TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF JAYNE, S FAMILY MEDICINES.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF JAYNE,S FAMILY MEDICINES.

J. W. Goodson, Bellevue, Ohio, says:—Your medicines sold have given very general satisfaction, and the demand is increasing. The Carminative Balsam is selling well.

D. Beaver, Winchester, Proble Co., Ohio, says:—Your Expectorant is getting very popular, and in face taking the place of all other medicines of the kind. Your Vermifuge is deservedly popular, as also your Carminative Balsam and Pills, and require no certificate to recommend them.

D. A. Barrows, Galena. Ill., June, 1845. Says:—I am out of your Vermifuge, and wish you to send me some as soon as possible, us I have calls for it every day.—also send me more Sanative Pills. I am also nearly out of Expectorant and Hair Tonie. I have sold considerably by the dozen.

Jesse M. Allen, Columbiana, Ohio, April I, 1845. says:—You will perceive that I have sold all your Vermifuge, and I may tell you that I have been out for a long time; with a great many calls for it. Your Vermifuge stands deservedly high as a worn medicine, and las uniformly been attended with good effect. Please forward as soon as possible.

Williams & Hayweod, Raleigh, N. C., June, 1845, says:—Send us a fresh supply of your medicines. Your Carminative Balsam is highly spoken of by all that have used it.

C. O. Wilson & Co., Portland, Me., Aug. 20, 1845, says:—We wisn you to send us some more of your Carminative Balsam. Your modicines sell rapidly this summer. The Balsam and Vermifuge give good satisfaction.

A. N. Williams, Parkersburg, Vu., says:—Your Carminative Balsam, I tried in the case of an infant of my own, afflicted with Diarrison and Hepatic derangement, with marked success.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3, 1847. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3, 1847.

From a sense of gratitude, and a desire that the afflicted may have resource to a truly invaluable medicine, I would state the benefit I have experienced from the use of Thomson's Compound Symp of Tar and Wood Naptha. For several years I have been afflicted with a distressing, racking cough, accompanied with great oppression and difficulty of breathing, with a sensation of tightness at the chest.—
Becomeing greatly alarmed, a friend who had been much benefitted by this medicine, recommended me to try it, I did so, and in a very short time every alarming symptom disappeared; my expectoration became free, all oppression left me, my cough ceased, and in a few daps I was able to go out and attend to my business a well man. Any further information will be cheerfully given the afflicted, by calling at my residence, No, 193 S. Front street.
