

A Chapter from the Tribune. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Yorkville, S. C., makes the remarkable statement:

I think it was Wendell Phillips who said, "Scratch a Southern gentleman and you'll find a Ku Klux." In this up-country of South Carolina "scratch a white man and you'll find a Ku Klux" would be a better paraphrase. I doubt if there are one hundred able-bodied white men in this county who have not been initiated into the order. It embraces boys of 16 and gray-beards of 60. I have seen a grandfather, father and son come together to avow themselves members. All classes were included. The Land proprietor and the poor "crackers" on his estate rode together in the midnight raids. Doctors, lawyers, merchants, teachers and preachers put on the white shroud-like gowns, and the horrid red horned hoods and masks of the Klan, and went out by night to take negroes from their cabins and beat them with clubs and cowhides until the lacerated flesh was cut to the tendons and bones, and for no other offense than daring to vote the Radical ticket, or keeping a shotgun, or not taking off their hat to white men. These chivalrous gentlemen pulled negro women from their beds and made them dance naked for the amusement of the spectators, beating the victims with ramrods to quicken their steps, and forcing them to submit to other outrages too revolting for description. These brave and honorable South Carolinians thought it daring and manly to go 50 strong to attack one negro in his lonely cabin in the woods, and to hang him to a tree in sight of his wife and children—exulting, as they returned from this nightly exploit, in the fact "the damned scoundrel would never make any more Radical speeches."

This a sample of the kind of letters which go to the Northern press for publication, to be read by their thousands of subscribers and readers. It gives a picture too horrible and revolting to be believed by any sane creature who knows the Southern people. Yet many men at the North will take it as pure truth and imagine that we are very demons and savages. Yet how different will be the picture when these men who have been arrested, are tried before the tribunals of justice. Then it will be seen how these people have been slandered, how innocent men have been cast into prison, their families dependent upon their earnings for bread left in a destitute and starving condition. If ever there was a time in the history of this Government, when men should blush to be called citizens of the United States, that time is the present. If the opponents of a Republican form of government desire a spectacle which will show the world the true condition of the South, let them send the accompanying gift of unlimited power to an irresponsible man like Grant, that spectacle is furnished now, in South Carolina.

It is doubtful, in our estimation, if many of the alleged Ku Klux will be tried at the approaching term of the Court. The object of Grant is not to bring the parties to justice, but to further his reelection by causing a false notion of the condition of things at the South, to get abroad.

If what this correspondent says is true about white citizens of the up-country, then it is a remarkably strange thing that among those arrested for Ku Kluxism, in York, there are no less than eleven colored men. This gives the direct lie to the Tribune man, and shows that his capacity for scribbling is exceeded by that for lying. Time will vindicate us.

We have ever condemned these Ku Klux operations and will continue to do so, but we prefer to await the developments that we hope will be made before the courts, rather than to trust to the prejudiced penning of men whose pens are dipped in gall, whose bosoms rankle with hatred and whose souls have been bought by the father of lies, by the aid of the almighty dollar.

What are you going to do about it. From most of the New York papers, we glean accounts of proceedings going to show a large increase of the State debt. There are various suspicious circumstances attending the discovery of this seeming fraudulent increase of debt, which seem to us to demonstrate that the Radical Ring has been on the lookout for some time and are not surprised that it should be now discovered. At the time of the session of the Tax-payers Convention, Gov. Scott reported the debt of the State to be about $8,000,000. Some time later, writing to Senator Scott, he reported it to be $9,528,564. Now, however, it is admitted by Scott & Co., that there have been printed of bonds $20,040,000, of which there have not been issued $9,000,000. Leaving a total issue of $11,040,000. Scott says that three and a half millions of sterling bonds have not been issued, which will leave out of the six millions authorized, $2,500,000. Of registered stock, there have been issued $2,540,000. Making a total issue, if we mistake not, of $16,080,000.

But if we understand the card of Scott, Parker & Dennis, published in the New York papers, and are incorrect in placing the debt at sixteen millions, then we return to Scott's statement of Sept. 20, in which he places the debt at $9,528,564. Add to this the amount mentioned by them on their card as issued $5,040,000, and we reach the result that the State debt is $14,568,564. According to the last Governor's Message the debt was $7,665,908.98 and by subtracting this from the total above reached it will be seen that the State debt has been increased, in one year $6,902,655.02, or in other words, that it has nearly been doubled, and taking our first estimate, that it has been increased by about eight and a half millions of dollars.

The New York financiers have been endeavoring to fathom the secret of this over issue, but with no success, or very little. We have tried to fathom it, for the last three years, with no better success, and there is little reason to hope that any explanation will be vouchsafed at the approaching session of the Legislature, which will be at all satisfactory to the intelligent people of the State. What is our remedy? We are not in a condition to repudiate any portion of the debt, because we have no control over affairs, and we do not know that repudiation would be of much benefit to us. We have no "Committee of Seventy" to undertake the necessary investigation, for no access would be allowed to any Committee except one which would do the whitewashing for the concern, and if New York sharpers failed to fathom the mystery, it is unlikely and improbable that we could. The only hope is in the people, that they rise to the emergency of the occasion and seek to redeem the State by filling her offices with honorable men, with the next election; that they rise above party and prejudice, and join together to overthrow iniquity and crown honesty and honor.

With County and State, in fact, bankrupt, unable to meet their liabilities, it is time that something was being done to wrest ourselves from the grasp of the vultures who are feeding upon our vitals, the Harpies who are sucking the very life blood of the State.

The S. C. Agricultural and Mechanical Association—A Joint Stock Proposed. During the late Fair of the above Association, it was proposed that the Association resolve itself into a joint stock company. By this arrangement, the Association will be enabled to offer a much larger premium list, thereby exciting competition and adding greater interest to its annual Fairs. Quite a large number of shares at ten dollars each, have already been subscribed, and it is hoped that the proposition will be received favorably by all well wishers of the agricultural and mechanical interests of the State. The plan has been incorporated into many associations of this character in other States both in the North and South, and the stockholders frequently reap a rich dividend upon their shares. Indeed, we have heard of one instance in which the dividend in one year was twenty per cent. Should this proposal be generally accepted and shares taken, it is thought by the originators of the plan, that per cent. of the amount subscribed, will be required from each stockholder, and that even with these low figures, it can be made to pay a handsome dividend.

What has become of our County Agricultural Association? Would it not be well for that body to take this proposition in hand and help the cause along? From the Charleston News of Nov. 7, 1871 men than the farmers' sons, gardeners, &c., of this country, and now that the Alabama business is settled, we can send you just as many of the very best of these people as you can handle. Some have just enough to pay passage, others not enough, requiring aid to the extent of $10 each, to be paid out of their wages. Some have a few pounds to spare; again, some others have quite a pretty amount of money, say $250 to $1500. Some even $2000 to $5000.

Now, if we can get you to aid some, say to the extent of ten dollars per head—that is per adult—to be afterwards repaid, and for which we take a due bill, (to be sent to you,) payable on demand, you can have all the good, square, honest, capable, sober, intelligent, hard-working people you want.

Can we say more? We send none whose capacity and character are not good, and this we take care of. Among the thousands we send, we think it would be difficult to find a bad character. It is the cream, the bone and sinew we select, not the profligate, worthless or indolent.

We shall be happy to do all we can to serve the purpose you have in view, and this we take care of. Among the thousands we send, we think it would be difficult to find a bad character. It is the cream, the bone and sinew we select, not the profligate, worthless or indolent.

WE remain, dear sirs, yours faithfully, (Signed) REED & KEIM.

FAIRFIELD. Gov. Scott has removed Mr. J. R. Boyles from his office as County Treasurer, and appointed Mr. H. A. Smith in his place. No one knows the cause of the change, as Mr. Boyles gave general satisfaction.

On Saturday night last, two negroes robbed the gin house of Mr. G. C. James, near Mars Bluff, of one hundred and fifty pounds of cotton. The hands on Mr. James' plantation captured the thieves who say that they are drummers for Florence merchants, and they are now in jail.

During an altercation last week, Mr. Rhet Moody shot Mr. Cade Thomas at the former's store six miles from Marion.

A negro man, was burned to death at Cade's depot last week. He was a turpentine hand and his clothes being smeared with it at the time of his catching fire the flesh was literally, destroyed from the bones, notwithstanding all efforts to rescue him.

A Survivors' Association has been organized in Marion.

THE TWO GREAT TUNNELS.—The following statement of the dimensions, cost &c., of the two great tunnels of the world is interesting: The Mont Cenis tunnel is 12,246 metres in length, or nearly eight miles; width, twenty-six feet eight inches, height twenty feet, cost, $13,000,000; time occupied in construction, nine years; number of workmen employed, about 2,000.

A GYPSY PARLIAMENT.—The Gypsy parliament which meets once every seven years, and consists of delegates from all the countries of Europe, is expected to assemble soon near Caustat, in Germany. The king of this nomadic race is one Joseph Reinhard, who has attained the venerable age of ninety-eight years. He has had seven wives, and is the father of forty-five children.—There are in Spain about 40,000 Gypsies, in England more than 18,000, while Austria has 97,000 and Moldavia and Wallachia are the chosen homes of nearly 200,000 more. Their religion has been the subject of much unsatisfactory discussion. Perhaps the Hindu saying, "there are seventy-two religions and a half in the world, the half being the religion of the Jhats, (or Gypsies)," comes as near to a correct definition as any.

The invariable formula for the exordium of a public document addressed to the throne of China, is in the following terms, taken at random from The Peking Gazette: "Tso-Tsum-Tank, degraded 3 steps, but with retention of rank, Imperial Commissioner, Marquis of first rank, and Governor-General of Kansuh and Shensi, kneeling, presents an address to the throne. Looking up, he requests the sacred glance on his reverent memorial, sent by express, on the subject," &c.
