

POETRY.

From the New Orleans Sunday Times. TOWARD HOME. How shall you and I appear When our souls and bodies sever; Shall we live as we do here In the house of the Forever? Shall our spirits feel no tread, And our lives meet no disaster, When at last we come to tread On the floors of the Hereafter?

What high art shall serve to cheer When life's earthen bowl is broken; What hath Sense to conquer fear; What hath Hope for sign or token? Shall our love grow faint or fail, Or our friendship die of fasting, When we cross the shadowy vale To the halls of Everlasting?

Shall we clasp the friends we love, Harbor fond delights we cherish? Are dear hearts in want above For the hour when we shall parting, Shall rejoicing shouts arise, Echoed with a joy supernatural, In the grand and peopled skies, Through the corridors Eternal.

Shall we meet and shall we share Joys with dear ones here beside us? Shall there be no parting there? Whatsoever fate betide us; Will our beings overflow, Soon as we shall touch its shore, With delights we can but know In the land of Evermore.

All I ask brings forth as guests Angels without mental tasking; In what our desire suggests The thought answers to the asking, You and I from care and care, When we reach the golden portal, Shall each other's glory share In the groves of the Immortal.

Father loves us all below— Each as if an only child; Well the happy shore I know Where lowly lives unfolded; Well I know the happy shore— Flecked its waves with snowy laughter— We shall dwell to mourn no more In the homes of the Hereafter.

PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY'S COMPOUND ACID PHOSPHATE OF LIME

For Composting with Cotton Seed. This article is manufactured at the COMPANY'S WORKS, under the direction and superintendence of Dr. Ravenel.

It contains the same elements of fertility as SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO, except that it is not furnished with AMMONIA. It is prepared expressly for composting with cotton seed, which furnishes the element of AMMONIA; the object being to render that side product of the plantation available to the highest degree as an element of fertility. For further and particular information apply to the undersigned.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF MEMPHIS, TENN.

OFFICE: NO 291, MAIN STREET.

CAPITAL, $200,000 ASSETS, $800,000 All Invested at the South.

Encourage Southern Institutions.

This is a Southern Company, chartered by the Legislature of Tennessee, with a CAPITAL sufficient to make her reliable, beyond a question and doing a strictly LIFE INSURANCE Business and none other. Profiting by the experience of older Companies and having adopted the most liberal plans together with rigid economy in our management, our success has exceeded our greatest expectations and has placed the COMPANY in a permanent and reliable position. In its first two years we have issued between THREE THOUSAND and THREE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED POLICIES, and our accumulations amount to EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

GRAND COMBINATION OF THE TWO Leading Life Insurance Companies THE PIEDMONT AND ARLINGTON, Of Richmond, Va.

Assets, $1,500,000 Policies issued in two years, over 8,000

THE Officers of the above Companies beg leave to return thanks to the public for their very liberal support, having enabled them to make such rapid strides—meet with such solid success, and would inform them that for many reasons deemed politic and prudent, these two Companies have combined in one by the name above, and will in future issue policies as a new Company.

The Advantages of the Piedmont and Arlington. It is confined to LIFE INSURANCE, only, and does not mix with the uncertainty of other business.

The rights of Policy Holders will not be changed, but in every respect remain as though the old Companies existed. Renewals of old Policies will be on the name of new Company as authorized by respective Directors of "THE PIEDMONT AND ARLINGTON" and the rates and loans and rights of all remain intact as in old policies.

It has no useless restrictions on residence or travel; fully provides for the non-fulfillment of its policies and places all on fair equality as to occupation.

It has declared a dividend to its Policy Holders, the first fifteen months of 40 per cent and will pay dividend on ALL CASH POLICIES at the end of the first year.

The late war taught many the heavy penalty of being separated from the Home Office by the Companies forfeiting what had been paid and refusing to reinstate the policies. The PIEDMONT AND ARLINGTON provides against this IN HER POLICIES, and all who may, by any mishap or revolution, be separated from the Office, the right to reinstate policies within one year after intervening cause is removed, or to be ENTITLED TO SAME RIGHTS AS TO NON-FORFEITURE, AS THOUGH THE HINDERING CAUSE had never existed, at the option of the insured, so that no contingency can take from her POLICY HOLDERS their just rights. THIS IS DONE BY NO OTHER COMPANY.

It has paid all its losses promptly, without waiting for the NINETY days grace, and has never contested a claim.

Parties contemplating insuring, are requested to examine our policies and compare them with other companies before insuring.

The COMPANY has determined to establish a BRANCH OFFICE in SOUTH CAROLINA with President and Directors selected from Policy Holders of this State, which will give you all the advantages of a HOME INSTITUTION as all the Premiums received, will be left here and invested in your own State.

The "PIEDMONT AND ARLINGTON" issues Policies on the Ordinary Life, Ten Annual Payment, Five Annual Payments, Single Payment, Endowment, Joint Life, Children's Endowment, Return Premium, or any Table used by other Companies.

FINAL NOTICE.

ALEX. J. McDONALD, the old Judge of Probate, is very desirous to collect his out standing fees of office. It is not altogether that he truly wants them, but that he actually needs them. He has been waiting patiently with people year after year, crop after crop, and with some on broken promises until he has ultimately come to the conclusion that long continued and protracted indulgence ceases to bear the appellation of being termed a virtue. Personally, I will be on DeKalb Street until the last of November next. All or any in arrears with me for fees can call and settle their respective dues by cash, or if cash be not immediately at command, by giving a negotiable note for a short season. All my accounts not settled by the last of November, I will place them in the hands of legal officials for collection. Oct. 7. 7.

DISSOLUTION.

The Mercantile Copartnership heretofore existing under the name of CARTER & CHESNUT, has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Carter will close the business of the concern. E. J. CARTER, J. A. CHESNUT. Oct. 28. 4t.
