BOARD OF DIRECTORS.—John McKenzie, John S. Preston, F. W. McMaster, W. B. Gulick, John T. Sloan, Sr., Dr. K. W. Gibbs, R. C. Shiver, Thomas Earle. STATE AT LARGE.—Ex-Governor M. L. Bonham, General M. C. Butler, General John D. Kenney, Colonel T. C. Perrin, Dr. Isaac Branch, Dr. H. R. Cook

We offer in the Piedmont and Arlington a solid and reliable Insurance Company, thoroughly Southern, in the hands of men of the highest integrity, with abundant assets, recent risks, the most secure of all investments, pledged to remain within the State of South Carolina all funds accruing therein, and, indeed, presenting every advantage that can be desired.

We confidently appeal to every one interested in Southern prosperity to look to their own interests by sustaining their own institutions, and thereby establish that self-confidence without which there can be no permanent prosperity. Bear in mind that already over $10,000,000 are annually sent North for Life Insurance, taking so much from our strength and thereby giving additional power to our competitors.

Right of party to non-forfeiture in all its policies. Rights of party to re-instatement paid up policy, and surrender value where "intervention of arms" or any other cause cuts the insured off from home office. This feature, omitted in policies of Northern companies, cost the Southern people very heavily in the late war, and should make them seek the only company that provides against such contingency in the future.

From an official exhibit, it is shown that the Piedmont and Arlington had a greater increase of business in 1869 over 1868 than any company on this continent. It shows that there were only three companies in the United States that issued more policies; also, that, with their accumulated risks of fifteen or twenty years all combined, this company, though young, stands twentieth in amount of risks in force.

This exhibit, among over a hundred companies, makes the Piedmont and Arlington the leading Life Insurance Company, at least of this country. It shows, not only progress, but caution and economy—its losses being light, its expenses small.

PLAN MUTUAL.

Dividend paid on whole Life Policies, forty per cent. Dividends given at end of first year, when all cash is paid. All policies non-forfeitable.

ATLANTIC PHOSPHATE.

This Fertilizer manufactured by the Atlantic Phosphate Company under the direction of their chemist Dr. St. Julien Ravenal, is now offered to the planting community at the very reduced price of $48 dollars per ton cash, or $52 payable 1st November 1872 free of interest.

This fertilizer has been very extensively used in this State, and has given entire satisfaction; some practical planters admitting it to be equal to Peruvian guano pound for pound.

All sales made now will be considered as due on 1st November 1872. By this arrangement planters will be enabled, without extra cost, to haul their manure when their wagons and mules are idle.

Pamphlets containing the certificates of those who have used the Atlantic Phosphate will be furnished on application to the Agents.

Carolina Fertilizer Triumph

WILMINGTON, N. C., August 21st, 1871.

For the largest production of Cotton to the acre, 1,600 lbs. Carolina fertilizer. For the largest production of Wheat the acre, 1,900 lbs Carolina Fertilizer. The above premiums are for crops produced with the use of the Carolina Fertilizer alone, or in combination with plantation manure only, and the awarding of said premiums is left discretionary with the committee of the Association under the rules. STEVENS & CURETON, Lancaster, S. C. Agents at Charlotte.

WAXHAMS, Lancaster county, S. C.

To P. P. Zimmerman, Esq., Secretary of the Fair of the Carolinas, Charlotte, N. C.: The following is a correct statement of the cotton raised by Stevens & Cureton on 14 acres of stubble land, which was manured with 400 pounds of Carolina Fertilizer. The following is the mode of cultivation: it was thoroughly plowed in the drill, then bedded on it on the 15th of May, and a half foot wide, and the fertilizer applied in the drill, then bedded on it on the 15th of May, and planted the same day, but owing to the cool and dry weather, did not come up to a stand until about the 1st of June. First working it was run around with a half shovel and partially trimmed out with a hoe. Second working it was run around with a 3 inch grub, 12 inches long and the middles thrown out with a sweep 18 inches wide. One furrow to a row and thinned to a stand with a hoe about 12 inches between the stocks, and afterwards it was ploughed every two weeks with a sweep 18 inches wide, and hoed each time, until it was worked five times. The following is a correct statement of the cotton picked:

1st picking, 254; 2d picking, 410; 3d picking, 413; estimated amount of unopened matured bolls, 816; total, 1,923. Respectfully submitted, W. A. GRAHAM.

I certify I weighed the cotton picked in the above statement, and it is correct. October 2d, 1871. W. A. GRAHAM, D. P. DURANT, W. A. GRAHAM, JOSEPH RODGES.

At the request of Messrs. Stevens & Cureton we have examined the above amount of cotton, and the estimate made above is true to the best of our ability.

Premiums awarded to Stevens & Cureton on the above certificate. We will sell the above splendid fertilizer at Forty-Five Dollars cash, or Fifty Dollars payable 1st November, with interest at 7 per cent. per annum, delivered at our warehouse in Charleston. Agents will sell at same prices, adding the freight and drayage to their depots.

The Worn-out Font of Type.

I'm sitting by my desk George; Before me on the floor There lies a worn-out font of type, Full twenty thousand score. And many months have passed, George, Since they were bright and new, And many are the tales they've told, The false, the strange, the true.

What tales of horror they have told, Of tempest and of wreck; Of murder in the midnight hour, Of wars full many a "speck!" Of ships that lost away at sea, Went down before the blast, Of stifled cries of agony, As life's that moment past.

Of earthquakes and suicides, Of falling crops of cotton, Of bank defaulters, broken banks, And banking systems rotten, Of boilers bursting, steamboats snagged, Of riots, duels fought, Of robbers with their prey escaped, Of thieves, their booty caught.

Of flood, and fire, and accident, These worn-out types have told, And how the pestilence has swept, The youthful and the old; Of marriages, of births and deaths, Of things to please or vex us, Of one man's jumping overboard, Another gone to Texas.

They've told how the sweet Summer days, Have faded from our view, How Autumn's chilly winds have swept The leaf-crowned forest through, How Winter's snows hath come and gone— Dark reign of storm and strife— And how the smiling Spring hath warmed The pale flower back to life.

I can't pretend to mention half My lucky friends have told Since shining bright and beautiful They issued from the mould— How unto some they joy have brought, To others grief and tears; Yet faithful they the record kept Of fast receding years.

A CURIOUS STORY ABOUT MRS. LINCOLN REITERATED.—A few days ago a paragraph in the Herald based upon what was known to be good authority, announced that Mrs. Abraham Lincoln had visited Boston, and incognito and closely veiled attended a public seance of a well known lady medium on Washington Street, on which occasion the spirit of her lamented husband appeared and by unmistakable demonstrations revealed to all present the identity of Mrs. Lincoln, which she had attempted to keep secret.— We have now the authority for saying that the report was in all respects accurate, that Mrs. Lincoln did visit Boston on the 4th instant, that she took lodgings at the Park House, registering her name as Mrs. Linder; that she remained there ten days, during which time she made frequent visits to the medium above mentioned, and that while at the hotel her identity was discovered by a person who had often seen her in Washington. She desired to have her visit to Boston unknown, but the injunction of secrecy ceased to be binding after the revelations at the public seance. It is further stated by those who are in a position to know, that the interviews with the medium were of the most conclusive and satisfactory nature, as affording tests of the real presence of the spirit of her husband.—Boston Herald, Feby. 23.

From the Chicago Post.

How a Wicked Editor Sold the Enlightened Press of the Country—The Danger of not Giving Proper Credit.

We of the press are given to kleptomaniac, wholesale pastry, the practice of the seissoren operation, whatever the reader may be pleased to call it. That is to say, to err is human in the matter of clipping columns of matter from our exchanges, and forgetting to give credit therefor. The table-talker himself does not propose to have brick at his brother editors "to any great extent," feeling conscious that in the days of his local career, when items were sea e and the pavements sloppy, he himself has cut whole columns of local news out of the New York papers, and, changing the streets and names, palmed off the result on an unsuspecting public as city news. But honesty is the best policy, even for a news editor. A few days ago the Table-Talker, being instigated by the "devil," who wanted more copy, evolved from his internal consciousness a circumstantial and original anecdote of G. Washington and his dog, crediting the same to "Parton's Life of Washington," a book which might have been written, but has not. The anecdote, though the Table-Talker says it himself, was a good one; ingenuity of the F. of his C. was displayed in a convincing manner, and it felt-like touch was added, declaring that the dog could never hear its master's voice, after the incident mentioned, without falling into an agony of terror. The Table-Talker constructed this anecdote for the benefit of his exchanges, who have never been able to find italic type enough in their offices for the words Cincaboo Post 17th, &c. The Cincinnati Commercial was the first to gorge the book. It was there that Washington and his Dog—From Parton's Life of "Washington." Then the Pittsburg papers followed. Then the Philadelphia North American gobbled it up, inserting Parton and ignoring the Post. Washington's dog is now having a good time in the eastern press, and the Table Talk has yet hopes of seeing the anecdote in some Life of Washington, cheek by jewel with the little hatchet with which the F. of his C. could not tell a lie. The moral of all this is, that it is better to credit any good thing you see in the papers to the Post than to copy it without any credit.

THE LONGEST SPEECH EVER MADE IN THE WORLD.—The opening argument of the Attorney-General of England, Sir John D. Coleridge, who appears for the defence in the celebrated Tichborne case, has proved, perhaps, the very longest speech ever heard of. It was begun on the 14th of January, and at our last accounts it had not been concluded. However, ten days after he began, neither judge nor jury showed any wish to have the distinguished advocate stop speaking. Before proceeding on that day, he remarked that certain ingenious persons who were ignorant of the facts had criticised him for not restricting himself to a day and a half. But it was necessary, inasmuch as the jury were now to hear for the first time a connected account of the case from its outset, that he should still detain them. This, however, he would not do one moment longer than was absolutely necessary. Both the Lord Chief Justice and the jury at once expressed the opinion that the Attorney-General had not wasted a single moment since he began to speak.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not like Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Restorer and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their cases are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Intermittent and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Congestion, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Itches, Spots, Pimples, Pastules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Prurigo, Itch, Scurs, Discolorations of the Face, Ringworms, and all eruptions of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried off to their source in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will cleanse the most incurable of the curable. Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find it impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS. J. WALKER, Proprietor, R. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 55 and 57 Commerce Street, New York.
