 PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY
T. W. PEGUES & SON.
 CHURCH DIRECTORY.
 Methodist Church—Rev. A. J. STOKES, Pastor
 101 A. M. and 81 P. M.
 Presbyterian Church—Rev. S. H. HAY, Pastor
 101 A. M. and 6 P. M.
 Episcopal Church—Rev. J. STEINFORT KIRBY, Pastor
 101 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Public Meeting.
 We are requested to state that the Hon. STEPHEN GAREY will address his constituents at Town Hall on Friday June 2d.—White and colored citizens are invited to attend.

Change of Schedule.
 We are informed that hereafter, except on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays, the mail train will arrive here at 5 1-2 o'clock P. M. This will give us the mails by 6 1-2 o'clock, and enable business men to reply to letters the day of their receipt. This is certainly a great improvement.

The Market.
 We understand that it is the intention of Council, to place doors of lattice work in the various entries to the market, having them all permanent except two, for convenience of ingress and egress. By this arrangement, beef and other meat can be put in the market over night, and will be under the superintendence of the police of the Town.

Sunday School Pic Nic.
 On Thursday last, the children of the Methodist and Presbyterian Sunday Schools, and their invited guests, enjoyed the frolic of a pic nic, at the Hermitage Plantation, about two miles from Town. They went down and returned by rail, and on all accounts, had a merry time.

Among the Trial Justices.
 On Saturday last, Trial Justice SCHROCK, tried Tom Fair, Augustus Levy, Willis Richardson and William McWille, who were arraigned for cow killing. They plead "not guilty," but the evidence was too strong, and three of them were sent to jail, for thirty days, while the fourth was discharged, there being no proof that he was implicated.

On Tuesday, Alex. Johnson, was tried for stealing corn, "petty larceny," and after a hearing, was sent to the common receptacle for the space of thirty days.

Hung.
 Edom Hammond, sentenced to be hung, suffered the extreme penalty of the law at Lancaster C. H., on last Friday, 19th inst., for the murder of David Kirkpatrick.

Our State Exchanges.
 THE CHESTER REPORTER.—After a short suspension, this popular Journal has been revived by E. C. McLENE, Esq., formerly one of its editors, and now sole proprietor. We most heartily welcome its re-appearance.

THE DARLINGTON INDEX.—We have received the first and second numbers of a newspaper with the above title published at Darlington C. H., by Messrs. LILES & WESTBURY. It is quite a handsome sheet, well edited and we hope will meet patronage commensurate with its merits.

THE YORKVILLE ENQUIRER.—Offers to pay $300 for original stories for its columns. For full particulars as to length of stories, time when they may be delivered, &c., address L. M. GRIST, at Yorkville, S. C.

See advertisement of D. W. JORDAN.

DIED—In Camden, S. C., on the 8th instant, MRS. M. youngest daughter of Adolph and Susan Wittkowsky, aged one year, two months and two days.

The Lamented Thos. J. Warren.
 Our contemporary, the Camden Journal, brings us intelligence that the sacred dust of the lamented Thomas J. Warren has been brought from Gettysburg, where he fell with his face gallantly to the foe, and deposited in the bosom of his own dear native soil, in defence of which he gave his life as a sacrifice.

We make the record with melancholy pleasure. We knew him well, and we know that no more unflinching, self-sacrificing or heroic son of South Carolina buckled on his armor, or mingled in the smoke of her battles, than was the gifted Warren.
 Descended from his revolutionary ancestor, of the same name, he was deeply imbued with the same spirit—the same love and devotion to the country—the same inflexible will and high-souled bearing—the same determined bravery, which knew no faltering, while the vital spark remained. We honor his name—we love and reverence his memory. And may his ashes sleep in peace, where each recurring year, the loved ones of home may bestow their grave with the fairest flowers of spring.

Southern Baptist Convention.—In the Southern Baptist Convention, Monday, the 15th instant, a resolution was adopted recognizing the Theological Seminary at Greenville, S. C., as worthy of the highest approval, and pledging the united and cordial support of the members and officers.—A new board was nominated and confirmed. The afternoon session was mostly occupied in discussing an amendment to the constitution offered by Rev. R. H. Graves, of Memphis, excluding all but members of their own denomination from sitting in convention.—It was finally laid over. On the following day the convention concluded its sessions.—The attendance was small; many delegates were sight-seeing about the city and suburbs and some started for Chicago to attend the Baptist Church North.—The convention adjourned to meet in Raleigh, N. C., in May next.

A NICE STATE OF AFFAIRS—THE SHERIFF REFUSES TO RECEIVE ANY MORE PRISONERS IN THE COUNTY JAIL—STARVATION IN PROSPECT.—Sheriff Mackey has addressed the following card to the Trial Justices. It is about time that the statements he makes were investigated:

I am constrained to notify you that on the 25th day of the present month I shall cease to receive any prisoners at the Charleston Jail. The county authorities being eight months in arrears of payment due this office for the detaining of prisoners, and also being indebted to me in a large amount for services rendered during the past year in criminal cases, and as I cannot even procure checks upon the County Treasurer for my current accounts, and as such checks if procured would not be paid by the Treasurer, I am unable to obtain the necessary subsistence for prisoners, of whom there are already a large number in jail, and neither the law of the State, or my own sense of humanity would warrant me in starving them. I have no discretion, therefore, having exhausted every other resource but to refuse to receive prisoners until I am paid pursuant to law for detaining them. I deem it proper to add, that in response to my enquiries, I have learned that I cannot obtain any money from the county for an indefinite period—at least for many months to come, and perhaps never. Hence, I have no alternative but the course that I have reluctantly decided upon. I would continue to receive prisoners if the minds of dealers in provisions could be disabused of the very common prejudice among them that they should be paid within a reasonable time for the supplies that they furnish, or if they could be induced to supply provisions on the credit of the county, or take county checks in payment of their bills.

I shall be very happy to have my action in the premises brought under judicial review, and trust that I will there obtain a legal decision, which may furnish some remedy for the great embarrassments to public officers incident to the existing administration of the fiscal affairs of the county. If there is a remedy for this wrong, I hope that the action I am compelled to take will speedily invoke its application.—Chas. Courier.

HORACE GREELY AT THE SOUTH.—The American Union Club entertained Horace Greely last night (18th). He made a speech in which he said: "This is my first visit to the South. I come here with a heart devoted to the good of the people. They are not my enemies now who were six or eight years ago. I bear no hatred to no one." He went on to say that he believed the best men should occupy the best places, without any reference to by-gones. The peril which necessitated the exclusion of some men from the ballot box no longer exists. He opposed disfranchisement as no longer necessary, and that the right to vote should not be taken from the land now had a general amnesty been passed five years ago. It would have united the people and healed the wounds produced by the war. For that he struggled, and thought the time was not far distant when every American would have his fair say at the ballot-box, and the majority rule.

DEATH OF JOHN CAMPSEN.—It becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mr. John Campsen, one of the most prominent of our German fellow-citizens. Mr. C. was born in North Germany, in the vicinity of Bremen, and came to this country when quite a youth. When the Palmetto Regiment was organized to take the field in Mexico, he became a member of that gallant band. He took part in several battles, and in one was severely wounded. After his recovery, he commenced business in this city, first in an humble way, but by dint of industry, economy, energy and business tact, he gradually enlarged his field, till he became one of the prominent merchants of Charleston. He was a public-spirited citizen, and brought the same energy and industry to bear upon any public enterprise entrusted to his care that he habitually did to his private affairs. He was a member of many of the German societies, and at different times had held many offices. He was a strong, frank, large-hearted and generous, and his loss will be seriously felt. Mr. Campsen was about forty-two years of age, and leaves a wife and several children to deplore their irreparable loss.

VICTOR HUGO'S PROPHECY.—In 1848 Victor Hugo wrote a prophetic article on the subject of the two forms of Republic in France which were agitated by their respective partisans. His vision of the Republic of disorder applies with singular force to the present Commune. "Two Republics are possible," he wrote. "One will lower the trio color beneath the red flag; will coin large coins from the column," (of Vendome), "will throw down the statue of Napoleon," (from the column of Vendome), "erect a statue to Murat; will destroy the Institute, the Polytechnic School, and the Legion of Honor; will add to the august device: Liberty, Equality, Fraternity, the sinister option; or Death; will make bankruptcy, ruin the rich without enriching the poor; *** will abolish property; *** fill the prisons with suspected individuals; *** destroy the arts, and deny God." Has the prediction been fulfilled?

THE PARIS COMMUNE.—M. Lemoine, the fugitive editor of the Journal des Debats, is giving through a Brussels paper, an account of the persons holding authority at present in Paris. He represents the Communal chiefs to be the scum and off-scourings of all nationalities, who have gathered in Paris and seized the helm. The names, he observes, are those of foreigners, and strange foreign names at that. The French have little or no part in the horrible proceedings. There is no doubt but that the strange and unpronounceable names that bear sway are aided by French masses; some under compulsion, and others for bread and pillage. These last are represented as destitute of all love of country—all sense of patriotism—miscible creatures, impelled by the necessities of the moment, or the anarchical idea that all national limitations are mischievous absurdities. In this connexion he refers to the International Society, which threatens the subversion of all the governments in Europe.

Hon. James Chesnut delivered a lecture last week before the Cheraw Lyceum. His subject, "Never Despair," seemed peculiarly appropriate to the present time. The Democrat speaks in the highest terms of the lecture.

I beg leave to call the attention of the reader to testimonials in favor of the Schnapps: I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events it is the purest possible article of Holland gin, heretofore unobtainable, and as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D., Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 1.—I feel that we have now an article of gin suitable for such cases as that remedy is adapted to.

Dr. J. W. BRIGHT.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc.: I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it.—Having a natural tendency to the mucous surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant.

CHAS. A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

26 PRINCE STREET, N. Y., Nov. 21, 1867.—Udolpio Wolfe, Esq., Present: Dear Sir: I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the "Schiedam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, (Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

CHEMICAL AND TECHNICAL LABORATORY, 18 EXCHANGE PLACE, NEW YORK, NOV. 25, 1867.—Udolpio Wolfe, Esq.: Dear Sir: The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination we consider the article one of superior quality, healthful as a beverage, and effectual in its medicinal qualities. Respectfully yours, ALEX. TRIPPEL, Chemist, FRANCIS E. ENGELHARD M. D.

Travellers are always liable to sudden attacks of Dysentery and Cholera Morbus, and these occurring when absent from home are very unpleasant. The Paris Kinase may be relied upon in such cases. As soon as you feel the symptoms, take one teaspoonful in a gill of new milk and molasses and a gill of hot water, stir well together and drink hot. Repeat the dose every hour until relieved. If the pains be severe, bathe the bowels and back with the medicine clear.

In cases of Asthma and Pithisic, take a teaspoonful in a gill of hot water sweetened with molasses; also bathe the throat and stomach faithfully with the medicine clear.

Dr. Sweet says it takes out the soreness in cases of bone setting faster than anything he ever applied.

Fishermen so often exposed to hours by having their skin pierced with hooks, and fins of fish, can be relieved by bathing with the Pain Killer as soon as the accident occurs; in this way the anguish is soon abated; bathe as often as once in five, say three or four times, and you will seldom have any trouble.

The bites and scratches of dogs and cats are soon cured by bathing with the Pain Killer clear.

 Price at Factory in Baltimore, $55.00 per Ton, and will be sold here at that price with freight added. Several of the most successful planters in the neighborhood consider it equal, if not superior to the Peruvian Guano, of which so much has been said. The following named gentlemen are referred to as knowing its merits: Col. W. M. SHANNON, Maj. JOHN CANTEY, Col. R. M. SIMS, and others.

This Fertilizer combines EXCELLENCE and CHEAPNESS; is equal in its results to Peruvian Guano, and of more permanent benefit to the soil.

It matures the crop three to four weeks in advance, and greatly increases the yield.
