RUSSEL PLACE ACADEMY

THE Trustees of this Institution take pleasure in announcing to its patrons and to the public generally, that they have secured the services of Mr. JOHN G. BOWMAN, as Principal, for another year. If any vouchers were necessary to one who has been so long known to the public as a well qualified and successful instructor of youth, they feel justified in saying that more than two years intimate acquaintance with Mr. Bowman, has convinced them that he has few equals in that most difficult of all tasks—training the youthful mind.

The classical and mathematical departments will be under the exclusive direction of the Principal. A competent Assistant will be provided to take charge of the English department.

EDUCATION.

CAMDEN ORPHAN SOCIETY ACADEMY.

THE Exercises of this institution will be continued, after the 1st of January ensuing, under the superintendence of Mr. HENRY P. HATFIELD.

In making this announcement, the Trustees take occasion to remark, and they do so, under a full sense of their responsibility, that in point of critical scholarship, and the facility and success with which he communicates instruction—thorough instruction—especially in the classics—Mr. Hatfield has few equals.

They therefore earnestly and confidently recommend the institution to all who duly appreciate the importance of a proper course of academic instruction.

MURRELL MEN.

100 DOLLARS REWARD!

STOLEN from the Subscriber on Sunday night last, a Negro man named Spence, eighteen or nineteen years of age, well made five feet eight or nine inches high, will weigh 140 or 145 pounds, very black, has a pleasing countenance, and a small scar on one of his cheeks. He wore off a linen coat and a drab hat, the crown of which had been drove down; but it is probable he will change his clothing, as well as his name.

He took with him a common sized four-year old Bay Horse, with a long mane and tail, and a very short and thin fore-top; one of his hind feet grey up to the ankle joint, and paces and racks well.

It is supposed the said Negro was carried as far as Camden, S. C. by the thief, and taken off to the west by an accomplice; or he may be concealed somewhere in North or South Carolina, until search for him is given up.

I will give the above reward for the delivery of the Negro and thief, with proof to convict him, or Fifty Dollars for the Negro and Horse. Any information may be addressed to me at Melroseville, Anson County, N. C.

JAMES P. HARRELL.
