The Great Cough Remedy. VAYER'S

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION

In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, it is not our wish to trifle with the lives or health of the afflicted, but frankly to lay before them the opinions of distinguis led men and some of the evidences of its success, from which they can judge for themselves. We sincerely pledge our selves to make no wild assertions or false statements of its efficacy, nor will we hold out any hope to suffering humanity which facts will not warrant.

Many proofs are here given, and we solicit an inquiry from the public into all we publish, feel-ing assured they will find them perfectly reliable, and the medicine worthy their best confidence and patronage TPROF. CLEVELAND, of Bowdin College, Maine, Writes—"I have witnessed the effects of your 'Cherry Pectoral' in my own family and that of my friends, and it gives me satisfiction to state in its favor that no medicine I have ever known has proved so eminently successful in curing diseases of the throat and lungs." IF REV. DR. OSGOOD, Writes-"That he considers ' Cherry Pectrral' the best medicine for Pulmonary Affections ever given to the public," and states that "his daughter after being obliged to keep the room four months with sovere settled cough, accompanied by raising of blood, night sweats, and the attendant symptoms of consumption, commenced the use of the Cherry Pectoral and has completely recovered."

EF EX-CHANCEI LOR KING, of New York says: I have been a great sufferer with Bronchitis, and but for the use of the Cherry Pectoral might have continued to be so for many years to come, but that has cured me and I am happy to bear testimany to its efficary." From such testimony we ask the public to judge for themselves.

Hear the Patient.

Dr. Ayer-Dear Sir: For two years 1 was afflicted with a very severe cough, accompanied by spitting of blood and profuse night sweats .-By the advice of my attending physician I was induced to use your Cherry Pectoral, and continued to do so till I considered myself cured, and ascribe the effect to your preparation. JAMES RANDALL.

Hampden ss. SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 27, 1848. This day appeared the above named James Randall, and pronounced the above statement true in every respect.

LORENZO NORTON, Justice. The Remedy That Cures.

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 10, 1847.

Dr. Ayer : I have been long afflicted with Asthma which grew yearly worse until last autumn, it brought on a cough which confined me in my cnamber, 'ard began to assume the alarming symptoms of consumption. I had tried the best advice and the best medicine to no purpose; until I used your Cherry Pectoral, which has cured me, and vou may well believe me. Gratefully yours. J. D. PHELPS.

If there is any value in the judgment of the wise who speak from experience, here is a medicine worthy of the public confidence Prepared by J. C. AYER, Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold in Camden by J. R. McKAIN, and by Druggists and dealers generally throughout the State.

PURE AIR AND CLEANLINESSare now admitted to be the preventive of disease, at all times but more especially during the prevalence of that frightful scourge THE CHOLERA! It therefore becomes the duty of all to use every means accomplish this desirable result. During the prevalence CATAWBA SPRINGS.

LINCOLN COUNTY, N. C. THIS well-known Watering Place is again open This well-known watering Place is again open for the reception of company during the pre-sent season. The Springs having been recently repaired in a way which has rendered the water not inferior to any in the State. The sulphur pro-perty of the water is very little inferior to the celebrated Sulphur Spring, (Wilson's) in Cleveland county, N. C., independent of the other properties belonging to it.

Persons wishing to spend a few weeks or months of pleasure, will find a healthy country, good climate and much more convenient at this watering place than crossing the mountains.-The Spring is 24 miles North-west of Charlotte. Visitors from the South will find it best to come by way of Charlotte, crossing the Catawba river at Rozell's Ferry, or Beatie's Ford. THOMAS F. HAMPTON.

of this disease in 1832 and '31, champhor was extensively used on the person for the purpose of preventing contagion; but though a very useful article in many respects, it did not entirely accomplish the purpose, and there is no doubt but that

who used all the precautions known at that time. Many disinfecting agents are now recommended to the public: but none which are at the same time so agreeable and efficacious as JULES HAUEL'S AROMATIC VINEGAR, JULES HAUEL'S AROMATIC VINEGAR, which the proprietor can with confidence recommend to the public as possessing many virtues of which no other article can boast. It effectually counteracts all unhealthy mala-ria, and by its agreeable and reviving tragrance, renders the atmosphere so pure, that those using it may DEFY CONTAGION!

No person should be without this article at this time, as it is not the less agreeable than beneficial, and will supply the place of cologne or other perfumes. In sick rooms its beneficial effects will be especially fait, as its exceeding purifying principles have a direct tendency to prevent con-50 100 250 tagion, and by expelling all noxious effluvia, will materi-ally assist the invalid to a SPEEDY RESTORATION !

SPEEDY RESTORATION ! But it is also useful in many other ways. It is a desira-ble article for the toilet, and a most excellent cosmetic. It is an agreeable dentrifice and an excellent wash. It will instantaneously relieve headache, languor, faintness, rheu-matic pains, &c. It will strengthen the eyes and remove inflammation of the cyclids, and immediately relieves the pain and fatigue incident to excessive muscular exertion, and when used in the bath is productive of the happiest ef-cects. fects.

Persons visiting the sick, may be preserved from the ha-bility of contagion by inhaling the Aromatic Vinegar, and sprinkling a few drops upon their persons, before entering the room. It immediately dissipates the languor and ex-haustion consequent upon sea-sickness, &c. Be particular to ask for JULES HAUEL'S AROMATIC VINEGAR.
