Managers of Elections are required to pay special attention to the following portions of the law, relating to Elections: The names of voters to be regularly written as they vote, and the lists preserved.

If two or more tickets be found rolled up together, or more names be found written on any ticket than ought to be voted for, all such tickets not to be counted.

No voter shall be allowed to put in more than a single ballot or piece of paper in the same box or vessel; but a ticket is to be counted, though it contain fewer names than are to be voted for.

If any manager shall knowingly receive an illegal vote, or shall refuse to admit legal votes, or shall neglect or refuse to attend to the Election, or shall count the ballots before the proper time, or at any other than the proper place, he shall be liable to penal-
