The facts developed in the case are a striking commen- tive. Even to-day a lot of paper is oftary on the war and upon the spirit of fered me for which $35 is demanded its prosecution. The father of General Grant makes a contract with a speculating firm in Oindinnati, in consideration df one quarter of the released net profits 'to procure from the headquarters of Gen. The Court very properly stated in its opinion that the employment of the plaintiff to procure the illegal co-operation of the military in a private enterprise if proved, was equally disgraceful to the defendants and the plaintiff, and would insure the dismissal of the petition of the plaintiff to compel the payment by the defendants of one quarter of $10,000, the net profits in the transaction, with reprobation to both parties. We call especial attention to the remarks of Judge Stores whose "lovalty"and Republicanism cannot be questioned .- He felt "constrained to say that the whole of the trade, as disclosed in the proceedings, was not only disgraceful but tends directly to disgrace the country. It is the price of blood."

After these remarks of the Court, it is unnessary for us to add a word of condemnation upon the infamous outrages which have been, and are being committed, similar to those developed in this case, and with the consent, if not the participation of high civil and military officials. Says a "loyal" Judge, "this trade is a disgrace to the coun-"ry"--nay more, "it is the price of blood." Here is the damming evidence that the nation is being impoverished and hundreds of thousands of valuable lives, sacrificed to gratify the cupidity and avariee of shoddy officials, contractors and speculators. If, all sense of honor, pride and Frestice is not paralized in the public wind, the day of retribution, fearful and ovewhelming, will not long be delayed.

"Gone up the Spout."

A rumor, received through Yankee prisoners captured on Tuesday, in Charles City county, states that Gen. Grant has been relieved from command of the Yankee army. Yankee prisoners are by no means reliable, yet as McClellan shared very much the same treatment when driven to Harrison's Landing, it is not improbable that "Unonditional Surrender" Grant has literally become "Up Spout" Grant. The raiders never entered Morgonton, and i my be accounted for in this way: A reconnoitering party of the raiders occupied a prominent point within a short distance of Morganton SI where they met a negro, just from the village and learned from him, in answer to their interrogatories, that about 500 soldiers were in town waiting for them and ready to give battle. This statement (entirely fabricated by the cunning darkey) had its effect and the raders left precipitately, to give the alarm to their comrades, then at Camp Vance.

Dusky, a son of the notorious Dan would give a ferocious turn to the Dusky, and the widow's name is Mary Briggs. Mary was allowed to carry delicacies to George until she was detected in attempting to pass something of a contraband nature through the bars of his cell, after which she was debarred by the jailor from the premises.

Last Wednesday night, about 10 o'clock, the jailor heard a noise on the outside of the Southern wall of the prison, and went round there with a lantern, when he discovered a parcel on the ground. While in the act of picking up the mysterious package, the widow Briggs alighted on his back from the descent, and has never been left wall, which was twelve or fifteen feet high, and disputed his possession of the property. In the fall her right leg was broken above the ankle, but she struggled a barbarism. By the employmanfully, and in the contest a bottle of ment of the negro the Yankee is nitric acid was broken, and the contents actually warring against civilizaspilled upon the jaifor and Mrs. Briggs, both of whole were stained and burned. The valient secesh sank exhausted, and of the question, can anything be was carried into the jail and placed under surgical treatment.

The jailor, upon examining the parcel, found that it contained a bottle of chloroform, a bottle of nitric acid, a chisel, a box of steel pens and two love letters from Mrs. Briggs, a copy of the Freeman's Journal and a copy of the Cincin-uati Enquirer! The Wheeling Intelligencer says that love is a word of hardly sufficient strength to describe one of the letters. The infatuated woman had climed to the wall with a ladder, and was about to attach the package to a long pole and extend it to the window of her Dusky's cell, when she dropped it, and was thus discovered .- Chattanooga Gazette.

----We have been favored with the following extract of a letter from Richmond. The writer is an officer of the army. A want of supplies being the only thing we had to fear, we may henceforth dismiss all doubt as to the triumph of Lee :

Lee's gallant troops have been supplied with everything that the Government could lavish upon them. Full rations of vegetables, coffee and sugar have been abundantly dealt out to them, and several brigades have experienced such an "emborras de richesses" that they are Splendidly illustrated and finely bound. sending their surplus rations to feed the poor of this city. This is no clap-trap or news paper story; I know the fact. General Fry's brigade was one of the first, if not the first, to inaugurate this novel charity.

QUARTERMASTER GEN'S, DEPART'MT RAILROAD BUREAU, Richmond, February 20, 1864.

THE FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF Soldiers in the Army of Northern Vir-a, are hereby notified that an arrangement has this day been effected with the South ern Express Company to carry all packages of food and wearing apparel to Richmond, Va. To secure the advantages thus obtained through the Express Company, the following instructions must be observed :

Packages must not contain more than one hundred pounds, be well secured and plainly marked, and sent at the expence of the shipper to either of the Soldiers' Relief Associa-tion, which are located as follows-

In North Carolina, at Raleigh ; in South Carolina, at Columbia; in Georgia, at Augusta; in Alabama, at Montgomery ; or to any other point at which one of these Associations have an office. The Agents of these Associations will there take charge of them and ship daily by Southern express Company to the proper Agents of the respective States at Richmond, who will see them distributed to the proper individual

To meet the wishes of the soldiers and to give them a certain and speedy communication with flome, the Southern Express Com pany has agreed to give this freight prefer-ence over everything else, and, in order that no obstacle may occur to the success of so laudable an enterprise, the several Railroad Companies are hereby requested to render the express company such facilities as will enable it to make this arrangement a complete success. As the Southern Express Company assumes all responsibility of the transportation of these packages, the Rel'f Associations are requested to withdraw their Agents, who have heretoforeacted as travelling messengers. If the Relief Associations will establish agences in the rear of other armics, they may enjoy the the same privileges hereby secured to the Army of Northern Virginia. F. W. SIMS Lieutenant Colonel and Quartermaster.
