ty for their engagements.

dy ? This, my good sir, is precisely the you in the form of a specific inquiry, whether public opinion, through the Union, may not receive such an organization by rency equal to the wants of the country, the action of Congress, popular meetings and "to regulate its value." and the press, as to induce the defaulting States to hold Conventions this winter. comprehending those who have negotiated foreign loans, who nevertheless have met punctually their dividends, that by united action they may induce the legislatures of the several indebted States to impose, and the people to bear such taxes as shall provide the means of paying the interest, and establishing a sinking fund for the gradu al extinguishment of the principal of their public debt? I cannot believe that these appeals to State pride, and National honor would be unavailing. You see that I lay out of account the assumption of the State debts by the federal Government, because I often fear, if this expectation were held out, the defaulting States would do nothing of themselves, and the exigen. cy has not yet sisen when such an enormous responsibility ought to be assumed by the National Government, so unjust to those States who are faithfully paying their debts, and to others who have perhaps been far wiser to forbear contracting any, although I can conceive a state of things in which such assumption as a measure of finance and national policy might be eminently expedient.

I am gratified to inform you amidst this convulsion in the credit of several of the States, our own South Carolina, "wears her beaver up." She is never in arrear one day, and very often, as at this moment, (in reference to the loan I contracted for her) has her interest six months in advance in her banker's hands. This is not surprising. You know it has been one of our familiar and household lessons at home to submit cheerfully to the imposition of direct taxes, to support the security and honor of our country, and hence by a habit which we derived from the buried with almost as much alacrity as we give money to our wives and children. If the defaulting States would only practice on this doctrine, the smallest imposition would produce an amount abundantly sufficient to resuscitate their credit.

Occupying the position you do, I sincerely hope, my dear sir, that your influence throughout the Union will be brought We all know that our countrymen are essentially honest, because they are essenalthough the forms of our federative sys. 1 and seasons." This result has been first 1 tem may discharge it from a legal liabili. In the constant action of the Federal Gov. ernment, or their supposed meditated ac. Admitting the potency, and the extent tion on the Banks of the States, which of the evil, you will ask what is the reme. created a universal panic hit has compelled the Banks to withdraw their circulaquestion I am about to ask you, and I ask tion ; and next the General Government permitting to remain in criminal abeyance their sovereign function to supply a cur-

> The consequence is, that the States have nothing in the shape of credit or money at home to pay with abroad. Every species of property has fallen from fifty to one hundred per cent., and the standard of value so seriously disturbed that a man in 1839 might have had property to three times the value of his debts, yet he is now ipso facto ruined by the silent transit of our country from a redundant circulation to what some are pleased most felicitously to call a hard money currency-when the fact is that we can procure neither that which is hard, or soft.

By this alteration in the standard of value, a revolution is in portentous pregress in our country, as wide-spread and desolating, as far as property is concerned, as that which distinguished and illustrated the masterpieces of human policy of the Robespierres, Dantons, and Marats of another ill fated country, which in its time was governed by its demagogues too, who made paper money so thick that it snowed assign its in the streets of Paris, and then turned round and burnt in their frenzy their own handywork. Look, my dear sir, at the thousands, and tens of thousands of families that have been ruinedthat have had unutterable woe carried into the very bosoms of their houses, by the nostrums of our political quacks, who, in their senseless war on the very banks they created, gave no time "by the preparatory revolution of the intervening discords" for the country to pass from a period of expansion to one of severe and arid restriction. To those who have been ruined in these unhappy times, whose es. tates have passed under the tender gripe of the sl.eriff, the moral justice of General Jackson's memorahle apothegm will be but a dry crust, that "those who borrow "warlike, and the wise" who have made money ought to break"-a doctrine out ns what we are, we pay our State taxes of which their creditors are likely to derive as little comfort as themselves, although it must be admitted that the General tried all he could to secure this bless. ing to the country. But, my good sir, the day of reckoning must come. The account will be adjusted now, or by posterity hereafter. One of its first sums will be to reckon up what the victory of New Orleans has cost us. These are generally to bear on this great national question. expensive pageants any how. Bonaparte probably never achieved one for La Belle France, except to the tune of twenty mil-

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES Passed at the 21 Session of the 27th Congress.

[PUBLIC-No. 17.] AN ACT changing the times of holding the circuit and district courts of the United States for the districts of East and West Tennessee.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the circuit and district courts of the United States for the district of East Tennessee shall hereafter be held at Knoxville, in said district, on the first Mondays in November and May, in each and every year, instead of the times heretofore fixed by law; and that the circuit and district courts for the district of West Tennessee shall hereafter be held at Jackson, in said district, on the second Monday in October and April, in each and every year, instead of the times heretofore fixed by law-the spring terms of said circuit court at Knoxville and Jackson, as herein provided, to be held by the district judge; and should any difficult question of law arise in any cause, said judge may, at his discretion, adjourn said cause to the succeeding term of said court .-And all writs, pleas, suits, recognizances, indictments, or other proceedings, civil or criminal, issued, commenced, or pending in either of said courts, shall be returnable to, be entered and have day in court, and be heard and tried according to the times of holding said courts, as herein provided.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That such rule days, for the return of process and the filing of pleadings, may from time to time be fixed, and other orders made by said courts, respectively, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States, as may be necessary or proper for the convenience of parties and the advancement of business in said courts; and that the first section of "An act to amend an act approved the eighteenth of January, eighteen hundred and thir. ty-nine, entitled 'An act to amend an act entitled an act to require the judge of the district of East and West Tennessec to hold a court at Jackson, in said State,' approved June the cighteenth, eigh. teen hundred and thirty eight, and for other purposes," approved July the fourth, eighteen hundred and forty, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

JOHN WHITE, Speaker of the House of Representatives. WILLIE P. MANGUM, President of the Senate pro tempore. Approved, May 18, 1842. JOHN TYLER.

[PUBLIC-No. 18.]

AN ACT to amend the act of the tenth of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, entitled "An act to change the time of holding the circuit and district courts in the district of Ohio. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Re. presentatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the term of the circuit tially sagacious, as well as, in the main, lions of francs-to say nothing of the lots and district courts of the United States, in the right-principled, and require merely a of "cracked crowns and bloody noses" he district of Ohio, now required by law to be held appointed time the 'Signor' made his apbus, shall hereafter be held at the City of Cincin- riders belonging to Mr. Batty's establishnati; and all process and recognizances, and other ment. He was dressed a la Chifney, or at Columbus, at the said July term next, shall be by a first rate westend schneider, and his returnable at the said term at Cincinnati; and the top boots would have done honor even to said district court shall have power, whenever, in the renowned Hoby. The colors he sporthe opinion of the Judge thereof, it may be neces- ted were red and white, and in his right sary for the convenient administration of justice, paw he carried a handsome riding-whip, to hold an adjourned term of said district court at and also wore a pair of small spurs buckcourt may make all necessary rules for holding such adjourned term of said court, and for the proper return of process.

titled "An act to regulate the duties on imports that both sides should resign, and thus sub- some inquiries as to the persons recomand tonnage," approved March second, seventcer mit the whole matter to the people. This mended, and then quietly passed them by hundred and ninety-nine, as requires the collector for the district of Fairfield, in the State of Con.

necticut, to reside in the town of Fairfield, be, and the same is hereby, repealed ; and the said collector shall reside in said town of Fairfield, or in the town of Bridgeport, within said district. Approved, June 4, 1842.

[RESOLUTION-PUBLIC, No. 3.]

JOINT RESOLUTION to continue two clerks in the business of reservations and grants under Indian treatics.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the authority given to the Secretary of War, by the joint resolution, approved second May, one thousand eight hundred and forty, to continue the employment of two clerks in the busice s of reservations and grants under Indian treatics, be extended, after the expiration of the period for which that authority was granted, for the term of two years.

Approved, May 18, 1842.

[RESOLUTION-PUBLIC, No. 4.]

A RESOLUTION to authorize the extension of the contract for currying the mail on the route between Mobile and New Orleans.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Postmaster General bc, and he hereby is, authorized to extend the existing contract for carrying the mail upon the steamboat route between Mobile and New Orleans for three years from the time at which said contract would expire by its own limitation, if in his opinion, the public interest and convenience will be promoted by such extension of said contract. Approved, June 1, 1842.

EXTRAORDINARY TROTFING MATCH.

We cut the following from an English paper. It appears to us that the rider, in this case, was a very appropriate one; and if all the SPECTATORS at trotting matchys were of the same species, the world would be better off:

" On Tuesday afternoon, a gray pony, twelve hands and a half high, 'he property of Mr. Burke, a gentleman well known on the turf, was backed for £50 to trot 14 miles within the hour, with a monkey for its rider, in an enclosure attached to the Rosemary Branch, Peckham. The monkey, according to the conditions of the match, was booted, spurred, and otherwise attired after the fashion of the jockies at Epsom or Newmarket, and rode the pony in the usual style, with saddle and bridle. The monkey s licted was Signor Jocko, belonging to Mr. Batty, the equestrian manager, who had already carned considerable reputation by his performances in the circle at the Surry, and other metropolitan and provincial theatres. At the pearance, attended by one of the rough- tion to him to emancipate his slaves had proceedings taken or issued, or made returnable Scott, his jacket and buckskins being built In his frank, open, and undisguised manwithstanding his performances, time was in this instance backed at odds. After the arrangement of the usual preliminaries the start took place; Mr. Burke, and a gentleman the friend of the party who had taken the bet, cantering on each side of the pony, with one or two others galloping in the rear. He performed the distance in 56 minutes and 53 seconds of the given time; consequently having three minutes and seven seconds to spare, and was not at all distressed. The signor rode in first rate style, came in with the whip

Congress assembled, That so much of the act en- | ago to the Senators of the other party | strong terms. Mr. McLean soon made was declined .- Balt. Amer.

The Hon. Tom. Marshall, the representative in Congress from Mr. Clay's or by letter. Some time afterwards he District, recently delivered a stump met Mr. Monroe, when the latter, walkspeech to his constituents at Versailles, of ing up to him with a smile, and shaking which the Commonwealth, a Whig pa. him cordially by the hand, remarked, per says ; "We understaud that in the pleasantly : "Well, sir, so I perceive that main the sentiments he expressed were I have not enough influence with you to Whig sentiments, but that on the subject be able to procure the appointment of a of the veto power, he delivered himself in a manner very offensive to the Whigs who heard him with great sorrow, while the Democrats, as might be expected, were perfectly delighted.

CONSUL AT HAVANA.

It gives us pleasure to be able to an. nounce that, if a gentleman of high worth and character, Mr. CALHOUN, has been removed from this important station, for no reason that we can hear of except that in the contest of 1840 he had done great service to the Whig cause, at least the place is to be filled by one to whom no exception can be taken-a fact beginning now not to be very frequent. Gen. Ro. BERT CAMPBELL, formerly Member of Congress from South Carolina, and subsequently a citizen of Georgia or Alabama, succeeds Mr. CALHOUN. Few gentlemen possess or deserve a larger body of personal friends. We understand that Mr. CAMPBELL has not obtained the appointment at the expense of his respectable predecessor, and that he applied only after Mr. CALHOUN's removal was ascertained to be settled .- Nat. Intell.

MR. CLAY IN THE WEST.

From the Dayton Journal of the 3rd instant we copy the following account of MR. CLAY'S progress after leaving that city:

Mr. CLAY reached Eaton on Friday afternoon. He was met by a number of people, and welcomed in a very handsome the obligation to pay debts contracted in address by FELIX MARSH, Esq., to which he responded in an exceedingly happy too common. manner in a speech of about thirty minutes. The people were afterwards addressed by Mr. CRITTENDEN, Governor METCALFE, and CHARLES ANDERSON, of this place.

At 10 o'clock on Saturday morning the company reached the State line, Here some five or six thousand people were ready to receive Mr. CLAY. At this point he took leave of Ohio in terms the most feeling and eloquent. Arriving at Richmond shortly afterwards, TWENTY THOU. SAND Hoosiers were found waiting to welcome him to Indiana. He addressed this crowd in a speech two hours and a half in length, nearly half of which was devo ted to abolition. It appears that a petibeen gotten up previous to his arrival. and was presented to him upon the stand. ner, he gave his opinion of the petition that had been made to him, and of slave. ry and abolition in general. We have no room to refer to the matter of his address, but have only to say that it was most con vincing to all who heard him, and well received by every one.

and appointed others, without thinking it worth his while to say any thing to the President upon the subject, either verbally couple of subordinates in your Department." "Why, sir," said Mr. McLean, "I should have been pleased to oblige you, but I inquired about the persons you recommended, and found that I could make better appointments." "Well. well," said Mr. Monroe, " I have no doubt you are right ;" and the matter was never mentioned between them afterwards.

The same state of things that existed during Mr. Monroe's Administration continued to exist during that of Mr. Adams. Mr. A., a month or two ago, made this declaration upon the floor of Congress : " I never interested myself, during my Ad. ministration, in any manner whatever, with the appointments to be made by the heads of Departments, except in a single instance. I wrote a letter to the Secre. retary of the Navy, recommending a young gentleman for the appointment of midshipman; but I had not influence enough with the Secretary to procure the appointment, It was given to another."-Louisville Journal.

MORAL OBLIGATIONS OF BANKRUPTS.

We heard it stated, not long since, that a bankrupt went into the shop of a creditor, to whom he ought to have been under great obligations for assistance rendered, and, with a swaggering air, said he had paid all his debts-did nt owe a cent-he had taken the benefit of the bankrupt law, If this remark was not made seriously it indicates a loose morality, in reference to good faith, which it is to be feared, is but

FROM ENGLAND.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18th, 1842, Arrival of the Independence, Great fire at Liverpool-Destruction of American produce to the amount of three millions of dol. lars.

The packet ship Independence, Capt. Nye, has ust arrived from Liverpool, whence she sailed on Sunday, the 25th of September. The most important item of intelligence is the account of a destructive fire at Liverpool, by which several lives were lost, and property to an immense amount destroyed.

The disturbed districts were more quiet at the last advices. Some two or three persons who had been wounded at Manchester, Staley Brook, &c.

proper direction to be given to their exer. left on the field of battle. But his victories country.

But, auxiliary to these efforts, something more remains to be done by your. of the United States or an issue of a reand Boston.

out, was destroyed by our friend Gen. Jackson, when he slew the Bank of the United States, with the arm of Samson, and almost "with the self same weapon too," when we recollect all the twaddle of the old gentleman on the subject. He, as Burke, said, was certainly a "consummate architect of Ruin," in his time and tide, and had the happy faculty of impersonating a corporation "in his mind's eye" for the purpose of hating it as cordially as he once did you and Mr. Poindexter. When, therefore, Mr. Biddle entered into a contest with this hero of two wars, he forgot the wisdom of the Spanish proverb, "That he who sits down to dine with the devil should eat with a long spoon." What has been the result of this feast, in broken meat and empty plates, you well know. It has left our country palsied indeed-hungry in flesh and poor in spirit. I doubt, since the creation of the world, whether such an example can be exhibited as we for one hoar to be governed with such a are so shamefully ignorant that they are Caffresand Hottentots, in reference to their picture, but it may be true. condition, I doubt not, have been governed with a policy far more vigilant and enlightened. A country of immense resources, in a period of profound peace, on the verge of bankruptcy ! Any man who since Gen. Jackson destroyed the bank of the United States (with the exception of a short period of distempered inflummation created by his own measures) under a stendily diminishing circulation, which the eminent philosopher to whom I have referred has declared to be one of the worst calamities that can befal a civilized country-far more disastrous " than the tions to make even an heroic effort to re- in cost were no more to be compared to recover and sustain the character of the the victory of New Orleans, than a penny whistle is to Baron Munchausen's celebrated clarion under an April thaw. I calculate that he victory of the Sth of Jan. self. It is to lend vigorously the powers uary cost us five hundred millions of dolof your own genius, and the impulses of lars, beside the small expence of entailing your own patriotism, in your own appro. upon the country, "a set of drivellers priate sphere, the Senate of the United whose folly has taken away all dignity States, to create and establish a sound from distress, and made even calamity the city of Cleveland, in said district, at such time led r und his boots. The pony he was circulating medium throughout the Union, ridiculous." You will say hold. You and convertible into specie, but in sufficient | 1 are greatly responsible for this hero's abundance to elevate the standard of value getting into power. Yes, it is true ; willfrom the dreadful depression to which it ingly would I explate this sin, sir, with has fallen, and in fact to be adequate to my blood, if it could recall the fatal past. perform the exchanges of trade and value But this is impossible. Let us look with in our country. Whether this be a bank courage and resolution to the future. I care not what your abstract theories on bankdeemable currency by the Federal Trea. ing are, whether they agree with or differ sury, is not of so much comparative im. from my own. I believe you have, as you portance, as that we should have an abun. had at the close of the late war the redant and uniform circulation from some sources of mind and spirit to lift the counsource or other, which, making a lowance try out of its present deep docadence .--for the variations in the balance of trade, Yes, my dear sir, I believe your ambition shall be of equal value in New Orleans and your genius are on a level with all that is great and glorious in human ac. This circulation, in the recesses of that ton and enterprize. The field is before financial wisdom which is past finding you-take the lead in some great public French vessels coming from and laden with armeasure, whether it be a Bank of the Uni. ted States, or an Exchequer agent, it's immaterial, so that it shall restore confidence, invigorate industry, g ve to us an abundant, sound, circulating medium, and drag up from the deep the drowning cred. it of the States. Do this, and if the first honor of the country does not await you, its last bless ng will rest upon your fame. I remain, my Dear Sir, with sincere esteem, Vory respectfully and faithfully yours, J. HAMILTON.

P. S .- I shall be out in the next Hali fax steamer, and hope to confer with you on the subject of this letter on my arrival in Carolina.

THE SCHOOL MASTER WANTED.

Mexico is in a wretched state, and is a wretched State of itself. An officer of the United States ship Macedonian, who has travelled extensively in Mexico, says have presented for the last sixteen years that of 12,000,000 people there are not of folly and misgovernment. No South- 2.000 ladies who can write their own lowed under it. ern planter would permit his plantation names !-- And those that can write at all, lack of all sense and providence. The hardly worth mentioning. A deplorable

PICKLED EGGS.

(From a Hampshire correspondent.)-An industrious farmer's wife, residing at Shipden, near Andover, among a variety will read Hume's essays on " Public Cred. of other pickles which she annually intro. it" and on "Money," can be at no loss duces into her store, preserves pickled to trace our present condition to its true eggs. The process she uses in curing cause. We have been suffering ever them is very simple. When she has a large stock of eggs on hand she boils some therefrom in American vessels. six or seven dozen till they become hard. She then divests them of the shell, and puts them into large jars, pouring upon them scalding vinegar, saturated ginger, garlic, whole pepper and alspice. This is an admirable aid to cold meat, and is, in the winter months, regarded as a perfect Approved, June 1, 1842.

[PUBLIC-No. 19.]

AN ACT regulating commercial intercourse with the port of Cayenne, in the colony of French Guiana and to remit certain duties.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the act entitled "An act regulating the commercial intercourse with the islands of Martinique and Gaudaloupe," approved on the ninth of May, an." eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, admitting ticles, the growth and manufacture of either of the said islands, are hereby extended to the vessels of the same nation coming from the port of Cayenne, in the colony of French Guiana, so as to entitle said vessels coming directly from said port of Cayenne, and laden with articles the growth or manufacture of said colony which are permitted to be exported therefrom in American vessels, to ad. Houses on the 4th inst. mission into the ports of the United States on payment of no higher duties of tonnage, or on their cargoes, as aforesaid, than are imposed on American vessels, and on like cargoes therein imported : Provided, That if the President of the United States shall, at any time, receive satisfactory in. formation that the privileges allowed to American vessels and their cargoes in the said colony of ator in Congress since the extra session of French Guiana, by the arretes of its Governor bearing date the fifth of December, eighteen hun- unfilled. The obstinacy and the utter dred and thirty-one, and the twenty-eighth of De- disregard of constitutional duty on the cember, eighteen hundred and thirty three, and by part of the Locofoco majority in the State the tariffs and regulations in force in the colony, have been revoked or annulled, he is hereby authorized, by proclamation, to suspend the operations of this act, and withhold all privileges al.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to refund, out of any money in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, such amount of duty, inconsistent with the provisos of the first section of this act, which, since the arretes and the tariffs and regulations referred to in the provisions to the first section of this act, have been in operation in said colony, as may have been levied in the ports of the United States upon any French vessels coming directly from the port of Cayenne, laden with such articles, the growth or manufacture of said colony, which were allowed to be exported Approved, June 1, 1842.

[PUBLIC-No. 20.]

AN ACT to authorize the collector of the district of Fairfield to reside in either of the towns of Fairfield or Bridgeport.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in TENNESSEE.

in his mouth, and appeared quite conscious of his own merits as an equestri-

The Legislature of Tennessee has been called together at an extra session for the purpose of districting the State, and doing such other business as may be deemed of pressing importance. The Message of Gov. Jones was communicated to the two

After alluding to the necessity of a new subdivision of the State into Congressional districts to meet the requirements of the new Apportionment law, the Governor proceeds to urge upon the Legislature the duty of electing two Senators of the United States. Tennessee has had no Sen-1841, and even then a vacancy remained Senate, who refused and persisted in refusing to meet the House, in which the Whigs have a majority-thus defeating an election by joint ballot-have brought this difficulty upon the State no little uiscredit to her name. Gov. JONES says :

" Under a firm conviction of the importance of this subject, both asit affects the honor and interest of the State, it is ear. nestly recommended that you elect two Senators to the Congress of the United States. If you should be of opinion that no sufficient mode of election has been prescribed, or that the manner heretofore pursued in all similar elections since the formation of the State Government is either insufficient or incorrect, I would suggest that you proceed at an early day to make such provision as you may deem satisfactory. I make this suggestion, not because I entertain any doubts as to the justice, constitutionality, or entire suffisubject."

Mr, CALHOUN, it is said, has stated his determination not to submit to the decision of a National Convention; but to be a candidate for the Presidency, "nomination or no nomination."

North American. This accords with what was intimated by the current reports in this city at the close of the last session of Congress. Nat. Intell.

From the Providence Chr. n'cle. KIDNAPPING.

We learn that Mr. Batchelor, who was arrested in Pawcatuck a few days since for counterfeiting, was taken from the above place without any legal process, and carried into the state of Connecticut. This case placed Gov. Cleaveland in a eculiar dilemma, having acknowledged Dorr as the legal Governor, he could not apply to Gov. King, whom he considers an usurper.

By this act every person concerned has endered himself liable by the statutes of this state to an imprisonment of not over ten years or less than five. A requisition will un loubtedly be made on Cleaveland for these violators of our state.

From the same.

A requisition arrived this morning, from Gov. Davis of Massachusetts, for the delivery, to the proper authorities, of William Blodget, and others, for an alleged offence against the peace and dignity of that state. It will undoubtedly be complied with.

The offence of Col. Blodget and his party, we believe, was the arrest of some person, a fugitive from Rhode Island, within the borders of Massachusetts, during the height of the alarm in the former state.

HOUSATONIC RAILROAD.

It is announced that the Housatonic Railroad, beginning at Bridgeport on the Sound, will, in the first week of November, be connected with the great Massachusetts railroad, making a direct railroad the recent fire, holders demanded an advance of communication from Bridgeport to Alba ny. The construction of the work has been carried on with great activity during the present season.

"The power of the President has increased, is increasing, and ought to be diminished." Many striking facts might be cited in illustration of this lamentable truth. Judge McLean tells a pleasant ciency of the mode hitherto adopted in story of what occurred when he was Postthe election of Senators, but in justice to master General during the Administration those who may honestly differ upon this of President Monroe. The President wrote him a letter, recommending a cou-

The Whig Senators proposed some time ple of individuals for appointments in very

had died of their wounds

The weather still continued favorable, and rapid progress had b en made in securing the crops in the backward districts.

The total quantity of cotton consumed is cetimated at present at 50,000 bales, but it is supposed that the number will be increased when the exact quantity is ascertained.

It is also estimated that about 15,000 barrels of turpentine have been consumed by the fire, bcsides a large quantity of produce of various other descriptions.

The distressing calamity we are now recording has, however, been far more tragical in its results than the only event in the history of the town with which it can be compared. The loss of life, from the peculiar circumstances attending it, can never be satisfactorily ascertained, but we should not be surprised if, including the unfortunate persons at present in the Northern Hospital, and those buried beneath the ruins, all traces of whom will be forever swept away, before the removal of the burning materials-the number exceeded thirty.

It appears that a watchman named Barnard Coyle, who was employed to guard the premises of Mr. Peniston, bone grinder and drysalter, during the night, found that the fire had broken out in the engine-house precisely at 3 o'clock, the fire having been kept in all night to keep up the steam.

A fire-proof warehouse near the bottom of Formby street stood the effect of the flames surprisingly. Men were employed in hoisting buckets of water ints it to cool the walls, which, however, were by no means so hot as might be expected. The wall of the adjoining warchouse burned down against the gable end of the fire-proof building, formed a sort of protection from ignition by the immense pile of red hot cotton blazing against it.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 24. The market has continued heavy during the week, with no disposition on the part of the trade to increase their purchases, notwithstanding it is now understood that the operatives have very generally resumed work.

LATER. New York, Oct. 19th.

The Steamer Britannia, Capt. Hewitt, arrived at Boston yesterday morning a little before 7 o'clock, bringing London papers to the 3d of October and Liverpool to the 4th, both inclusive.

There are long stories in the London papersput forth, however, without much appearance of belief in them-about the existence of some secret association having for its object the murder of the Queen and Prince Albert.

Liverpool Cotton Markets.

Sept. 3) .- In the early part of the week there was a good demand from the trade, and, in conse quence of the decrease in the stock occasioned by ad per lb. ; this improvement was in many instances realized ; but since Monday the inquiry has been very limited, and the advantage proviously gained not supported.

LEEDS .- The markets at our cloth-halls still continue dull for cloths of all descriptions, the principal demand being for heavy tweeds, fancy cloakings, shawls and beaver cloths. Prices are stationary, and the stocks in the hands of the makers are unusually low. There have been a great number of drapers from the country in the market during the week, and in consequence there has been a little improvement in business in the warphouses. - Leeds Mercury, .

