

Three Weeks More.

Less than three weeks more and the 5th of November, a day to be memorable in the history of South Carolina, will be here.

All Along the Line.

The news from all parts of the State is most encouraging. That a brilliant triumph awaits the Democrats is no longer a matter of doubt.

But, though the prospect is so favorable, we must not forget that work—constant, determined and harmonious work—is the price of success.

Guard Your Liberties.

In the election in Ohio the other day the Republicans tried the same game—and were successful too—that they practiced in South Carolina during the radical administration.

Let us rise up now in our might, and put a stop to it; restore the government to what it was under our fathers, and drive out all those thieves and robbers who have for the last ten years robbed alike the treasury of its money and the people of their liberties.

We can see from the above what we may expect in South Carolina on the fifth of November if we do not bestir ourselves and be ready to meet them at the polls, and there give the death blow to villainy, rascality and corruption in our State, and firmly establish in its stead an honest and good government.

NEWS ITEMS.

A BERLIN dispatch says the election of the Prince of Montenegro as Prince of Bulgaria is agitated in the latter country.

GEN. PILLOW, one of the veterans of the Mexican war and a major-general in the Confederate army, died at his home in Arkansas recently. He was in the 73d year of his age.

THE Vulcan iron works, the last manufactory remaining open in Chattanooga, had to close up on account of the yellow fever running off all the skilled workmen.

THE Berlin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that notwithstanding the fact that policemen and military patrols scour the streets of St. Petersburg, revolutionary placards continue to be posted in that city.

EDINBURGH, PA., was destroyed by fire on the morning of the 13th instant. The fire broke out at half-past 3 o'clock. The firemen were promptly on hand, but their efforts were paralyzed by an insufficiency of water.

JUSTICE very seldom overtakes the "gentleman" thief, but two of them were taken in the other day. Jesse R. Oakley, defaulting cashier of the Merchants' Exchange National Bank, of New York, who was indicted in 1870, and fled to Europe, but returned recently, was sentenced, in the United States Court, to five years' hard labor in the Albany penitentiary.

ANOTHER piece of rascally robbing and swindling has just been sanctioned by the government. The attorney general decides that United States marshals are entitled to full mileage on each writ served by them, when several writs issued in behalf of the Government against different persons are served at the same time, only one travel being necessary to make the service on all of said persons, provided the travel is actually performed.

A BLOODY MYSTERY.—The Edisto (Orangeburg) Clarion of Saturday last has the following: "On Monday night as some raftmen were coming down Black Creek, Lexington County, they noticed the body of a man in the water just below Bambeau's Bridge.

AT Meridian there have been 36 deaths and 143 new cases to date. The disease continues to spread. At Baton Rouge for the last 24 hours 92 new cases and 8 deaths have been reported.

to negroes. St. Croix was already declining rapidly, and the island therefore is totally ruined. The merchants of St. Thomas lost heavily by the insurrection.

THE Greenback candidate for Governor of Tennessee, seeing the utter hopelessness of his getting the position, has announced his withdrawal from the race.

COLLECTOR WOODCOCK, writing to the Internal Revenue office from Nashville, under date of the 9th instant, reports the big raid still progressing. He says: "Jackson County is apparently invincible. My raiders can march through the county and receive the fire of the enemy from every hill-top and return the fire, but the nature of the ground is such that no arrests of armed violators can be made.

A TERRIBLE disaster occurred at a theatre in Liverpool on the 11th inst. It is stated that between four and five thousand persons were in the Colosseum Theatre at the time that a fatal panic occurred, although the statement is probably exaggerated. It appears that one of the performers was singing a comic song when a free fight commenced in the pit.

THE FEVER STILL SPREADING.

HELENA, ARK., October 14.—The following announcement was made by the board of health to-day: "This board believes it now becomes its duty to announce to the citizens that while the prevailing disease may not be strictly yellow fever, it is certainly assuming quite as fatal a character, and the citizens are hereby so advised."
