CAMDEN, MARCH 23, 1871.

New Hampshire. Following immediately upon the heels of SUMNER's deposition from the chairmanship of the Committee of Foreign Affairs, comes the intelligence that New Hampshire has gone Democratic in the late elections.

The friends fear less Connecticut may follow the good example this set. We regard it as an indication that the long looked for decomposition of the Republican Party has begun, and that a long, sectional hatred and injustice will cease, and the country restored to its true peace.

Those who have lived South during the last six troubles years, well know that the war has been kept up by our northern enemies, and that there has been no peace.

Even now in Congress, evil men, bent upon self aggrandizement, are endeavoring to throw the South back into a military despotism, and reconstruct into a second slave.

WENDELL PHILLIPS, frequently called the "rebel" President is elected next year, and the South will have no desire to secede again, or rise in revolution, the Northern should wait her with the beam of utter destruction, and leave not a now living white man.

What insanity, what infatuation, what fanaticism. We publish elsewhere, his entire article, but our people may know to what an insane degree, hate, nursed by fanaticism, can bring an otherwise sensible man.

By a rebel President, he means one of Democratic political opinion. To out molds the two are vastly different, and a Democratic victory in New Hampshire seems to be sufficient to frighten the "logician," as well as the other members of the party of great moral ideas.

Unfortunate Paris. The cable brings us information that Paris is in possession of an armed mob, who have instituted a reign of terror. Several distinguished generals have been killed or hurged, among whom are General THOMAS, and LECOMTE.

General PALADINES and CHANZEY are said to be prisoners at the insurgent headquarters. All persons of prominence are fleeing from the city. The German army have paused in their forward march, and will probably return to the city.

The horrible condition of things may be faintly imagined by reading the above, but the reality must exceed all else. It seems that a terrible visitation is being poured out upon France, and particularly upon Paris, long regarded as the center of civility and vice.

Encouraging Signs. The meeting on Monday last was one of the most encouraging evidences of the harmony and peaceful relations which exist between the peoples of the town. It shows that where there is mutual forbearance and kindness, and as long as no interposer or meddler interferes, the white and colored people can live in a manner which is pleasant to both sides.

Not for Joe. During the session of the late Peace Conference, while Governor SCOTT was receiving the delegation, JOE CREWS, deliberately walked into the Executive Chamber and took a seat by the side of General KERSHAW. The latter arose in a dignified manner, and said, "Governor, I will not sit in the same room with Mr. CREWS. Either he or I must retire." Joe gathered himself up and Ad for France. Americans! France is exhausted by this terrible war. Many of her people are starving and utterly destitute. Let us not forget her early recognition of American Independence, and the prompt and generous aid she then rendered to our struggling Republic, and let us now share with her from our abundance in this her hour of need.

"Hear the Cry that Comes Across the Sea!" Rallying song and chorus. Words and music by Geo. F. Root. Published by Root & Cady, Chicago.

This is right. It is no time to criticize later acts. France needs our help and should have it for humanity's sake, even if she had not held out the friendly hand when our days were dark. So we say our Chicago friends have done a proper and timely thing in issuing this song. It is stirring, and well calculated to arouse sympathy for the war-stricken peasantry, whose mute appeal is so touching. Let every singer in the land sing it, and there will be no lack of "food to eat" or "grain to plant".

TOWN MEETING. Nominations of Town Officers - Satisfactory to all Parties.

On Monday last, a meeting of the citizens of the Town was held, to consult as to the municipal election, which takes place on the first Monday in April next.

The meeting, organized by calling the meeting W. Z. Leitcher to the Chair, who requested John Kershaw, Esq., to act as Secretary. Mr. Kershaw then introduced the following resolutions which were adopted:

Resolved, That the meeting observe the following order of business: that nominations for the ensuing year be received, and a ballot be taken upon such nominations, and the one receiving a majority of the votes cast, be regarded the regular nominee of this meeting.

Resolved, That the same order be observed in reference to the nominations for Wardens of the said town.

Upon the first ballot Mr. James M. Davis was declared the nominee for Intendant.

After various ballots, the following were declared nominees for Wardens, in the order in which they were nominated: John Kershaw, George Crosby, Sam'l. Place, John R. Goodale.

The meeting then adjourned, all professed themselves satisfied, and we hope we may chronicle the election of the above ticket, without opposition on next Monday week.

Another Ku Klux Proclamation. From the Union Times we learn that the following order was posted on the advertising board in the town on Monday last:

HEADQUARTERS, NINTH DIVISION, DEPARTMENT NO. 3, K. K. K. "Ignorance is the curse of God." For this reason, we are determined that the members of the Legislature, the School Commissioner and the County Commissioners of Union, shall no longer officiate.

Fifteen (15) days notice from this date is therefore given; and if they, one and all, do not at once and forever, resign their present inhuman, disgraceful and outrageous rule—the retributive justice will as surely be used as night follows day.

Also, "An honest man is the noblest work of God." For this reason, if the Clerk of the said Board of County Commissioners and School Commissioners does not immediately renounce and relinquish their present positions—then harsher measure will be most assuredly and certainly be used. For confirmation, reference to the orders heretofore published in the "Union Weekly Times" and "Yorkville Enquirer" will more fully and completely show our intention.

By order of the GRAND CHIEF. A. O., Grand Secretary March 9, 1871. It is understood that the Sheriff and School Commissioners have tendered their resignations, under pressure of circumstances.

It is also stated that efforts are being made to have the Governor order an election to fill the vacancies. In the event of a new election being ordered there is scarcely a doubt, but that competent and respectable officers will be elected in the place of the vagabonds who have resigned.

From the Columbia Phoenix. UNITED STATES SENATE CHAMBER, Washington, March 18, 1871. SIR: Enclosed please find copy of a letter, written this day to the gentleman whose names are attached at the bottom; and, as a friend of good order, and one who, with myself, earnestly desiring the prosperity of our State and the return of peace and harmony, I desire you to publish in your valuable journal, and oblige, yours respectfully, T. J. ROBERTSON.

To Mr. Julian A. Selby, Columbia, S. C. UNITED STATES SENATE CHAMBER, Washington, March 18, 1871. GENTLEMEN: The disturbed condition of affairs existing in certain localities of our State has caused me the greatest concern.

Sincerely desiring the prosperity of our State and the happiness of all our people, I would consider it the most auspicious act of my life if I could be productive of any good as a pacificator. It is unnecessary for me to enlarge upon the terrible evils which threaten the State if the antagonisms of our society are not repressed.

My idea is that the true road to peace is by peaceful means; by justice and kindness to all classes, so that none may feel themselves alien from the Government. I am not sanguine of the effect of laws unless they are sustained by public opinion. My object, then, in addressing you is to ask your aid in arousing and concentrating the opinion of all good citizens in favor of law and order. Knowing your intelligence and good intentions, I venture, though not of the same political organization as yourselves to invoke your aid in the premises.

content would soon revisit our distracted State. Assuming you of my earnest desire to cooperate in this mission of peace, which is intended to secure the right of every citizen, I remain with the highest regard, your obedient servant. T. J. ROBERTSON. To Messrs. J. B. Kershaw, M. C. Butler, J. H. Rign, S. McGowan.

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1872. Wendell Phillips Acknowledges that a Democratic President is Virtually Elected.

A blow sometimes stuns a drunkard into sobriety. Possibly the insult offered and the peril brought to the Republican party by the removal of Mr. Sumner may have this effect on the nation. We may see loyal men of the North rally to the defense of the Union. If not, then there is but one thing more for Congress to do in order to avert the death-warrant of the Republican party, and possibly of the Union.

Let Congress now adjourn without authorizing martial law at the South to curb the Ku-Klux, and they have assured the election of a Democrat to the Presidency. Indeed, the mood of Washington in regard to the sanity of the South is such that we consider the matter about settled. The thirty-three Republicans who last week removed Mr. Sumner from his post—elected a Democratic President for 1872: Whether Grant will consent to run on a Democratic ticket is of course uncertain. Probably he does not himself know yet.

But evidently Butler's bill on the Ku-Klux is not likely to become a law. The same subversive that drive the Sumner matter stands ready to defeat that. Any substitute that reads Southern assassins to be tried by a jury of fellow-assassins is a mockery. Nothing short of shooting half a dozen Southern millionaires at the drumhead will awe the Ku-Klux into submission. There seems no likelihood of such vigorous either in Congress or at the White House.

The Senate Donaghy-sollat on Senatorial needs show that they belonged to a man who has entered on the course where Andrew Johnson perished: How far he intends to advance on that path-way he does not himself know. But the descent is fatally easy. We did not expect much from General Grant. But when he so unexpectedly arose to the level of statesmanship in the matter of the fifteenth amendment and of the Indians, we smothered all our doubts and gave him large confidence. The last few months, derided by this insolent interference with Congress, reveals the man. We persisted in believing that Mr. Motley was removed for adequate cause until Mr. Secretary Fish's clumsy letter dispelled the illusion. That set, seen in the light of this attack on Mr. Sumner, was evidently dictated simply and solely by spite toward the great Massachusetts senator. James the First, said, when he came to London to mount his throne and found only blundering officials, "they have given me a secretary who cannot write and a speaker who cannot speak." Grant is understood to be in the same affliction. And the Massachusetts renegade who helped Mr. Fish to his boyish rhetoric did his work so poorly that he betrayed the secret, and let the world see that, after six months' incubation, the department could not hatch a decent excuse. Just as that discreditable net was flung away into oblivion comes this usurpation, which puts the present Executive into the company of Jackson's bank intriguers and Johnson's attack on Stanton.

The revelation it makes of the servility of the Senate is disheartening to all lovers of free government. Every man knows that each senator who voted for Mr. Sumner's removal did so solely because the President had let him understand that only on that condition could he hope to have any influence at the departments in securing office for his friends. We tell only what is an open secret at Washington. Politicians there, attitudinizing on the floors of Congress, use words in a Ptolemaic sense and various base acts with comely phrases. But it is fit the people should know the plain truth. The President has bought off his opponents by refusing all winter to listen in the matter of appointments, to the recommendation of any member of Congress who voted with Mr. Sumner. The only excuse individual Congressmen make for changing their votes is that to be ignored at the departments; when asking offices for their supporters, is death to their political hopes. If Santo Domingo is annexed, Grant secures it by threats and bribes. The poorest memory will need but little effort to recall the very embassy that bought a Keystone vote, the judiciousness which won a Wolverine, and the herding post—that made another senator put on the Domingo collar. Of course, when a party becomes merely a "ring" to divide the spoils it touches its downfall. It is sad to think that the power of a great party should have fallen into the hands of such low, mercenary selfishness. It is sad that we can oppose to outlaw assassins at the South, banded together, mercilessly and at every sacrifice, for at least a great object—secession—that we can oppose to them only a gang of Swiss, shamelessly exhibiting themselves for sale to the highest bidder. And so cheated of half our gains, betrayed in the hour of our friends, we must rally for another such fight as that which crushed Davis and bled Johnson. To prevent the choice of a Democratic President may be impossible. But our effort must go deeper than that. We must begin to educate the people into the determination that if, encouraged by a rebel President, secession ever lifts its head again, at the South, the North will sweep rebellion with the beam of utter destruction, and leave it no ruler but the sword until every now living white is in his grave.
