SCHOOL NOTICE.

The Camden Orphan Society announces to the citizens of Camden and vicinity, that they have elected Mr. JOHN W. JAMBOY, Teacher of their Male Academy, who will open the School on Monday the 20th instant.

This gentleman was engaged before the war, in teaching in public Schools of the State, and since the war, in private Schools, and gave satisfaction to the persons interested in those schools.
He completed his studies in French and other branches, by a residence in Paris.

He comes to us, recommended from the highest quarters, for his abilities as a Teacher, and his conduct in the discharge of his duties, and for his high moral character.

The Society therefore, recommend this School under his charge to the patronage of the public.
The rates of tuition established on a low scale, to conform to the public situation, as follows: For Spelling, Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, six dollars per quarter.

For the same course, with Grammar and other branches, eight dollars per quarter.

For the same course, with Mathematics, Algebra, Latin, Greek, French, on any one of these languages, twelve dollars per quarter.

Tuition fees to be paid monthly in advance.
