
Magazine? How many in the South will read Dr. Marks's volume instead of some Northern production ? We certainly forget that our minds are directed by the books we read. And can we expect our conntry to be all true-all sound in Southern principles-when our first principles are moulded by Northern authors ? Let us encourage a home Literature-a Southern Literature. The North read none of our books, and scarcely ever see our papers, while almost in every cottage and hamlet at the South, may be seen Northern books and periodicals. But to the Barhamville book. We have no hesitation in giving the palm to Semaiel. The plan of the poein is extremely simple-the centiment excellent. Many noble and spirit-stirring thoughts loom out, like light houses on the beach, which the traveller would stop a moment to gaze upon. The following, on page 78, we consider fine ;

" Lo the bold mountain bird, with sunward gaze, Through wise'ry tempests seeks its rock-girt home, Mounts from its eyrie, and with outstretch'd plume, Soars far above the threat'ning whirlwind's sway, The torrent's rush," &c. &c.

Again, p. 91: The spirit, speaking of death, says:

" Tis but a transit; for in yonder skirs, These effluent rays shall form a diadem A bright reflex of Deity itself. Next to eternal suffering, were to live Through an eternity of being here Upon this spot called earth," &c.

His Elfreide is all we would have her-the only fault is, he stops talking of her too soon. Like one in a pleasant dream, we wake before we would. But space will allow us to-comment no further. The book is before the public.

A friend has kindly furnished us with a letter received from John Mann, Esq., of Columbus, Ga., containing the following statement, which will, we presume, be interesting to our readers:

P. S. I give you a statement of receipts of cotton at this point, and stock on hand, as compared with last year, and to date; also receipts and stock in Florida:

Mr. Calhoun's Speech was not read on Friday. Mr. Butler, on Thursday 28th ult., made a request that the Senate would hear it on Monday, which was yesterday, to be read-Mr. Calhoun would be in his seat. It was with the greatest unanimity accorded. On the same day Mr. Bell, of Tennessee, introduced the following Resolutions as a compromise.

The first resolution admits the State of Colorado on an equal footing with the original States. This State is to be between the Colorado and the Trinity rivers.

The second proposition is to admit prospective-ly, as a State, the country between the Trinity and Rio Grande, and South of latitude 34 degrees. The third proposition is to purchase of Texas her claims to Territory South of 42 degrees and North 34 degrees. The line of 26 30, he argued, would be of no use to the South. What he proposed was all that the South could practically possess. Slavery could not go where it was unprofitable. The North would get at least ten more States from Mexico, Oregon, Canada, besides Nebraska and Minnesota. He did not think it expedient to embarraes this proposition with any provisions as to slavery in this District.

What want the South with Compromise when they have all to give-the North all to gave.

New York Fashions .- The Tribune says it sees sometimes in Broadway a fashionably dressed lady leading a moderate sized Italian grayhound, with a scarlet monkey jacket round his shoulders, and reaching to his middle. There are puppies of another kind here, quite as fantastic in their dress and who more resemble the monkey than in their jacket.

License Law in Wisconsin.-In Wisconsin, Mrs. Lovicy Keyser has recovered $100 damages of Joseph Heath for selling run to her husband, who got the delirium tremens. Liquor dealers in that State have, by law, to give bonds to pay for all injury growing out of their traffic.

THE SABLE MINSTRELS.

Messrs. Editors : Noticing in your last issue an inquiry about the "Sable Minstrels," in which you desire to keep " the run of things," I thought I would just drop you a line by way of informing you that some of our friends in Columbia are equally desirous to keep the run of men ; so much so, as I understand, as to run after and overtake them in Lexington, and there incarcerate them for forgetting to "pay the reckoning" in the former place. I hope they will not be detained too long, and that we may yet see and hear them.

X-P-DITIOUS. Yours, &c.

Corre . udence of the Baltimore Sun. WASHINGTON, Feb. 28, 1850.

Congress has never, perhaps, made so good a use of the first three months of a session as of this. They have done much to stem the current of fanat icism and ultraism that threatened to overwhelm the country. They have awakened the attention of the people to the danger of listening to, and putting confidence in, mere demagogues. They will before they terminate this remarkable session, adopt some measures that will strengthen, as well as widen, the foundations of our institutions.

There is no longer any question pending, but as to the best mode of securing a permanent and sat isfactory adjustment of the slavery question. All agree that it must be, and will be adjusted.

Every day we hear of some propositions-from the South, the North, and the middle-all founded on principles of equity, forbearance and justice. Mr. Berrien's proposition, if it finds favor with the South, as it certainly will do, cannot fail to be acceptable to the North.

To admit California and a new State from Texas, at once; to provide prospectively another new State from Texas, and give Territorial govern-ments where they may be wanted, would seem to meet every indication of public sentiment and pubic welfare.

The plan attributed, in the Northern papers, to Senator Dickinson, probably meant Mr.Kautman's Mr. Dickinson is in a favorable condition to offer a plan, and will do so, perhaps at a later stage of the roceedings.

Letters have been received here from inhabitunts of the Rio Grande, stating that they do not want slavery there—that it would be a costly and unproductive kind of labor, &c. This will proba-bly be the case north of the line of 34 degrees. The House takes business very easy. They adjourn after having two or three speeches. Gen.

Cleveland wished them, to-day, to swallow three before dinner; but more than two, they thought, would spoil their appetites, and they adjourned before three o'clock. Iox.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

ANAWAY or stolen, from my residence, on I Sawney's creek, Kershaw District, on Saturday night last, the 2d of March, a negro man named LEE, and his wife MARTHA. Lee is about 35. years of age, black, stout-built, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, a plausible, intelligent fellow. Martha about 33 years of age, light brown complection, about 5 feet 1 or 2 inches high, easy spoken, with one of her upper teeth broken off. They carried with them all their clothing, &c., which, from its quantity, leads me to suppose they must have been aided in their escape. I will give fifty dollars for proof to conviction that they were carried off by a white man, or fifteen dollars if they are lodged in JOHN WARREN, 18 jail, so I can get them. March 5.

The Faculties, for intellectual abilities, moral worth and professional acquirements, will compare fave rable with the most distinguished in our count The medical faculty constitutes an anomaly in this or any other country-all of them are able lecturers and the best of teachers.

Those who will contemplate our geographical position, and the extent of our population, can have no doubt as to the eligibility of our situation for an enterprise of the kind. As to health, including Camden. A failure in responding promptly to all seasons of the year, we deny that ANY OTHER CITY HAS MORE.

A common error exists in the minds of many students relative to the place of studying medicine; those who intend practicing among the diseases of the West and South should certainly educate themselves at a school whose faculty are practical. ly acquainted with those diseases.

The Hesperian Harp, A MUSIC BOOK IN PATENT NOTES. BY DR. WM. HOUSER,

Is the greatest work of the kind ever offered othe world. It contains 576 pages, and more than 700 tunes—Psalms and Hymn Tunes, Odcs and Anthems, Sunday School, Infant, Revival, Camp-Meeting, Missionary, Temperance, Moral, and Pat triotic pieces; Scotch, Irish, German, French, and other fine foreign tunes. Much new Music never before published; the noble old tunes that thrilled the hearts of our fathers and mothers in their youth, and one the plainest expositions of the principles of Music and of musical composition ever publish-It is specially suited to the taste of the Southed. and West, (the author is a Southern man in birth, education, and all his affinities) and is adapted to the Day School for children, the Singing School, the Church Choir of every denomination, the Missionary and Temperance Meeting, the proud gala days of our Republic, and the social party, where good sense and the love of every thing virtuous and poble should rule the hour.
