ILLNESS AND DEATH OF MR. POLK.—We find the following interesting details of the illness and death of Mr. Polk, in the Nashville True Whig of Tuesday last:

James K. Polk, late President of this Republic, died in this city, as we have had time to announce in our last, at about 5 o'clock on Friday evening last, the 15th instant, after lingering for about two weeks. His disease was of a chronic nature, having been troubled with it more or less for twenty-seven years; probably aggravated by the cholera epidemic which has been raging in this city for some time past. He retained his consciousness, we learn, up to almost the moment of his dissolution. We saw him at a period when his physicians considered his case very critical. He happened to be that we were going to Columbia, where his great old mother resides, and sent for us. Upon entering the room he asked us to take a seat by his bedside; he then proceeded in a very calm, deliberate manner, to say that the exhausted condition of his body was not alarming to him; that he felt satisfied that his earthly career was fast approaching an end; that he wished to send some word to his beloved mother, who was so well, as he understood, that it was probable she might not be able to come to see him; he spoke of her and other members of his family most affectionately; among other messages delivered in the same calm, resigned tone, he requested us to tell his mother, that should they not be permitted to meet on earth again, that he had an abiding hope that, through Divine mercy, they would meet hereafter.

Early in his sickness, we understand, he connected himself with Methodist Episcop. Church. A funeral sermon was delivered by the Rev. J. B. McFerrin, of that church, and his remains followed to their resting place by a large concourse of citizens. He was interred with Masonic ceremonies, having been a member of that fraternity.

CHARLESTON MEETING.—The following resolutions were unanimously adopted at the public meeting held in Charleston, on Thursday, to express the feelings of that community on the death of Mr. President Polk:

Resolved, That we deeply lament the decease of the late James K. Polk, a faithful public servant, whose official career is identified with the honor and renown of our country.

Resolved, That we shall ever revere his memory, and entertain unfeigned respect for the purity of his character, his republican simplicity, and his untiring zeal and devotion wherein the welfare of his country was involved.

Resolved, That we deeply feel for his affliction, and in this misfortune, and respectfully tender her our heartfelt sympathy in this her sudden bereavement.

The College Examinations ended last week and the Summer vacation of 3 months has commenced. Most of the young gentlemen have returned to their homes.

Telegraph of Monday.
We regret to state that information has been received that E. K. Anderson, Esq., of this city was accidentally drowned in Bear Creek Ten miles, on Saturday, the 15th instant.

DR. ROGERS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT AND TAR.

TESTIMONIALS.
Extracts from Certificates which can be seen in full by calling up the Agents.

Mr. A. L. Scovill—Having been afflicted with a most distressing Cough, until my Lungs became affected to such a degree that I was continually spitting blood; and being under the care of an able physician, without obtaining any relief, until I procured a bottle of DR. ROGERS' LIVERWORT and TAR, which restored me to health in a very short time.
(Cincinnati, Nov. 5, 1844.)

[From the Hon. Judge William Burke, late Postmaster of the city of Cincinnati for more than twenty years.]
The statement of Justice Finch is entitled to the fullest confidence of the public. I can fully corroborate what he has said, having used the medicine myself with the most decided benefit.
WILLIAM BURKE.
(Cincinnati, August 12, 1845.)

[From the Wife of Rev. George W. Maley.]
I have been afflicted with diseased lungs for several years; having tried Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar, and found great relief. I would recommend it to all who are suffering with diseased lungs.
SARAH MALEY.
(Cincinnati, August 12, 1845.)

The following certificate is one of the most distinct I feel constrained from a sense of duty to make the following statement, conscious that it may appear unprofessional. Mr. Charles Wade, of this city, was quite low with Pulmonary Consumption, and I had been treating with less than usual success. At his request, and that of his friends, I permitted him to try Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar; and I must confess that its effects were really surprising. After using the second bottle my lungs were discontinued, and he was soon restored to health. I do conscientiously recommend my brother practitioners to prescribe this remedy in all pulmonary complaints which baffle the ordinary mode of treatment.
WILLIAM J. RICHARDS, M. D.
(Cincinnati, Oct. 1st, 1844.)

Extract from a letter dated Jackson, Tenn. Oct. 26, 1843.
Dear Sir—I want you to send me one gross of Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar. I am entirely out of it, and have constant calls for it. The remarkable cure that it has made here, has made a great demand for it.
Yours, &c.,
R. W. HIGHTINGTON, Druggist.

We will now ask the afflicted to candidly examine the above facts, and say whether evidence stronger than this can be given in favor of any other medicine. The above testimonials are from persons of good standing, who can be seen and heard from; and from Physicians Professors who have experienced the benefits of this medicine, have come forward and conscientiously recommended it to be used.

Beware of Counterfeits and base Imitations.
