

Serious Accident to Gen. N. G. Evans.

A very serious and painful accident happened to General Evans between nine and ten o'clock Saturday morning.

The General and his brother, Captain A. L. Evans, were in a light buggy, drawn by two horses, riding down Meeting-street.

The General, although in a critical condition, somewhat revived towards Saturday evening, and afterwards passed a comparatively easy night.

Affairs in Mexico and Texas.

Houston, Texas, April 4, via SUMMIT, 14th.—The present state of affairs may be briefly summed up as follows:

Hamilton, the Lincoln Military Governor, has established his seat of Government at Brownsville and appointed his officers, &c.

The bulk of the Yankee force has been withdrawn from the coast to Louisiana, leaving 4,000 or 5,000 men for garrison and offensive operations.

A Yankee force of 300 attacked Sardo on the 19th, and were signally repulsed by Col. Barredo, with a force of less than 150.

The Yankees evacuated Indianola on the 13th. They are still in force at Fort Epouse.

The cold weather has made crops in Texas somewhat backward, and rendered the prospect less flattering than last year.

Maximilian and the Confederates.

We have reason to believe that on accepting the crown of Mexico, the Emperor Maximilian will address from Miramar a formal notification of his accession to the throne to all the provinces and powers with which he desires to establish diplomatic relations.

A late London letter to the New York Evening Times, contains the following:

You have heard much, and will still hear more, of the repopulation of Ireland, but curious changes are also taking place in English population.

LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

From Gen. Lee's Army—The Campaign to Open at Once.

ORANGE C. H., April 18.—Deserters who have entered our lines within the last few days report that the enemy will begin his advance to-morrow, eight days' rations having been issued for that purpose.

From Johnson's Army.

DALTON, GA., April 18.—The "Rev." James Findlay, Chaplain of the 3d Alabama Regiment was hung at Tunnel Hill to-day for encouraging mutiny and carrying on a secret correspondence with the enemy.

On the 16th gold, in New York, went up to 198.

From Florida.

ANOTHER YANKEE STEAMER BLOWN UP.—We take the following extracts from letters, received at the Savannah News Office, dated

CEDAR CREEK, E. F. April 4

On Saturday, the enemy's both cavalry and infantry, advanced on our line of pickets, and after a brisk skirmish retired.

CAMP FINEGAN, April 4

Last Monday night our company was on picket duty within the enemy's lines. It was expected that the enemy would advance and drive in our pickets.

Yesterday afternoon the Yankees attacked our pickets. They were about 1500 strong, and after a skirmish of about two hours, the enemy retired.

A torpedo was placed a few days since in the St. John's river, and yesterday a Yankee steamer, loaded with arms and ammunition for two regiments, while passing up, ran upon it, when it exploded.

A late London letter to the New York Evening Times, contains the following:

You have heard much, and will still hear more, of the repopulation of Ireland, but curious changes are also taking place in English population.

A late London letter to the New York Evening Times, contains the following:

Mr. McCrea, a Yankee missionary at Beaufort, S. C., for converting the negroes, has been put in jail for selling them whiskey.

A Yankee paper says a number of Western capitalists are making arrangements to go extensively and legitimately into the cotton business, both by cultivating abandoned plantations in Louisiana and Mississippi and by purchasing of the old planters.

Murder of a Confederate Prisoner at Point Look Out.

We have the melancholy intelligence of the cold-blooded murder of one of our prisoners at Point Lookout. The victim was Lawrence W. Peyton, private of the 2d Kentucky cavalry, and son of ex-Congressman Peyton of Kentucky.

The Little Napoleon.

A recent letter from Paris relates the following: At the last reception at the Tuilleries, the Emperor was conversing with some one on the American war, when his little son approached.

Yankee Curiosities.

Among other objects of interest now on exhibition at the Albany Relief Bazaar are a model of the Merrimac, made from its wood; piece of shell thrown by the rebel craft at the Cumberland; a cane made from the Congress; a cutlass brought ashore from the Cumberland; a canoe, with wool, copper, and iron from the Merrimac, one of the original John Brown lance heads; Washington's account book; gun presented by Gen. Saylor to Henry Lock; boarding pikes from the rebel ran Gen. Bragg; autograph letter from Gen. Lee (rebel); Col. Edsall's revolver; Gen. Van Rensselaer's sword, used at the battle of Queenstown; a model of the Bastille, constructed of material from the building and presented to Washington by Lafayette; a model of a pontoon bridge, with cars, etc., complete; knife and fork from Washington's headquarters at Newburg, and a 120 pound rifle shot thrown from the celebrated gun "Lady Polk," at Columbus.

It is difficult for an honest people to realize the lengths to which our enemies go in their interested fabrications and forgeries.

It is a remarkable fact, says the Mobile Register, that in commands where the officers do their duty to their country and to their men, desertions are of rare occurrence.

When is a man thinner than a shingle? When he is a shivering.
