The Hesperian Harp,
A MUSIC BOOK IN PATENT NOTES,
BY DR. WM. HOUSER, Is the greatest work of the kind ever offered on the world. It contains 576 pages, and more than 700 tunes—Pealins and Hynn Tunes, Odes and Anthems, Sunday School, Infant, Revival, Camp-Meeting, Missionary, Temperance, Moral, and Pat triotic pieces; Scotch, Irish, German, French, and other fine foreign tunes. Much new Music never before published; the noble old tunes that thrilled the hearts of our fathers and mothers in their youth, and one the plainest expositions of the principles of Music and of musical composition ever published. It is specially suited to the taste of the South and West, (the author is a Southern man in birth, education, and all his affinities) and is adapted to the Day School for children, the Singing School, the Church Choir of every denomination, the Missionary and Temperance Meeting, the proud galadays of our Republic, and the social party, where good sense and the love of everything virtuous and noble should rule the hour.
