GREENVILLE, S. C.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 1863.

The Peabody School Fund--Movement in Greenville to establish Free Schools--Visit from Dr. Sears.

The munificent donation of Mr. GEORGE PEABODY, to aid in the promotion of education in the Southern States is evidently doing good. We congratulate the people of Greenville on the noble manner in which they have commenced to respond to the proposition, made through the general agent of the Trustees of the Peabody fund. The meeting last Monday evening of the gentlemen, ladies of this place was large and enthusiastic, and a movement towards the establishment of free schools in our town, has been made which promises complete success, notwithstanding the late times and other difficulties. Our citizens have generously come forward with a spirit, doing honor to their hearts and understanding, and we believe that Greenville will set a glorious example in the great and important work of providing free instruction to all her children, in the primary and academic branches of education. Rev. Dr. SEARS, a gentleman eminent for his talents, scholarship and piety, arrived in Greenville on Thursday evening last. On the next day, at his suggestion, the Town Council, together with a number of other gentlemen, met together to receive from him explanations of the plan for aiding public schools, adopted by the Trustees whom he represents. It was favorably received and a committee appointed to report upon the best scheme of raising the fund necessary to obtain the aid of twenty-five additional from the Peabody Fund. The Committee appointed a sub-committee, who met Friday evening, and agreed to recommend the people to raise twelve hundred dollars, so as to procure eight hundred dollars from Dr. SEARS. This scheme was agreed to the next day by the General Committee; but the proper spirit was roused, and before the public meeting was held on Monday evening they agreed to enlarge their plan. The result will be seen in the proceedings of the meeting, which appear in our columns. There can now be no doubt that the plan will succeed. A good many citizens of our Town were not present on Monday evening; many of them of known liberality and public spirit who will doubtless not be behind hand in aiding the work which has been so well begun. The visit of Dr. SEARS will be memorable in our annals, not for the mere contribution of moral assistance to the cause of education, that is limited; but because it is the occasion of starting an enterprise which we trust, as was said by one of the speakers on Monday evening, the people of the Town, by the blessing of God, will not let die. We are pleased to learn that the Rail road in the Southern States, without exception, give Dr. SEARS a free passage, and he is cordially received in every place. That was eminently the case at Greenville.

The Entertainment for the Benefit of the Fire Company. A company of amateur musicians, composed altogether of young gentlemen of the Town, most of whom are members of the Fire Company, gave two exhibitions, one Friday night and Saturday night of last week, for the purpose of assisting to relieve the indebtedness of the Company which had been contracted in supplying its members with uniforms. The undertaking, we are pleased to know, has met with a complete success, not only in raising the amount desired, but in interesting those who were so kind and generous as to patronize it, among whom were many of the first of our citizens and ladies. Every one was satisfied with the outlay, and expressions of praise came from all lips.

We learn that other entertainments may be given for the purpose of aiding the Public School Fund of Greenville. The Fire Department of Greenville is now under thorough organization, and its value cannot well be over-estimated. In case a fire should at any time occur, we have two engines whose streams will be made to war with the fiery element; and if we may judge of their effectiveness by the manner in which water was thrown at the recent annual parade of the Palmetto, our citizens can feel some tolerable degree of security.

Now Comes. Whenever a stranger takes up his abode in our midst, we always extend to him our warmest welcome. It is the delight of all to add new faces to our list of friends and new material to the good society of Greenville.

Dr. J. P. HILLHOUSE has recently moved into town, and occupies, as a residence, the house of Col. E. S. IRVINE, near the Baptist Church. He has rented out his plantation and premises, formerly occupied by him, in the country, and intends to pursue his profession with us. Dr. H., it is to be hoped, will be as well pleased with his new neighbors as we are confident they will be with him. He will enjoy superior advantages in the way of educating his children. Mrs. SARAH BUTLER, daughter to Mrs. SARAH STONE, and grand daughter of the late Judge GASTY, who removed from this place to Spartanburg, several years since, has again taken up her abode in the midst of her many friends, who are rejoiced at her return. She has rented the dwelling and premises of Mrs. O. A. MAULDIN on Main Street, which is now occupied by her. We trust Mrs. BUTLER will be a permanent resident of the place henceforth.

Gen. HANCOCK has expressed the opinion that the Constitution of the Texas Convention will probably be decided in that State.

Public Meeting to Organize Democratic Clubs in Greenville--Nominations for Governor and other State Officers.

We have not been furnished by the Secretary with any report of the proceedings of the meeting in the Court House, on Tuesday, and shall not attempt for want of time and space, to give all the particulars. The assembly was very large and very orderly, except for a few moments, when two men present created a little confusion, by very boisterous and intemperate language in opposition.

Gov. PERRY made a speech of great force, denouncing the Radical Constitution and Radical measures, and insisted on the importance of organizing the country to co-operate with our friends in the North and every where else in overthrowing them.

Rev. A. C. STARR also addressed the meeting, in a clear and pointed speech, in favor of a combined and strenuous effort, to save the country from negro domination, for our own and their good as well. This gentleman is a man of pure character, no politician or more office-seeker, and is destined to do good in these troublous times, by exerting his abilities and talents, as a public speaker, in opening the eyes of the people to the dangers of their situation.

The resolutions for the formation of a Democratic Club, submitted by Gov. PERRY, were adopted, and a committee appointed to organize it, and to submit nominations of candidates for the Legislature, and, at a future time, for other officers for the District.

The following resolutions, submitted by Gov. PERRY were adopted with enthusiasm and with the most decided demonstrations of approval.

Resolved, That we put in nomination the following gentlemen: For Governor--General WADE HAMP- TON, known to, and loved by the whole State.

For Lieut Governor--General JAMES CONNER, admired by all for his gallantry, patriotism and ability.

For Adjutant and Inspector General--General M. C. BUTLER, distinguished for his gallantry, and public services. For Secretary of State--General ELLISON CAPERS, the pure, gallant, Christian gentleman, and present incumbent of the office.

For Treasurer--WILLIAM HCOB, Esq., who has filled the office for years past with distinguished ability.

For Comptroller General--Captain S. L. LEAPHART, the present incumbent, who has discharged all the duties of his high office to the entire satisfaction of the public.

For Congress, in this Congressional District--Colonel SAMUEL McALILEY, of Chester, well known to the State as an able and learned lawyer, a wise Statesman and pure Senator, ever faithful, found amongst the faithful, in all emergencies.

Court. The Court of General Sessions and Common Pleas for Greenville District was convened on Monday, his Honor Judge MORRIS presiding. Solicitor KEN is at his post. It has been, up to Tuesday evening, occupied with the Summary Process Docket. We see on the Mansion House registry, the following lawyers' names: C. P. SULLIVAN, Esq. and W. D. SIMMONS, Esq. of Laurens, and J. W. CHARLIE, Esq. of Spartanburg, who are in attendance.

This morning the case of the State versus JERSON LANGSTON, G. R. MURDER, will come up before the Court.

Death of an Editor. We regret to learn from the Athens (Ga.) Watchman of the death of Mr. J. A. TURNER, a gentleman who has been much connected with the Press of that State. He was a writer of ability, and exhibited, in combination therewith, a high order of talent in the management of a newspaper. For several years he conducted the Countryman, published on his plantation, near Eatonton. As a humorist, he was excellent; in an argument, formidable; and was to him who fell under his scathing criticism. Since the close of the war, his paper has been suspended.

Cotton. As is generally known, the merchants of Greenville are now offering the very highest price for cotton; in fact, higher prices cannot be obtained at any market than this. It has been this week selling at 20 cents per pound. This is equal to 22 cents, tax paid. This is a good time now to sell, as the prices are quite equal to the city markets, when expenses are added. Our merchants are still buying. Bring your cotton to Greenville.

Order for Election. Under Gen. CANBY'S order, the election for the rejection or adoption of the State Constitution, will be held on the 14th, 15th and 16th of April next. At the same time the following officers will be elected: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Adjutant and Inspector General, Secretary of State, Comptroller General, Superintendent of Education, Members to Congress, and Senators and Representatives to the Legislature.

North Carolina. The enormous debt of North Carolina, and the terrible taxation which the Convention has provided for to pay interest and State expenses, may, it is supposed, cause the rejection of the Constitution. Even Radicals will hardly invite ruin upon themselves by voting for it.

House Burnt. We learn that on Monday last, a house belonging to Mr. JESSE K. STONE, situated some eighteen miles below the Town, was consumed entirely. It was occupied by freedmen, and it is supposed the fire originated through the carelessness of some of the inmates. We have not understood the amount of the loss.

Sheriff's Sales. Hereafter, as many of our subscribers have requested it, and as our space will permit, we intend publishing in our columns the Sheriff's sales for this District. They will appear gratuitously. Those for next sale day may be found by referring to their proper place.

In the Morning Sow thy Seed, and in the Evening Withhold not thy Hand.

This is the wisdom of SOLOMON, to be commended to all gardeners and tillers of the soil at this seed planting season.

Passing by friend Wm. H. WATSON'S store, on Main Street, the other day, we were tempted to tarry a few moments, to profit by his instructive conversation on garden culture, and received from him not only a good measure of practical knowledge, but also a contribution of a variety of his genuine and well prepared seeds, of which he has an abundance constantly on hand. Mr. WATSON is a pioneer in seed culture, in Greenville, and his parcels may be depended on as genuine and just what they are said to be. A good garden is a thing every body should aim at, these times, especially, and at all other times, and Mr. WATSON not only has the seeds but he can tell you how best to cultivate each particular vegetable, if you don't know, or have forgotten lessons forwardly learned.

Not Consistent. Some business men, when Jim's become a little hard, (we blush for them, in making the confession,) quit advertising; for, say they, there is no use in it--nothing can be done. Now, we think, if that argument will hold good, they ought to take down their signs and window hangings, and even close their doors. But it makes no difference how hard money matters may be, something can always be done, and he who makes the greatest effort, as a general rule, will get the most. Advertising is a part of a man's business effort, and we have the authority of HORACE GREELY in saying that every man ought to spend as much for advertising every year as his store rent costs him. We wish our Greenville friends would give this a fair trial, and we venture to say that their purses will be none the worse for the experiment.

First Rate Tobacco for Chewing. Having tried it for sometime, we can command, as some of the best, an article of chewing tobacco to be found at DAVID & STRADLEY'S. We are indebted to the kindness of CAPT STRADLEY for a present in the tobacco line, which we have as a proof of our commendation.

Reconstruction in Arkansas. The best political news we have heard lately, is the report of the rejection, by the people of Arkansas, of the Constitution which the Convention of that State framed for their degradation and ruin. Its provisions were unfavorably prescriptive and inhumanly degrading in many particulars. It is said that it will fail by a majority of about five thousand votes.

Railroad Consignees. It has been suggested to us that the publication of the Railroad consignees at this depot would be of interest as well as of usefulness to our town readers and business men, also to subscribers in the country and in the adjoining counties of North Carolina. In our efficient and obliging Agent at the Depot, Mr. JOHN McKAY, furnish us weekly lists? We hope so. What say you, Mr. Mack?

The Weather. For the past several days, the weather has been exceedingly pleasant and agreeable, and every thing seems to be stirring. Farming has commenced, as we learn from our friends from the country, in earnest. It is most propitious for the work.

Religious Notice. The Second Quarterly Meeting for the Methodist Church, for this Station, will be held on Saturday and Sunday next, 28th and 29th inst. Revs. A. B. STEVENSON and ROBERT HARPER are expected to preach.

"LO, THE WINTER IS PAST, the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; and the fig tree putteth forth her fige."

A meeting was held last night, in front of the post office, where a stand had been erected. Remarks were made by ALEX. COOK, TRACY and others. Quite a large crowd was assembled, principally colored. The guests of the Mansion House, who were sitting in front of the House, together with several citizens, heard what was said.

Journal of the Farm. We are again under obligations to Mr. JAMES C. SMITH for copies of this agricultural monthly. The number for March seems to be filled with matter which is up to the standard of the former months. We will give the contents of this Journal a more extended notice next week.

Mr. Wm. Aiken has been nominated by the Conservatives of the Second Congressional District of this State, as a candidate for Congress.

The sale of Henderson Good's property has been postponed to the 26th of April.

The Radical Nominations--The following ticket for State officers has been nominated by a Convention recently assembled in Charleston: For Governor, Gen. R. K. Scott. Lieut. Governor, L. BOGGS. Comptroller General, Dr. J. C. NEGLIE. State Treasurer, N. G. PARKER. Secretary of State, F. L. CARDOZA, (mulatto.) Adjutant and Inspector Gen. F. J. MOSS. Atty Gen. of the State, D. H. Chamberlain. Sup' of Education, J. K. JILLON.

For the Southern Enterprise.

A public meeting was held at Greenville Court House, on Monday Evening, March 23, 1863. Gov. B. F. PERRY was requested to act as Chairman and Messrs. H. Beattie and A. A. Foster to act as Secretaries.

The Chairman stated that the meeting had been called to consider the propriety of organizing a system of public schools. Rev. Ellison Capers made some remarks urging the necessity of some organized system of public instruction.

Rev. Dr. Sears, one of the Trustees of the Peabody Fund, was then introduced by the Chairman, and explained fully the plan which had been adopted by the Trustees to aid in building up public schools, and offered all the assistance possible to carry out the object of the donation.

Dr. B. Manly, Jr., then offered a series of resolutions, and, after remarks by Dr. E. T. Baist, Rev. Ellison Capers and others, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted. The sub-committee, appointed to prepare business for a meeting of citizens to consider the expediency of establishing a system of free Public Schools, in the Town of Greenville, beg leave to report:

We recommend the adoption of the following Resolutions: 1. Resolved, That we hereby express our cordial and grateful appreciation of the munificent donation made by Mr. George Peabody, to promote Education throughout the South.

2. That we feel it our duty to respond to the proposal of the Reverend Doctor Sears, General Agent of the Peabody Education Fund, now among us, by taking steps at once, to inaugurate a system of Public Schools, which shall freely offer the advantages of a good, practical education, to all classes of this community.

3. That as adequate instruction is already provided for those who are pursuing higher branches of study; and, as ample schools are already in operation for the colored children, it is simply necessary, for the present, to provide for Primary and Academic education of the white children.

4. That whenever the system is extended it is desirable and necessary that separate schools be provided for the white and colored children, and, except for the youngest scholars, separate instruction for the two sexes.

5. That so far as practicable, it is important to make use of existing arrangements for instruction, with such modifications and additions as may be found necessary.

6. That the Town Council be requested to appoint a Board of seven "Commissioners of Public Education in the Town of Greenville," to whom all details shall be intrusted, to continue in office until the 1st of July, 1863.

7. That the said Commissioners be instructed to establish forthwith a Primary School for girls and for boys not over ten years of age, in the building of the old Male Academy, to commence April 1st; and to arrange, if practicable, for opening by the 1st of August an Academic Department for boys in the Gaillard School Room, and one of similar grade for girls, in the Female College; that in these Department instruction shall be gratuitously given in all the branches of English study, as laid down for the Primary and Academic Departments of the Female College, in their last catalogue; while the High School and Collegiate Departments of the above named institutions will, it is presumed, remain on their present basis.

8. That to sustain these enterprises for one year, in connection with the aid tendered by Dr. Sears, a subscription be taken up of $2500. to be paid in four quarterly installments, on the 1st of April, July, October, and January next; provided, that at least the sum of $250 is obtained in good subscriptions.

Respectfully submitted, ELLISON CAPERS, B. MANLY, JR., W. H. HOVEY, ROBERT McKAY, Committee.

Greenville March 23, 1863. Dr. Sears then stated that, if the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars be subscribed by the citizens, the Trustees of the Peabody Fund would add one thousand dollars. A Committee was then appointed to receive subscriptions, and the sum of fifteen hundred and seventy dollars was subscribed. The following gentlemen were appointed a Committee to receive additional subscription: Messrs. Wm. Beattie, W. T. Shumate, W. H. Hovey, E. F. Stoker, R. McKay, L. Williams.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned. B. F. PERRY, Chairman. H. BEATTIE, A. A. FOSTER, Secretaries.

IN MEMORIAM. Two of the remaining acting Elders, the Deacons and Trustees, bowing under the mighty hand of God, would implore divine assistance while attempting to realize their irreparable loss. In less than four years, God, in his mysterious visitations, has taken from our ranks three of the pillars of our Church. Three of the Ruling Elders, J. M. HARRISON, ADAM STENHOUSE and A. W. PEDEY have been called to lay down the weapons of their warfare, to occupy a place in the New Jerusalem, to unite with the general assembly and church of the first born in heaven. JOHN M. HARRISON died Nov. 2, 1865. For 19 years he bore the heat and burden of the day, as under-shepherd ruling in his Master's house. Let us indulge the pleasing hope that he fought a good fight, kept the faith, finished his course, and is now wearing a crown of unfading glory as a reward. ADAM STENHOUSE, a Scotchman by birth and education, came to America in 1820; united to our Church by certificate in 1821;

He acted as ruler for 20 years, showing himself worthy the vocation wherewith he was called. In all the relations of life, he humbly attempted the discharge of duty, and when his work was done, he calmly met the last enemy; became a conqueror through Him who gave himself for him, and, we humbly trust, is now occupying a mansion prepared for him before the foundation of the world. He died on the 28th January, 1863.

The events of one short week were not recorded, after the loss of ADAM STENHOUSE, when we were called to unite in sympathy with the bereaved family of A. WATSON PERRY. He was suddenly taken from the bosom of an affectionate family. Though sudden and unexpected, he was found in readiness for the summons. He held the responsible post of Elder with much honor to himself for nearly 20 years; died in peace, and, doubtless, is enjoying the rest which remaineth to the people of God.

May God, for Jesus' sake, through the Spirit, sanctify unto all affected, the loss of these good men, and make the remnant more humble and devoted, and to his great name, shall be praised to the glory of his grace, world without end. Amen. Resolved, That this paper be read to the congregation by our stated supply, extending our sympathies to the bereaved families, and that a copy be furnished to the District paper and to the Southern Presbyterian with a request to publish.

JAMES E. SAVAGE, ALEX. THOMPSON, Elders. FAIRVIEW, S. C., March 16th, 1863.

Tribute of Respect. PHILOSOPIAN SOCIETY, Greenville, March 13th 1863.

The Society has been called to pay the last tribute of respect to its departed brother member, JAMES McMahan, who has ended his meetings with us and has been summoned to enter upon the enjoyment of the blessed above.

Resolved, That in the death of Jas. McMahan, this Society has lost one of its most zealous, upright and worthy members, the community as honest and respected citizen and his family their dearest earthly friend.

Resolved, That a blank page be left in the records of the Society in honor of his memory, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased with the assurance of its deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Greenville Mountaineer and Greenville Enterprise with a request that they be published.

JOHN REID, P. HENRY KEILLY, Committee.

THE MILLS HOUSE. An unfounded rumor has been in circulation for the past few days that this popular caravansary had been closed. No rumor could be more cruel or unjust. A speculation or two in which Mr. Purcell engaged proved to be unfortunate, and he is now under a temporary cloud; but satisfactory arrangements have been made with his creditors, and the Mills House is to remain as it has always been, one of the best conducted hotels in the South. Mr. Purcell's reputation as a hotelier is so widely known that the above mentioned rumor would affect a host of friends who have always made his house their home, and might deter them from paying him their usual calls. We take pleasure in assuring not only that class, but the world at large who have heard of the Mills House, that it offers the same inducements to travellers as it ever did, and its hospitable doors will not be closed in this day and generation. --Charleston News.

T. P. PINKHAM, seventy-one years of age died suddenly in Lafayette, Indiana, last week. He was in good health till about half an hour before his death, when he went down stairs and remarked, "I am going home; in half an hour--in thirty minutes--I shall be a corpse." He quietly proceeded to give directions about his business, and, commending his soul to his Maker, expired in exactly thirty-four minutes. His relatives wanted to go for a doctor, but he said, "It is no use; I shall go hence in half an hour."

We are not so much startled in these times as we used to be formerly at the way they do things in Mexico. A correspondent of the New York Times, at the capital, mentions that at the recent gubernatorial election in the State of Puebla, there were four candidates, one opposed to the policy of the party in power. That one beat all his competitors put together at the polls; but the Legislature, being in session, immediately declared the election to be irregular, and, without further ado, put in the place that one of the defeated candidates who had the fewest votes. Even Mr. Thad. Stevens has something to learn yet from Mexico.

DEATH OF WILLIAM H. GILLILAND, Esq. It is with sincere regret that we announce the death last evening at eight o'clock, of William H. Gilliland, Esq., at the advanced age of eighty years. More prominently connected for a longer series of years with the business, society and government of Charleston than probably any man now living. Mr. Gilliland has carried to his grave the respect and affection of the entire community. An unimpeachable integrity was the basis of a character that commanded success in business, friendship in society and influence in municipal affairs, and an honorable and peaceful death has been but the fit conclusion of a well spent and useful life. --Charleston Mercury

PLANT PROVISIONS--There are reports from many parts of the cotton States that the recent rise in the price of cotton has induced great efforts by planters to raise big crops. We hope this will prove incorrect. Let them rather see to the raising of the necessities of life, and after the South is abundantly supplied with these, and can work from its own resources, it will then be time enough to attempt large cotton crops. There is no doubt that the raising of cotton will be at the best a precarious business for some years. If this country ever again obtains the ascendancy in the cotton markets of the world, the planters will have greater safety and assurance than they can have under the present state of things at home and abroad.

The new Post office Directory of the United States, which has recently made its appearance, shows that there are 25,712 post-offices in the United States in actual operation, besides over 5,040 in the Southern States that have not yet been opened since the war. The whole number of money order offices is 1,226, and about two hundred more will go into operation on the 1st of June next.
