THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. The following is the "constitutional amendment" referred to in the preceding bill:

Resolved by the Senate and House States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of both Houses concurring), That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by threefourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid as a part of the Constitution, namely:

ARTICLE .. SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States. Nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SEC. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to the respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to President and Vice-President or for United States Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number male citizens twenty-one years of age in that State.

SEC. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for service in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned, bnt neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States; or claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all amount of Cotton offering. The sales such debts, obligations, and claims were 446 bales. We quote the marshall be held illegal and void.

SEC. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

CHARLESTON, 21th February, 1867.

HE undersiged, having been appointed
Commissioner, has been instructed by His Excellency Governor Orr to organize the Bureau at the earliest possible moment. In a few days Agents will be appointed by the Governor to proceed to Europe, whose duty it will be to induce immigration to our State, to disseminate such information as may be furnished them of lands for sale or lease, and to engage such laborers, mechanics, servants and other help as may be desired by the inhabitants of the State. An Agent for the same object will, perhaps, be sent to New It would be desirable that all people furnish this Bureau, without delay, with in-formation how they desire to be served, indicating the kind of help they require and the wages which they are willing to pay; or a description of the lands they have for sale or lease, and their terms and conditions. If combinations can be formed in the several districts of the State for joint action, it would, perhaps, facilitate mutual operations; and where arrangements can be made to advance part of the passage money of the laboring immigrants, by accepted orders to that effect on any of the factors or merchants of Charles ton, it would no doubt greatly advance the result. If the people that favor this measure would meet at their respective Court-houses to consult, and indicate their wants, this Bureau would take great pleasure in serving their interest to the best of its ability. A pamphlet will be printed in several European languages for distribution, describing the capacities and advantages of our soil, climate, productions, etc., in which many particulars, that are promptly furnished, may be advertised. The means at the disposal of this Bureau being strictly limited, the kind assistance of the conductors of our public journals is respectfully requested,
JOHN A. WAGENER,

Commissioner of Immigration. All the papers in the State will pub-lish twice and send their bills to the Commisfeb 28-2.
