Should a competent person be found to engage in this business, the rent of the house will be reduced to one half of what the present occupant is paying, viz: from $250 to $125.— Another story can be very easily added to the building; and this would be immediately done as soon as needed.
The exercises of the School commence on the 1st Monday in October, at which time, also, it would be necessary to open the Boarding House.
Please address the undersigned at Camden, S. C.
