

A Hard Case in Court.

The following amusing scene is said to have taken place in one of the courts out West:

Judge—Bring the prisoner before the court.

Pete—Here he is, bound to blaze, as the spirits of turpentine said when it was on fire.

Judge—We'll take a little fire out of you. How do you live?

Pete—I ain't particular, as the oyster said when they axed him if he would be fried or roasted.

Judge—We don't want to hear what the oyster said, or the spirits of turpentine either. What do you follow?

Pete—Not particular, anything that comes in the way, as the locomotive said when she run over the nigger.

Judge—We don't care anything about the locomotive. What's your business?

Pete—That's various, as the cat said when she stole the chicken off the table.

Judge—That comes near the line now, I suppose.

Pete—Altogether in my line, as the rope said when it was choking the pirate.

Judge—If I hear any more such comparisons I shall give you twelve months.

Pete—I am done, as the beefsteak said to the cook.

Judge—Now, sir, your punishment shall depend upon the shortness and correctness of your answers. I suppose you live by going round the docks.

Pete—No, sir, can't go round the docks without a boat, and hain't got one.

Judge—Answer me. How do you get your bread?

Pete—Sometimes at Small's, the baker, and sometimes I eat a tater.

Judge—No more of that stupid insolence. How do you support yourself?

Pete—Sometimes on my legs and sometimes on a chair.

Judge—I order you to answer this question correctly; how do you do?

Pete—Pretty well, I thank you, how do you do?

Here Pete was allowed to retire without further interrogatories as to his occupation or mode of living.

WANTED

This work is a complete history of all branches of industry, processes of manufacture, etc., in all its ages. It is a complete encyclopedia of arts and manufactures, and is the most entertaining and valuable work of information on subjects of general interest ever offered to the public. The book is sold by agents, who are making large sales in all parts of the country. It is offered at the low price of $3.50, and is the cheapest book ever sold by subscription. We want Agents in every town in the United States, and no Agent can fail to do well with this book. Our terms are liberal. We give our agents the exclusive right of territory. One of our agents sold 128 copies in eight days, another sold 363 in twelve days. Agents in Hartford sold 27 in one week. Specimens of the work sent to agents on receipt of stamp. For circulars and terms to agents address the publishers, sample copies this book sent to any address on receipt of price.

DIAMOND SPECTACLES.

THESE Spectacles are manufactured from "MINUTE CRYSTAL FIBERS," melted together and are called DIAMOND on account of their hardness and brilliancy. It is well known that Spectacles cut from Brazilian or Scotch Pebbles are very injurious to the eye, because of their polarizing effect. Having been tested with the polaroscope, the diamond lenses have been found to admit fifteen per cent. less heated rays than any other pebble. They are ground with great scientific accuracy, are free from chromatic aberrations, and produce a brightness and distinctness of vision not before attained in Spectacles. Manufactured by the Spencer Optical Manufacturing Company, New York. For sale by J. A. YOUNG, Camden, S. C. From whom they can only be obtained. No peddlers permitted. The great demand for these Spectacles has induced unscrupulous dealers to palm an inferior and spurious article for the "Diamond." Great care should be taken to see that the trade mark which is protected by American Letters Patent is stamped on every pair. September 23.
