Phoenix Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1. ATTEND the Regular Monthly Meeting of your Company at Town Hall this (Thursday) Evening, at half past seven o'clock.

OUR AGENTS IN CHARLESTON.—The advertising agency of Walker, Evans & Cogswell, represented by Roswell T. Logan, Esq., is the only authorized agent for this paper, in Charleston.

MEETINGS.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of meetings to be held this and next week, to be found at the head of our local column.

J. A. ARMSTRONG.—Mr. Armstrong, the well known horse broker, unites to say that he has started towards our city with the best lot of Horses and Mules which he has ever brought here.

SALES ON MONDAY.—The good effect of the season and money which is afloat, was felt last Monday, in the high prices which were brought by property sold on that day.

Wm. D. McDowell, agent of Wm. Johnson's Estate, sold the town lots of that estate on which were a dwelling and three stores, to Mrs. F. P. DePass, for $3,450.00.

The Daash House, on Rutledge street, was purchased by Minton G. Huckabee, for $1,100.00.

Capt. T. H. Clarke purchased a tract of the Chesnut lands, containing 230 acres, for $1,200.00.

The Richardson lands, sold in several tracts, to suit purchasers, brought from $1.50 to $4.20 per acre, the sale amounting $1,627.00.

The Moseley Tract, of seventy acres, belonging to the assigned estate of McDonald & McCurry, brought $150.00. Purchased by Mr. John G. Wooten.

Another tract of the Chesnut land, containing 285 acres, was bid in by the Receivers of that estate at $1,100.

The Cunningham house, sold under mortgage, was bid in by the trustee of mortgagee, at a merely nominal figure.

The attendance at the sale was not large, but the bidding was very spirited, and the prices at which property sold, gave much satisfaction to those interested.

IMPROVEMENTS IN PROGRESS.—Capt. W. L. DePass has begun operations on the corner, where what was the Kershaw House, now is, with the intention of making it one of the most attractive business resorts in town.

His intention is to erect four stores, fronting on Broad street, twenty-one feet wide by one hundred deep. The fronts are to be in city style, with many of the latest improvements for light, ventilation and so on.

THE ORPHANS.—The authorities of the South Carolina Orphan's Home have contracted for the purchase of suitable buildings, for the sum of $8,000.00, and call upon our people to raise their quota, $250.00, towards its payment.

Contributions will be gratefully received, and may be handed to Gen. Kershaw, one of the Board of Visitors.

MR. W. J. ARRANTS.—This well known gentleman has returned to the house of R. C. Shiver & Co., and can be found in the wholesale and retail dry goods department.

PRESENT THEM.—All claims against the County, are required to be presented on or before Monday next. When they will be paid is another matter.

THE CAROLINA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—A letter from Gen. Hampton, dated October 31, authorizes the statement that the loss of this Company by the failure of the Savings Bank of Memphis was very slight, and will put the Company to no inconvenience.

A FIENDISH ACT—GIN HOUSE AND MILL BURNED.

On last Friday morning about daylight or a little after, a fire was discovered in the large three story gin house of Mr. Thos. W. Lang on the west side of Waterree River. The gin house was used jointly by Messrs. Theodore and T. W. Lang, and contained at the time of the fire about thirty-seven bales of cotton, fifteen of which were lint, one thousand bushels of cotton seed and extensive machinery for ginning cotton and threshing rice.

Of the cotton burned, Mr. Theo. Lang loses about fifteen bales, and Mr. Thos. W. Lang twenty-two. Mr. T. W. Lang states that he was present and saw the gin house locked on Thursday night, and no fire was used about the premises. Several of his hands passed on their way to the field, only a few minutes before the fire was discovered, and one of them went around the house looking for a basket in which to place cotton, but he neither saw nor smelt any fire.

The "spontaneous combustion" theory prevails to some extent, as the cause, and others attribute it to the peculiar fondness which rats have for gnawing the phosphorus, &c., on matches, while others again, believe that it was the work of an incendiary, in which belief we coincide.

There is, however, no one at present to whom suspicion attaches. It is probable that a heavy robbery was committed and the house fired to conceal it.

The loss will amount to not less than nine thousand dollars, and there was no insurance upon the premises.

This is the fourth case of gin houses being burnt in this county this season, and it behooves every one to keep a sharp lookout upon the fruits of their year's labors.

We tender our sincere sympathy to our afflicted friends.

THE ELECTION.—We had long since given up the idea that the election day would bring forth anything worthy of the reporter's notice or that of the public. Beyond the crowd usually collected upon such an occasion, there was absolutely nothing to excite comment, except the total lack of excitement which prevailed during the day.

We are not able, without delaying our issue too long, to give the vote of the County this week, but we will present it in our next.

The vote in Camden is as follows:

Whole number of votes cast 1,227. Of which Grant received 991, Greeley 236.

Majority for Grant 755. It is probable that the County will give Grant a majority of from eight hundred to a thousand.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the real estate of Col. L. W. R. Blair, containing five thousand acres, more or less, situated on and near Lynchess creek, will be sold on the first Monday, the 2nd day, of December next.

The land will be divided into tracts suitable for smaller farms and the times, and as soon as practicable, plats will be on exhibition at the Sheriff's office. Some, in fact a large portion of this land, is as good as any in this County. Those who are seeking investments of this character, should not neglect this opportunity. The terms are very easy.

THE FAIR IN COLUMBIA.—On Monday last this exhibition was thrown open to visitors, and the display is said to exceed any yet made. The usual sideshows are also present, comprising the fat woman, a juggler, learned pig and many other amusing and money making arrangements.

A large number of our citizens have also gone, and the probabilities are that the Fair is a great success.

THE ORPHAN'S APPEAL.—This is the name of a little sheet published monthly by the Local Board of Trustees of the Palmetto Orphan Home, Columbia, S. C. Among the givers to this noble work, we notice that Mr. George C. Lorimer, of Boston, Mass., gave fifty dollars, on the 23d of October, 1872. Cannot the entire County of Kershaw give five times that amount for a home institution? Gen. Kershaw or Col. Shannon will receive any contributions.

The Appeal is sent to subscribers for fifty cents a year, or four cents a month. We will readily receive and forward all subscriptions together with the names of subscribers to the Appeal. "He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth to the Lord," and look, what he giveth out shall be paid him again."

A RUNAWAY.—On Friday last, a horse attached to a wagon, the property of Wash Benny's son-in-law, (sufficient distinction, without any individual name,) conceived the design of trying how near he could run the wagon to the north portico of the late Kershaw House, without striking it. The experiment failed, as an experiment, but the horse was eminently successful in tearing down the portico and injuring the wagon and himself quite badly. He saved the workmen the trouble of tearing the portico down. Inasmuch, he was a benefactor.

KU KLUX CONSPIRACY.—We are indebted to Congressman Rainey for copies of the reports of the majority and Minority Committees on the so-called Ku Klux Conspiracy.

A MONSTER OKRA STALK.—Capt Sam'l. Place has laid upon our table a monstrous okra stalk, which was raised in his garden, in town. It measures twelve inches in circumference at the base. Who can beat this? One would do for a small family for a year, if it bore fruit in proportion to its size.

THE RURAL CAROLINIAN.—For November, is before us, and more than usual pains have been bestowed upon it. We can conscientiously recommend this magazine as one of the best published in this country. Price, per annum, $2.00. Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell, publishers, Charleston, S. C.

SOUTHERN CULTIVATOR for Nov. received. Contents varied—appropriate, instructive and entertaining. No farmer could read it, without getting valuable facts and having profitable trains of thought suggested. It is preeminently a Southern Magazine, carefully adapted to the wants and situation of the Southern farmer.—Address Southern Cultivator, Athens, Ga.—Price, $2.00 a year.

THE AMERICAN FARMER.—The November number of this old standard agricultural journal contains, as usual, a large amount of varied and useful matter appropriate to the season, and every department of rural life receives its due share of attention.

For the new volume for 1873 the publishers offer very handsome inducement in the way of valuable premiums for the formation of clubs, and we recommend our readers to send for specimen numbers. The "Farmer" is published by Sam'l Sands & Son, Baltimore, Md., at $1.50 a year, or at $1 to clubs of five or more.

SOL SMITH RUSSELL. THE POPULAR ACTOR PLANNING AN OCCUPATION OF THE SOUTH.

About the 10th of November Mr Russell leaves for an extended Southern trip, which will occupy him at least ten months, commencing at Cairo, and embracing Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Virginia, the Carolinas, Pennsylvania and Ohio, with, in all probability, short tours in Louisiana and Texas. His entertainment takes the form of a monologue, something like Charles Matthews' "At Home," or Winchell's exhibition. It will contain a great variety of impersonations, brief comic lectures, songs, &c. From the style in which it is written, and his well known

PERSONAL CHARACTER, The entertainment is sure to be not only an agreeable one, but one with which the most fastidious taste cannot find fault.

Mr. Russell has for the past seven years traveled with the Berger Family and the Peak Family, and in his vacations has frequently tried giving an entertainment of the above character. His attempts have met with such success as to warrant him adopting that line of business permanently. He is accompanied by Mr. James E. Stewart, a pianist from Detroit, who has won no small fame as a composer, both of songs and instrumental pieces.—St. Louis Democrat.
