LOCAL

MR. HENRY KOHN—Is paying us a flying visit, we hear that he intends leaving us shortly to take up his abode in Atlanta. Go where he may our best wishes follow him.

On Monday last the property known as the "Oliver law office" was put up at auction, and purchased by Maj. T. B. Whaley, who has moved already into one of the offices, and Col. Wm. J. DeTreville occupies the other.

A CAT AS IS A CAT—Dr. Butler has one of these pets at the corner of Main and Market Streets, that he says can whip any dog not over four times her weight. We put "Scrap" in the ring against her yesterday, but we have not seen him since to learn what he thought of it.

We learn that Dr. F. J. Calvert, formerly of Spartanburg, has taken up his residence in our town, and in company with Dr. A. M. Snider, will attend to any dental work that our citizens or country friends may require.

POISONING—We hear that several dogs about town have been poisoned within the past few days, this can only mean that those dogs stood in the way of some party, who wished to go where they ought not to. There is an unusually large number of valuable dogs in this town that are subject to the same dastardly outrage.

MR. J. FELDER MEYERS—We are pleased to say that Mr. Meyers is still doing, as well as his friends could wish him, and any one who may imagine that he is on his last leg, is entirely mistaken, he has two still left, true one of them is a little damaged, and "laid up for repairs" but the work on it is nearly completed, and it will soon be in running order again.

PARKERS ESCAPE—We see by the Columbia Advertiser that N. G. Parker, against whom the jury found a verdict, some time since of $75,000, has escaped from the Columbia jail, and gone "where the woodbine twineth," smart Parker, when he is captured we will report the fact.

Two of our citizens, left us last night, disgusted with our thermometers, that will mark up in the nineties, to seek refuge in those cool and refreshing sections where the invigorating sea breeze blows, and nobody cares a dern for expenses.

A FISCHER—Has just come into the possession of a new wagon of superior make, and pretty appearance, with which he proposes to deliver, all of the cheap groceries, that may be bought at his establishment. He intends, not only to sell you his goods "low down," but to send them home for you also.

FALSE ALARM—On Wednesday night a false alarm of fire was raised that caused a good many of our "men of property" to thrust their heads out of their windows with the anxious inquiry, Where? but it was soon understood that it was only a few fiery blows, and a large lot of fiery words, being passed between an affectionate husband on the one side, and his wife and her friends on the other side.

LEXINGTON PIC-NIC—We extend our thanks to "Saxe Gotha Lodge, Knights of Jericho," for an invitation to join them in a picnic to be given at Lexington C. H. on 12th instant. It would afford us great pleasure to avail ourselves of this kind invitation and enjoy with the "Knights" and their friends the good time that we know they will have.

ÆSOP'S FABLE NO. 38—Once upon a time there was a young man, and there was also a young lady, and the young lady wrote a note to the young man, in a most tender and pathetic strain, but the young man being hard hearted and perverse, could not, or would not, appreciate the "tender effusions" of the young lady, but returned the note itself, with an endorsement, implying an utter want of appreciation of any such proceedings.

Moral, Young ladies never write to young men, unless you are sure of the one you write to.

On Monday night an unknown colored man was run over by the up night train of cars and killed, he was a young man about twenty years of age, black, well built, and about five feet eight inches in height, no beard. He had with him a bundle containing a new pair of pants, a shirt and some few small articles. Nothing of value was found upon him.

PIC-NIC AT FAIR GROUNDS—The members of the Agricultural Society and their friends, will have a meeting and picnic at the Fair building on the 14th inst., where doubtless an exceedingly pleasant day will be spent in discussing the crops, and the water-mellons, peaches, chickens, hams,

&c., that we know will be provided. Orangeburg has good reasons to be proud of her Agricultural Society, and this idea of connecting a picnic with it, is a happy thought. Our thanks are due the Secretary, Mr. Kirk Robinson, for a complimentary invitation.

C. D. KORTJOHN—Is just as busy at his old stand as the warm weather will allow, his stock is all marked low down, as he wants to clean out his shop for the fall goods coming on soon. It is worth a visit to Dicks' store, just to see how sweetly and pleasantly he can entice the last cent of money out of your pocket, he will show you dozens of different articles that you never dreamed of buying, and when he puts the price down about one half, you are just compelled to buy, if only to reward his politeness.

We again urge upon the attention of our readers the importance of the matter contained in the communication of H. in to-days issue, as we take it, he is endeavoring to put before the public the patent fact that "the country that produces, cannot grow in wealth or population unless they manufacture their products," this truth has been proven beyond all controversy and needs no comment.

Upon the manufacture of our great product, cotton, first Manchester, Birmingham, and other English cities grew and flourished then our far seeing "down Easters" realizing the amount of the profits, we are so slow to believe in, erected their mills nearer the growing crops, and surely and steadily have drawn the manufacturing business closer home. Cannot we at the South see as they saw, that the nearer the factory is to the cotton, the greater the profit?

CELEBRATION—On Monday last a gathering from nearly all parts of the State, met at this place to celebrate the emancipation of slavery in the West India Islands. Delegations and large crowds came in on excursion trains from Charleston, Columbia, Greenville, and other points, accompanied by various bands of music, and all bent upon passing a pleasant day in memory of the act that had bestowed the boon of freedom upon thousands of the colored race.

The large crowd assembled in the grounds of the University, appeared to have left all care behind them; and the pleasant jest, the merry jokes and friendly conversation passed the time rapidly away, assisted by the various bands whose music now and again floated out over the grounds. For so large an assemblage, say three to four thousand, the best of good order was observed, and we have yet to hear of any disturbance of any kind, which occurred that day. During the night the visitors again took to the cars, and sped away, carrying with them, we are sure, very pleasant impressions of the day spent at Orangeburg.

With pain we announce the death, on Saturday last, of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kohn. So, one by one, with singular rapidity, the little ones of our town have dropped off during the past few months. Only lent for a while, to catch a passing glance of this world, and gladden for a short time their parents hearts, they are again called home. We sympathize deeply with the parents in their affliction.

Lost.—Between Plain street and the Lutheran Church, on Sunday morning, a dark blue silk lady's umbrella. The finder will please leave it at the Phoenix office. A liberal reward will be paid.—Phoenix, July 31.

If the bird is not dead yet, we would like to ask him what kind of lady "a dark blue silk" one is? We hear pretty often of a "white lady" and of a "colored lady," but a "dark blue silk" one. Whew! remove the tattered fragment of dry goods from its resting place upon the shrubbery.

GRAVELLY AT LAST—Gratefully, we record the fact that at last we have had good and copious rains. Since Sunday last we have had, each day, fine, refreshing showers that were alike welcome to the sweltering humanity and the thirsty plants, and yet so dry and parched is the ground that the dust is scarcely laid. We do trust that there will be a continuation of these rains, and an end to the hot, scorching, burning, sultry weather, that we have passed through during the past two months, humanity can scarcely stand it much longer.

TIED UP—In running about too and fro on Monday last, seeking what we might devour in the way of locals, we were suddenly stopped by one of our town fathers, who caught our arm and said "look," we looked, it came towards us. She was a woman, or she was a man, with both legs in one leg of a pair of pants. We rather think she was a woman, and the dress was scant, scant in front, but the rest of the seventeen yards was piled up on the back where they used to wear the big belt buckles, and such a pile, so large, so shapely, so voluminous, so overwhelming, so airy, so balloonish, so, so, well the woman has gone back to Columbia and carried that thing with her, and thanks be to Venus, has refused all offers of the dress-makers here to allow a "pattern to be taken." We are glad to say that our fashion Editors is off for a months holiday, otherwise a full description of this "toilet" would have been given to our readers, and we have no doubt, many an anxious husband's heart would bleed, no, we mean his purse would bleed, to allow some fair one to emulate the ethereal beatitude, the magical disordered order, that threw such a halo of transcendental magnificence around the, ah, well, we mean they would, perhaps, want to copy after that gal.

AUGUST FLOWER.—The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effect, such as sour stomach, sick head-ache, habitual costiveness, impure blood, heart-burn, water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of the food after eating, low spirits, &c. Go to the Drug Store of DR. A. C. DUKES and get a 75 cent bottle, or a sample bottle for 10 cents. Try it. DR. A. C. DUKES.
