TOWN AND COUNTY.

Dr. F. E. Wilder was appointed and confirmed last Wednesday as treasurer of this county, a position he surrendered to George Holmes four years ago because he opposed Robert Smalls as State senator.

Captain W. H. Danton who was stationed in Beaufort and Charleston just after the close of the war, and owner of some property in Beaufort, has been appointed Indian agent at Pueblo, Arizona.

Bishop Howe will visit Hardeeville January 1, Allendale on the 3rd, Grahamville on the 7th and Bluffton on the 17th.

Thos. H. Wheeler Esq. the recently elected school commissioner for this county, has been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court.

Mr. C. W. Chaplin offers to rent the desirable location for a country store now occupied by Mr. Manett. See his advertisement.

Mr. Gowers, assistant light-house engineer, will be here in a few days to select sites for range lights for Port Royal harbor. This is the first fruits of the recent visit of the naval officers to this place and the decision to erect these lights is confirmatory of the report that a naval station will be established here.

Mr. Harms announces to-day his readiness to supply the young people with toys and other Christmas goods.

A colored man was shot and killed at Levy's X Roads last Saturday night. The particulars are not yet at hand.

Mr. George Gage has taken the agency of the Millville Fire and Marine Insurance Company, and his advertisement appears to-day. The assets of this company are large and its terms will be as reasonable as the risks will admit. Competition in the insurance business in Beaufort cannot but be beneficial to our citizens.

The County Commissioners met Monday evening. The only business before the board was the approval of the bonds of S. J. Bampfield, Esq., as clerk of court and William Wilson as sheriff. The bondsmen of Mr. Bampfield are George Holmes, J. W. Collins and E. A. Schepers. Mr. Wilson's bondsmen are Mrs. M. A. Wilson and J. E. Boyce.

A fatal accident occurred in Port Royal last Saturday evening resulting in the death of a young man named Robert Kerwin, an employee of the Port Royal Railroad. Kerwin and others were engaged in running some cars laden with cotton into the yard of the Port Royal Compressing Company and as there were no brakes on the cars the deceased got a stick of timber to use as a check which, when the cars struck it, flew up and striking him on the head knocked him insensible. When Kerwin's comrades found he did not rally from the effects of the blow they carried him to the council chamber but while entering the house he expired. Dr. Johnson held an inquest on the remains but several of the jury refused to sign the verdict unless the railroad company was censured for not providing brakes for their cars. Kerwin was a native of New York and is represented as being a faithful and efficient laborer.

An effort is being made to get up meetings to denounce Myers and Hamilton and demand that they resign their seats in the legislature on account of their having joined the legal body. It is noticeable, however, that those favoring these indignation meetings are aspirants for the vacancies that would thus be made. The people generally care only to have an end put to the disgraceful proceedings of the bogus house.

The Russian Fleet.

If the foreign dispatches are to be credited, we are likely to receive a visit in American waters of a Russian fleet. The story may prove, however, to lack confirmation. An unauthenticated rumor recently appeared in some of the Continental newspapers that the Russian Mediterranean squadron has been ordered to America. The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times, in a letter to that journal, says: "On Monday, November 9th, Mr. Boker, the American Minister to Russia, was suddenly informed that the Czar desired to see him. As it is unusual for diplomats below the rank of Ambassador to be admitted to such audiences, every imaginable rumor was circulated as to what passed between the Czar and the American Minister. Although the truth has not officially transpired, I believe the Czar's object was simply to beg Mr. Boker to communicate to President Grant the fact of the departure of the Russian Mediterranean squadron for America." There is no doubt that the squadron has sailed, and although the position of a commander of a naval force ordered to seek refuge in foreign ports on the eve of war cannot be enviable, it is difficult to see what else Russia could do even the Turkish navy alone would be sufficient to dispose of any ships which Russia could bring into action. This is the fleet that is reported on its way to Port Royal.
