THE JOURNAL.

JOHN KERSHAW, Editor and Proprietor.

CAMDEN S. C., JANUARY 2, 1873.

"A Rappy New-Year."

This, we very cordially present as a com pliment of the season to all our readers.

Undoubtedly, to many, the compliment will be apt and acceptable, while to many others, the words will fall with a jarring sound upon the ears.

The year just passed has been a trying one in many particulars. Events of the greatest magnitude have been occurring with startling rapidity, and scarcely a day passes without some new and unheard of thing be. ing brought to light. In fact, it is difficult to create a sensation, so numerous are occurrences of that character. But in the ceaseless whirl of business, and amid the engrossing cares of life, let us beware lest we forget Him by whose command all these strange spring into light, for we live in an age where every thing is viewed from a materialistic stand point. The greater concerns of eternity are merged into the lesser concerns of time, and the spiritual is east entirely aside as unworthy the attention of the active, wide awake man of the period. Every thing is reduced to a money standard, and anything which does not pay, is refused a hearing. But as we look back to the beginning of the last twelve-month, how many familiar faces do we remember, which are now lying forever still in the bosom of the earth, closely held in the cold embrace of the King of Terrors! How many of those very persons, who were breasting the tide of life with the best of us, and who were pursuing the phantom, money, with the same cager efforts that we now bring to bear !-

Is it a time then, when we should torget that, like the dying, yes, dead year, we too. must pass away. To how many of us will it In addition to an admirable medical treatise on be permitted to see another year?

These are questions which we would do

But along with those solemn reflections. we still live to drink in the purest pleasure, suitable for a correct and comprehensive Nathe draughts of happiness presented by our TIONAL CALENDAR. health, our friends, the bounty by which we are surrounded and the many tempting fields of success which are opened. We buckle tian world, are fully set forth in its pages. ed vigor and strength towards the accomplishment of our desires.

And, triends, a word in your ear. Remember the printer. Some of you owe him and he will doubly welcome you, if at this joyous season you all present those many mickles which make a muckle. That's all.

FOR THE JOURNAL.

Mr. Editor :- The cap seems to have fit Wateree. Why should be erect his mane and roar so loudly because four members out of eleven should be confined for a few months of the year in one store? Where are the other seven? Do these four hard working and industrious young clerks constitute the band? This reason. Mr. Editor, is as clear as the Wateree river itself, somewhat muddy. Wateree says "the band does not meet to practice now." The question I would like to ask is. When did they all ever meet? I have never, or have I ever seen any person who ever saw them all together. During the summer months when our four "clerks" could get off early in the evenings and the band met for practice, there was always one or more members of the band absent. Again Wateree informs us that "there have never been any demands for the band to perform in public." I would ask him if he has for gotten the Steamboat excursion of November, 1871, when the Captain of the Steamer Isis tendered the Waterce Band a polite invitation to furnish music for the occasion? Has he forgotten St. John's Day when the Masons had their celebration? Our band received a written invitation to play only two pieces of music-one piece to march the Brotherhood from their hall to the Presbyterian Church, and another to march them back. This was refused by the band. Later still: when the Musical Club of Camden invited the band to perform at one of their social meetings, did they do it?

Another thin idea advanced by Watereehear him: "Do the citizens wish us to come out such weather as we have had the past week?" as though the fifty-two weeks in the year was anything like this cold week. True, the band did come ont and play one night last summer, but they never repeated it .-They gave three concerts, not for the good people of Camden, however, but for themselves. They are not a "public band."-How can this be. Do we "light a candle and put it under a bushel." What is the good of a band if it is not a public one. All this is so thin, Mr. Editor, that any person who has given the subject a thought will see the truth at once. Energy is wanting, and Deficiencies for past until this necessary virtue is obtained, the band must be a failure. I am satisfied however, to learn that the band is about to be re-organized, and have constitution. Let us Buffalo and Flat Rock give them a fair trial, and help them along I would recommend that the band procure a charter and go to work. Let us have a band. CONTRIBUTOR.

Dr. Wm. H. Tutt: It affords me much pleasure to testify to he great value of your Liver Pills. They are all they are represented to be. In my opinion, there are no Pills so well adapted in the Southern climate as they are.

"Can't do Without it."-This is what the stage and horse car companies, livery-stable keepers, members of the turf, and all grooms and trainers say of the Mustang Liniment. The "can't do without it." And why? Becauste it infallibly reduces the external swellings, &c , which, under various names, impair strains, galls and other injuries to which horse-flesh is liable, it is the most trustworthy preparation in the market. Yet these recommendations comprise only a portion of its claims to public confidence. During a period of more than sixteen years, it has been recognized as a specific for many of the most agonizing disorders which afflict the humon family-such as rheumatism, gout, neuralgia lumbago, tiedoloreux, sore throat, carache, toothache; and likewise as a peerless application for cuts, braises, burns and scalds.
