LEAVING .- Messrs. W. J. Gerald and Mannes Baum have left for New York.

WHY IS THIS THUS ?- A man can go to Sumter and return the same day, yet the fact is that letters frequently are four days on the road, some where between here and there. Can our neighbors explain ?

REBUILDING .- The colored Baptist church blown down by the late gale, is in process of reconstruction. A substantial fence has been put around the premises, which will prevent a good deal of stealage, which could not otherwise be prevented.

A WISE CHOICE -Alfred Alexander, colored, convicted of assault and battery, be-Trial Justice Sutherland, was sentenced to pay ten dollars fine and costs or ten days in jail. He was allowed a week to give security for the fine and costs, at the end of which time he returned and announced his intention of boarding at the public expense rather than pay the fine. He voluntarily went to jail and delivered himself up to the jailor. .

OMISSION .- In our notice of the Sabbath School Convention we omitted to say that Messrs. A. M. Kennedy, W. L. DePass and and J. R. Goodale, were appointed a Com- sheet. mittee to visit Ebenezer in the morning and Smyrn in the afternoon, on the Western side of Wateree, on the first Sabbath in next month. The Committee intend to visit all the Churches on the West side of Waterce.

THE FIRST BALE .- The first bale of the new crop m. de in this county, was sold on Tuesday by Mr. Wiley Brannon, the owner, to Messrs. J. & T- I. Jones, at 221 cents per pound. It was classed as "strict middling."

Mr. Geo. B. McCutchen, of Sumter County, brought a bale of new cotton to town on Wednesday, and sold it as "strict middling" to Messrs. W. C. Gerald & Co , at 191 cents.

THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE:-It is a source of congratulation to all friends of this noble order, to know that since its reorganization here, some two months since, more than forty members have taken the pledge of total abstinence, and enrolled themselves among the champions of Temperance. At every meeting candidates to the number of five or six, come forward and join the Division, among whom are many young and not a few elderly men. The subject is worthy of deep and thorough thought upon the part of every man, and we trust that all will consider it as one of vast importance and consequen-

STILL MOVING UP .- The Town Council have been petitioned by Mr. R M. Kennedy and Messrs. Hodgson & Dunlap, for permission to move their stores to the lot where stands the ruins of the Episcopal Church, destroyed by fire in 1867, just below the Kershaw House, and a few doors below De-

The town has been moving northward for many years. Ever since the fire of 1829 its progress thitherward has been more marked. By that fire, the greater part of the business portion of the town was destroyed, and in rebuilding, lots higher up the street were selected. The work of removal will be commenced at once, as it will be the endeavor of these gentlemen to open their fall stock in their new location.

LOOK OUT OXEN .- Our freedmen and cheir oxen are begining to find out that they have taxes to pay as well as the "white folks." Nearly every day, two or three unfortunates find their oxen levied upon, and taken to a place of safety, by the Deputy Treasurer, but the oxen have evidently got wind of the matter, because on Monday, one of them, seeing the Deputy coming his way, broke and ran, as hard as he could drive, right up Main street but was overhauld and captured after a short chase. We wonder whether, the poor colored men do not, begin to think that their professed friends been telling some huge fictions, for the last three or four years, just to get their votes? We could expatiate immensely upon this subject, but we have done it so often, with so little effect, that we n ow forbear.

received a copy of a pamphlet entitled "Confederate Memorial Day at Charleston, S. C. Reinterment of the Carolina Dead from Gettysburg." It contains an Address by Rev. John L. Girardeau, D. D.; Prayer by Rev. John Bachman, D. D.; Ode by Dr. J. .Dickson Bruns; a Poem by Rev. Edward R. Miles; Ode by Rev. C. S. Vedder, and a list of South Garolinians who fell at Gettysburg, whose remains have been received by the Ladies' Memorial Association of Charleston, S. C. Of these, seventy-seven were received and reinterred in the bosom of their beloved Carolina. Thirty-nine of the 2nd S. C. V., ten of the 3rd, ten of the 15th, four of James' (3rd) Battalion, four of the 8th, four of the 7th, and one from Rhett's Battery; total of Kershaw's Brigade, sixtyone. Of the rest, four were of the 13th Regiment, three of the 1st, three of the 14th, two of the 12th, one of the 21st, one of the 22nd, and one not marked.

Among the names we see those of Captain Thomas J. Warren, of Camden, and the modest, youthful and gallant officer, Captain Joseph P. Cunningham, of Liberty Hill, and many others whose memory and worth are yet green and unfading in our hearts. Upthe whole this is a valuable and interesting record, and well worth preservation by those whose hearts are yet true to the heroic dead -martyrs to a pure and holy cause.

The pamphlet is sold gratuitously by Dr. James A. Young, for the benefit of the Ladies' Memorial Association. Price 10 cents.

WHO IS MOST SOLD .- On Saturday, the Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue sold the telegraph line from Camden to Kingville for $60 to Uncle Sam." This is a very heavy bargain, for the owner may be said to own thirty-eight miles of property, which is worse than the elephant. Mr. Witherspoon, as whose property it was sold, has, we understand, receipts against the tax under which it was levied upon." "Who will pay the taxes now,, to the popular air of "Who will care for mother now.") The telegraph line is the property of the Citizens and Town of Camden and Mr. Witherspoon is only acting as the agent. These are the facts, as we learn from a reliable citizen.

AN OLD SOLDIER .- From a friend we have received the Ulster County Gazetle (N. Y.) Saturday, January 4, 1800, containing an account of the entombment of General George Washington, at Mount Vernon, and the ceremonies of the occasion. It is a venerable

DEATH OF MR. SAMUEL SHIVER .- This community has lost one of its ancient landmarks, by the decease of Samuel Shiver, which occured on the morning of the 19th inst, at half-past five o'clock. He had been suffering very much from a severe carbuncle for some time, as well as another disease, and finally weakened until he died. His funeral was very largely attended by both white and colored, showing the estimation in which he was held by the community. The services were performed at the Baptist Church, by the Rev. S. H. Hay, assisted by the Rev. A. J. Stokes, in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. A. K. Durham. They were very solemn and impressively rendered, especialy since it was pointed out that, within a few days, two very sudden deaths had occurred in this small community, and how it was thus sure "that in the midst of life, we are in death." A large concourse followed the body to the grave, where it was deposited in the family enclosure. One by one our old citizens, are departing, each leaving a vacauum hard to be

A colored female blackslider from the church, died last week for the want of attention, it is thought. # OBITUARY.

HENRY C. ROBERTS WAS born on the Hills of Santee, near Statesburg, S. C., August 29th, 1805, and married to Miss Emily Thomas, of Campen County, Ba., November 25th, 1831, and died in the town of Campen, S. C., August 8th,

In early life he was the subject of religious impression. When a young man he boarded with his aunt, Mrs. Mathis, a pious member of the Methodist R. Church, at those house he also enjoyed the pious influence of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Betts. Mrs. Betts manifested a deep interest in his spiritual welfare. Her godly counsel, coupled with her meckness and gentleness under af-fliction, (for she was an invalid and a great suf-ferer,) impressed him with the reality and consummate importance of religion. On one occa-sion, while she was repeating to him the 9th verse of the 189th Psalm, he was deeply moved. These impressions assumed a definite shape during a prayer meeting at his boarding house, and he hen resolved to connect himself with the M. E. Church, but for some cause unknown to us, he lid not do so then. Soon after this time he so entirely lost his sense of hearing as to be unable to communicate with men without artificial means; he therefore sought their society less, and the companionship of books more. Posses-sing a remarkably retentive memory, he became well informed on the subjects of general interest. In his gene.al reading he did not neglect the Bible, and he often surprised his friends with the facility with which he could quote or refer to any needed passage of scripture.

Though he could not hear, yet he sometimes attended the house of God in company with his wife. He was remarkably reticent about himself, but some time before his last illness he ex pressed at length to his wife his views of the future, and assured her that he was at peace with God and man. He was a man of strong character, and was firm in all his convictions. Though his strong will rebelled against cocreion, he could be led by the silken thread of kindness. Though he was of a stern nature, he was suscep tible of the tenderest sympathy. He was noted for his business integrity. In his life he commanded the respect and esteem of those who knew him, and was sincerely lamented in his death. He has left an invalid widow, whom we commend to the sympathics and prayers of his numerous friends. A. J. STOKES.

We offer in the Piedmont and Arlington a solid and reliable Insurance Company, thoroughly

Southern, in the hands of men of the highest integrity, with abundant assets, recent risks, the most secure of all investments, pledged to retain within the State of South Carolina all funds accruing therein, and, indeed, presenting every advantage that can be desired.

We confidently appeal to every one interested in Southern prosperity to look to their own interests by sustaining their own institutions, and thereby establish that self-confidence without which there can be no permanent prosperity. Bear in mind that already over $10,000,000 are annually sent North for Life Insurance, taking so much from our strength and thereby giving additional parameter our competitors.

Right of party to non-forfeiture in all its politics. Rights of party to re-instatement paid up policy, and surrender value where "intervention of armies" or any other cause cuts the insured off from home office. This feature, omitted in policies of Northern companies, cost the Southern people very heavily in the late war, and should make them seek the only company that provide against such contingency in the future.

From an official exhibit, it is shown that the Piedmont and Arlington had a greater increase of business in 1869 over 1868 than any company on this continent. It shows that there were only three companies in the United States that issued more policies; also, that, with their accumulated risks of fifteen or twenty years all combined, this company, though young, stands twentieth in amount of risks in force.

This exhibit, among over a hundred companies, makes the Piedmont and Arlington the leading Life Insurance Company, at least of this country. It shows, not only progress, but caution at economy—its losses being light, its expenses small.
