ROMAN EYE FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYELIDS.

The delicate structure of the eye is highly sensitive and liable to be inflamed by any cause, it becomes rapidly inflamed, and the predisposition to attract to the eye, commonly called "stye," is a very common complaint, especially in the case of children, and may obtain in all cases, the earlier the better.

IN CASES where the EYELIDS ARE inflamed, the eye is almost like magic, and the inflammation after two or three applications of this medicine is almost always cured. There is a numerous class of persons, especially in the case of children, who are exposed to accident and inflammation of the eye, and such as MINERS, MERCHANTS, and other operatives in their employment, are exposed to dust and grit, which will inflame the eye.

PRICE 25 cents per bottle. Mail to any part of the United States, in postage stamps. Prepared by A. B. & J. W. McKain, No. 213 King Street, Charleston, S. C.
