THE THE PARTY OF THE THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

LAY OF THE WOUNDED HEART.

BY FRANCIS C. WOODWORTH. O chide me not for weeping, She's still the same to me, Though she has long been sleeping Beneath the willow tree. That name, so lightly spoken, Falls sadly on my ear— Deem not that Death hath broken A spell so strong and dear.

Can the cold grave e'er smother The heart's first, warmest flame? That heart enshrine another, And still love on the same? Say not she early perished. As flowers in autumn die: Say not the form I cherished Dwells where her ashes lie,

No-oft when tears are flowing, As tears are flowing now. And life's chill winds are blowing Fiercely upon my brow, That loved one, who before me Flew to her native sky, Is bending fondly o'er me, As in bright years gone by.

How thin the curtain hiding The spirit world from me! How off, like shadows gliding, That cherished form I see! My God! I thank thee ever, That friends so fond and true Not e'en the grave can sever, Or shroud from human view.

Now comes she near and nearer! Welcome, my spirit bride! Methinks she should be dearer Than e'en before she died. What though she has been sleeping Long neath the willow tree, Yet chide me not for weeping-She's still the same to me!
